Tulip Fever By Moggach Deborah New Edition :

Tulip Fever (Movie Tie-In Edition) Deborah Moggach, 2017-10-13 Seventeenth century Amsterdam a city in the grip of tulip fever Sophia's husband Cornelis is one of the lucky ones grown rich from this exotic new flower To celebrate he commissions a talented young artist to paint him with his beautiful young bride But as the portrait grows so does the passion between Sophia and the painter and ambitions desires and dreams breed an intricate deception and a reckless gamble

The Pictorial Third Liliane Louvel, 2018-05-23 The Pictorial Third An Essay into Intermedial Criticism examines the extent to which poetry intertwines with painting and the visual at large and studies the singular relationship established between language and image observing the modalities and workings of what is termed intermedial transposition By following a critical method of the close analysis of texts the book examines to what extent the pictorial tool may be of help to analyze literary texts and thus enlarge and enrich literary criticism Examining the technical notions typical of the medium and its history including perspective framing colour anamorphosis trompe l'œil Veronica veil still life portrait figure illusion apparatus genres and styles this volume presents a pragmatics of image in text and of the visual in text as an operative tool This pictorial reading necessarily includes synesthesia and the senses it also functions as a reading event or what happens to one when one unawares encounters a picture be it present in the book or the object of an ekphrasis Thus the body is eventually given back a role to play The sensitive approach has its own resonances and the eye or the gaze sometimes sees double in such intermedially oriented texts This volume proposes to identify the pictorial third as the phenomenon which can be apprehended in terms of effect or affect not only as a concept

Lily Allen - Living Dangerously Martin Howden, 2008-08-04 Lily made her rapid ascent to pop stardom through MySpace.com where she boasts an incredible half a million friends. The brutally honest Londoner is always quick to tell fans exactly what she thinks via her phenomenally successful blog but despite her quirky street style and loud mouth she remains something of a living contradiction. Born to actor father Keith Allen and producer mother Alison Owen she enjoyed a privileged upbringing at private schools and even got a part in one of her mother's films before launching her music singing career. Yet Lily goes from strength to strength working on a follow up to her bestselling album Alright Still receiving rave reviews of her live performances and designing a high street fashion line. Packed with incredible facts including the full story of her relationship with Chemical Brother Ed Simons and from behind the scenes of her first TV series this is a must read for any fan.

Cognitive Poetics in Practice Joanna Gavins, Gerard Steen, 2003-12-08 Cognitive Poetics is a new way of thinking about literature involving the application of cognitive linguistics and psychology to literary texts. This student friendly book provides a set of case studies to help students understand the theory and master the practice of cognitive poetics in analysis. Written by a range of well known scholars from a variety of disciplines and countries Cognitive Poetics in Practice offers students a unique insight into this exciting subject. In each chapter contributors present a practical application of the methods and techniques of cognitive poetics to a range of texts from Wilfred Owen to Roald Dahl. The editors' general introduction provides an overview of the field and each chapter begins with an editor's introduction to set the chapter in context. Specifically designed sections suggesting further activities for students are also provided at the end of each case study. Cognitive Poetics in Practice can be used on its own or as a companion volume to Peter Stockwell's Cognitive Poetics: An Introduction. This book is critical reading for students on courses in cognitive poetics, stylistics and literary linguistics and will be of interest to all those involved in literary studies, critical theory and linguistics.

Story and Character Alistair Owen, 2016-05-19 Owen's thorough research and penetrating questions are what make this book the conversation is hilarious as well as informative and budding screenwriters should pay close attention to extraordinary nuggets. GUARDIAN A fascinating insightful collection. INDEPENDENT ON SUNDAY Covering the cream of British screenwriters this gives a deep insight into the film industry and the way that classic British films came to be. Featuring conversations with the writers of among other films The Full Monty, Billy Elliot, Four Weddings and a Funeral, 24 Hour Party People, The Wings of a Dove, The World is Not Enough and A World Apart this is an in depth study of ten of the top names in British screenwriting. Lively and funny, challenging and revealing, this series of exclusive interviews with the unsung heroes of contemporary British cinema provides a unique behind the scenes look at the movie business essential both for aspiring writers, industry insiders and film fans. Featured are interviews with Shawn Slovic, William Boyd, Rupert Preston, Richard Curtis, Lee Hall, Simon Beaufoy, Hossein Amini, Frank Cottrell Boyce and Neal Purvis. Robert Wade

The Adaptation Industry Simone Murray, 2012-03-12 Adaptation constitutes the driving force of contemporary culture with stories adapted across an array of media formats However adaptation studies has been concerned almost exclusively with textual analysis in particular with compare and contrast studies of individual novel and film pairings This has left almost completely unexamined crucial questions of how adaptations come to be made what are the industries with the greatest stake in making them and who the decision makers are in the adaptation process The Adaptation Industry re imagines adaptation not as an abstract process but as a material industry It presents the adaptation industry as a cultural economy of six interlocking institutions stakeholders and decision makers all engaged in the actual business of adapting texts authors agents publishers book prize committees scriptwriters and screen producers and distributors Through trading in intellectual property rights to cultural works these six nodal points in the adaptation network are tightly interlinked with success for one party potentially auguring for success in other spheres But marked rivalries between these institutional forces also exist with competition characterizing every aspect of the adaptation process This book constructs an overdue sociology of contemporary literary adaptation never losing sight of the material and institutional dimensions of this powerful process

Poetics of the Iconotext Professor Liliane Louvel, 2013-05-28 Poetics of the Iconotext makes available for the first time in English the theories of the respected French text image specialist Professor Liliane Louvel A consolidation of the most significant theoretical materials of Louvel's two acclaimed books L'Œil du Texte Texte et image dans la littérature anglophone and Texte Image Images lire textes voir this newly conceived work introduces English readers to the most current thinking in French text image theory and visual studies Focusing on the full spectrum of text image relations from medieval illuminated manuscripts to digital books Louvel begins by introducing key terms and situating her work in the context of significant debates in text image studies Part II introduces Louvel's typology of pictorial saturation through which she establishes a continuum along which to measure the effect of the most figurative to the most literal images upon writerly and readerly textual spaces Part III adopts a phenomenological approach towards the reading viewing experience as expressed in conceptual categories that include the trace focal range synesthesia and rhythm and speed The result is a provocative interplay of the categorical and the subjective that invites readers to think at once more precisely and more inventively about texts images and the intersections between the two

Fletcher,2016-04-22 The first book length study of romance novels to focus on issues of sexuality rather than gender Historical Romance Fiction moves the ongoing debate about the value and appeal of heterosexual romance onto new ground testing the claims of cutting edge critical theorists on everything from popular classics by Georgette Heyer to recent bodice rippers to historical fiction by John Fowles and A S Byatt Beginning with her nomination of I love you as the romance novel s defining speech act Lisa Fletcher engages closely with speech act theory and recent studies of performativity The range of texts serves to illustrate Fletcher s definition of historical romance as a fictional mode dependent on the force and familiarity of the speech act I love you and permits Fletcher to provide a detailed account of the genre s history and development in both its popular and literary manifestations Written from a feminist and anti homophobic perspective Fletcher s subtle arguments about the romantic speech act serve to demonstrate the genre s dependence on repetition Romance can only quote and the shaky ground on which the romance s heterosexual premise rests Her exploration of the subgenre of cross dressing novels is especially revealing in this regard With its deft mix of theoretical arguments and suggestive close readings Fletcher s book will appeal to specialists in genre speech act and performativity theory and gender studies
