Tokyo The City At The End Of The World:

Tokyo Peter Popham, 2021-07-20 Tokyo 1985 The world's first megacity is at the height of its dynamism Forty years ago a frenzy of creativity galvanised the Japanese capital From fashion to movies to electronics Tokyo was forging the future Factories run by robots the world's first high speed trains apartment blocks built from shipping containers love hotels modelled on Bavarian castles In the thick of it a young British teacher gazed around and asked questions Why are Tokyoites so phlegmatic about earthquakes What makes this high tech city so unmistakably Japanese And how despite its size and pace has Tokyo retained many pockets of perfect calm First published in 1985 Tokyo the City at the End of the World was quickly recognised in Time magazine The New Yorker and elsewhere as a fascinating portrait of the city that pointed where the world was headed Forty years on numerous Asian cities have taken up Tokyo's baton but Peter Popham's depiction of its menace and charm remains unrivalled Sustainability and the City Lauren Curtright, Doris Bremm, 2017-07-28

Sustainability and the City Urban Poetics and Politics contributes to third generation discourse on sustainable development by considering through a humanistic lens theories and practices of sustainability in a wide range of urban cultures It demonstrates cities inextricability from discussions on sustainability because not only is the world urbanizing at an unprecedented rate but also cities are primary locations of the circulation of excess capital socioeconomic divisions and hierarchies political resistance friction between human and non human worlds and the confluence of art policy and identity formation in placemaking With essays by scholars working in a variety of fields from architecture to literature to music to sociology this collection maintains that any hope for achieving urban sustainability will require taking seriously the ways in which cities are imagined Efforts to make cities sustainable must fully incorporate the humanities because critical endeavors and creative expressions that fall within the purview of the humanities are vital to closing the conceptual gulf as well as the practical gap between human and non human conservation Even if the environmental humanities embrace cities critics must ask whether coalescing the terms sustainability and city may actually obstruct human action to combat climate change which from some angles seems impending self imposed apocalypse To examine the urban turn Sustainability and the City attends to culture Essays in the first part of the collection approach urban sustainability from various disciplinary vantage points to emphasize history ideology pedagogy and critical theory The second part of the collection analyzes urban commons on four different continents Finally the collection moves from a diverse set of interpretations of on the ground urban phenomena to a compilation of readings of sustainability in different media and genres sound art drama fiction and film set in or evocative of cities The collection carves out a place for artists and critics to help realize social justice in cities which generate remarkable power but power that is too often and too easily used destructively unfairly and wastefully despite cities unique capacities to inspire and sustain humanity A Companion to the Anthropology of Japan Jennifer Robertson, 2008-03-10 This book is an unprecedented collection of 29 original essays by some of the world's most distinguished scholars of Japan Covers a broad range of issues including the colonial roots of anthropology in the Japanese academy eugenics and nation building majority and minority cultures genders and sexualities and fashion and food cultures Resists stale and misleading stereotypes by presenting new perspectives on Japanese culture and society Makes Japanese society accessible to readers unfamiliar with the country Cities of the World Stanley D. Brunn, Jack Francis Williams, 1993 Tokyo: 29 Walks in the World's Most Exciting City John H. Martin, Phyllis G. Tweedie, 2010-12-01 East Asia is a pivotal region in the advancement of media technologies globalized consumerism and branding economies City and urban spaces are now attracting cinematic imaginaries and the academic examination of visual images and urban space in East Asian contexts Highlighting changing conceptions and blurring boundaries of where city ends and cinema begins this collection offers an original contribution to film media and cultural studies urban studies and sociology Koichi Iwabuchi Waseda University The originality of this book on the fragmented cities of Asia lies in the manner in which it pins down the relationship between visual images and urban space The arguments are eloquent and persuasive with close readings of critical media texts Many of the dynamic issues tackled in the book are on the edge of film and cultural studies in Asia and should attract a wide readership Zhou Xuelin University of Auckland Japan Scott Rutherford, 2002
