The Greats of Cuttermcane Terry Kay, 2011 When Asa Holbrook Staggs stepped into the cold water spring that would later bear his name he was drunk The date was November 18 1914 He pulled himself from the water sober cold and converted to a new life in the Lord And thus began the legend of Asa's Spring a pool indiscriminately dispensing favoritism to those who believed or wondered about the curative power of its water These are stories of people born in Cuttermcane Georgia the place of Asa's Spring and who earned minor celebrity from the townsfolk's highest praise He she is something else ain't he she The something else is what a Southerner might call a catchall phrase for it can apply to saint and sinner alike It means exactly what it implies the person referenced has made a name for him/her self in some manner Asa the drunk becoming a war hero the reigning heavyweight lard watermelon champion and Indian terror Newell Proudfoot in a grudge match against the Prichard twins Felton Eugene Weaver's rise from whiskey runner to Hollywood movie fame Elmo Parker and Monroe Dawson in a showdown baseball game between the Claybank Textile Tigers and the Jefferson Bluejays and last the stunning Mattie Mae Blair's career as the strip tease artist Princess Salome Written in the edged in humor style of caricature these stories are shared daily in cafes and other gathering spots in rural communities in the South It is a practice embedded in the culture and all it takes for a casual mention to become a tall tale is one storyteller trying to outdo another If you find yourself in the company of such men and women pause nearby and eavesdrop When the snickering turns into a cackle you will know that someone has been elevated to being something else

Bogmeadow's Wish Terry Kay, 2011 When Cooper Coghlan arrives in Ireland with his grandfather's remains he has one instruction let my ashes blow in the wind You'll know the place when you come to it I'll be there telling you Mesmerized by his romantic vision of Ireland Cooper begins his search with the unknowing help of friends and an Irish stranger named Kathleen The Valley of Light Terry Kay, 2010-03-16 A lyrical and poignant novel from one of America's greatest storytellers the author of To Dance with the White Dog On a sunny summer day in 1948 Noah Locke arrives in Bowerstown a small North Carolina community bordered by lakes and set deep in the Valley of Light A quiet simple man and a war veteran Noah has a mystical gift for fishing yet he remains haunted by the war and by the terrible scenes he witnessed when his infantry unit liberated Dachau His wandering doing odd jobs and catching fish for sale or trade is both an escape from his past and a search for a place to call home In the valley Noah is initially treated with amusement by the locals he meets at Taylor Bowers's general store until he begins fishing Once they see his almost magical skills however he becomes the talk of the valley and is urged to stay long enough to participate in the annual school fishing contest He agrees accepting a job offer by Taylor to paint his store when he isn't filling orders for fish He finds lodging in an abandoned shack by a small lake the locals call the Lake of Grief and also the Lake of No Fish because they think all the fish have disappeared Noah knows they are wrong Beneath the water is a warrior bass waiting to test Noah's gift In the way that innocence creates powerful events Noah meets Eleanor Cunningham a young widow whose husband supposedly killed himself after returning home from the war Over the course of a week Noah will be led into the secret lives of the residents of the Valley of Light will join them as they mourn a tragedy and will experience a miracle that will guide him home at last Luminous memorable and deeply moving The Valley of Light is the finest work to date from a brilliant storyteller The Book of Marie Terry Kay, 2007 In spring 1962 a young black girl is killed at a civil rights demonstration on a university campus in Atlanta The next day a home in Georgia is burned Both events are etched into the memory of Cole Bishop eerily playing out the predictions of a former classmate named Marie Fitzpatrick Cole and Marie are high school seniors when they first meet in fall 1954 He is a native born Southerner accepting the traditions of segregation as a way of life Marie is a recent transplant from Washington DC a brilliant and assertive nonconformist with bold predictions about a new world that is about to be ushered in by desegregation The story revolves around the fiftieth reunion of the Overton High School class of 1955 The Book of Marie is the story of a generation whites and blacks who ignited the war of change Yet it is also as much about the power of place the finding of home as it is about the history of events Atlanta Magazine, 2007-12 Atlanta magazine's editorial mission is to engage our community through provocative writing authoritative reporting and superlative design that illuminate the people the issues the trends and the events that define our city The magazine informs challenges and entertains our readers each month while helping them make intelligent choices not only about what they do and where they go but what they think about matters of importance to the community and the region Atlanta magazine's editorial mission is to engage our community through provocative writing authoritative reporting and superlative design that illuminate the people the issues the trends and the events that define our city The magazine informs challenges and entertains our readers each month while helping them make intelligent choices not only about what they do and where they go but what they think about matters of importance to the community and the region Golden hours, ed. by W.M.
