Thinking Through Fashion Theorists Cultures:

Thinking Through Fashion Agnès Rocamora, Anneke Smelik, 2015-10-23 Learning how to think through fashion is both exciting and challenging being dependent on one's ability to critically engage with an array of theories and concepts This is the first book designed to accompany readers through the process of thinking through fashion It aims to help them grasp both the relevance of social and cultural theory to fashion dress and material culture and conversely the relevance of those fields to social and cultural theory It does so by offering a guide through the work of selected major thinkers introducing their concepts and ideas Each chapter is written by an expert contributor and is devoted to a key thinker capturing the significance of their thought to the understanding of the field of fashion while also assessing the importance of this field for a critical engagement with these thinkers ideas This is a guide and reference for students and scholars in the fields of fashion dress and material culture the creative industries sociology cultural history design and cultural studies

Thinking Through Fashion Agnès Rocamora, Anneke Smelik, 2025-04-03 A vital update to the definitive guide to fashion and cultural theory featuring four new chapters and essential revisions throughout in light of key developments in fashion and fashion studies Across 19 major thinkers from the 19th to the 21st century the second edition of this comprehensive collection introduces readers to the process of thinking through rich cultural fields such as fashion with the help of social and cultural theory and thinking through social and cultural theory with the help of fashion Each chapter guides you through the work of a major thinker and considers their historical context the role of fashion within their theory how their theoretical frameworks apply to contemporary fashion studies and the strengths and limitations of their approach Featuring new chapters on key theorists Edward Said bell hooks Frantz Fanon and W E B Du Bois this new edition prepares readers to question and diversify the field of fashion A revised introduction resituates theories in relation to each other and reflects on changing approaches to fashion studies while revisions to existing chapters equip readers with the most up to date critical perspectives and developments in fashion and fashion theory

Thinking Through Material Culture Carl Knappett, 2010-11-24 Material culture surrounds us and yet is habitually overlooked So integral is it to our everyday lives that we take it for granted This attitude has also afflicted the academic analysis of material culture although this is now beginning to change with material culture recently emerging as a topic in its own right within the social sciences Carl Knappett seeks to contribute to this emergent field by adopting a wide ranging interdisciplinary approach that is rooted in archaeology and integrates anthropology sociology art history semiotics psychology and cognitive science His thesis is that humans both act and think through material culture ways of knowing and ways of doing are ingrained within even the most mundane of objects This requires that we adopt a relational perspective on material artifacts and human agents as a means of characterizing their complex interdependencies In order to illustrate the networks of meaning that result Knappett discusses examples ranging from prehistoric Aegean ceramics to Zande hunting nets and contemporary art Thinking Through Material Culture argues that although material culture forms the bedrock of archaeology the discipline has barely begun to address how fundamental artifacts are to human cognition and perception This idea of codependency among mind action and matter opens the way for a novel and dynamic approach to all of material culture both past and present

Attitudes to fashion have changed radically in the twenty first century Dress is increasingly approached as a means of self expression rather than as a signifier of status or profession and designers are increasingly treated as artists as fashion moves towards art and enters the gallery museum and retail space This book is the first to fully explore the causes and implications of this shift examining the impact of technological innovation globalization and the growth of the internet The End of Fashion focuses on the ways in which our understanding of fashion and the fashion system have transformed as mass mediation and digitization continue to broaden the way that contemporary fashion is perceived and consumed Exploring everything from the rise of online shopping to the emergence of bloggers as power elites who have revolutionized the terrain of traditional fashion reportage this volume anatomizes a world in which runway shows now compete with live streaming digital fashion films Instagram and Pinterest Bringing together original cutting edge contributions from leading international scholars this book is essential reading for students and scholars of fashion and cultural studies as well as anyone interested in exploring the dramatic shifts that have shaken the fashion world this century and what they might say about larger changes within an increasingly global and digital society studies      Fashion in theory Marco Pecorari, 2025-10-28 For Spring Summer 2020 Gucci showed a collection questioning identity politics and capitalism Rather than the usual explanation of the material shapes or inspirations behind the collection the press release handed out at the show quoted the philosopher Michel Foucault and questioned the very nature of fashion itself Gucci's press release reflects the popularization of critical theory in public discourse and fashion in particular Philosophers activists and academics are increasingly recruited to collaborate with luxury brands and main stream fashion brands have begun to adopt a discourse about politics and critical thinking using in their communication concepts such as resistance gender fluidity national identity or cultural heritage without accompanying these discourses with any form of political engagement or activism Based on this intellectualization of the fashion industry and the recent proliferation of critical theory in fashion education this book stresses the importance of rethinking the relationship between fashion and theory Drawing together eleven chapters and four conversations by and with philosophers cultural theorists historians anthropologists activists performers and designers the book investigates both the theorization of fashion and the ways in which fashion offers a useful landscape in understanding the current state of critical theory today      The Routledge Handbook of Lifestyle Journalism Folker Hanusch, 2025-06-10 Taking stock of research in an area that has long been starved of scholarly attention The Routledge Handbook of Lifestyle Journalism brings together scholars from across journalism communication and media studies to offer the first substantial volume of its kind in this dynamic field This Handbook is divided into five major sections covering definitions current trends the relationship between lifestyle journalism and consumer culture how lifestyle journalism interacts with matters of identity emotion politics and society and future directions Featuring 30 contributions from authors at the cutting edge of research around the world each chapter provides an authoritative overview of key literature and debates and proposes a way forward for future scholarship The Routledge Handbook of Lifestyle Journalism is an essential companion for advanced students and researchers of lifestyle journalism and related beats including food fashion and travel writing      The Routledge Companion to Fashion Studies Eugenia Paulicelli, Veronica Manlow, Elizabeth Wissinger, 2021-09-19 This collection of original essays interrogates disciplinary boundaries in fashion gathering fashion studies research across disciplines and from around the globe Fashion and clothing are part of material and visual culture cultural memory and heritage they contribute to shaping the way people see themselves interact and consume For each of the volume's eight parts scholars from across the world and a variety of disciplines offer analytical tools for further research Never neglecting the interconnectedness of disciplines and domains these original contributions survey specific topics and critically discuss the leading views in their areas They include discursive and reflective pieces as well as discussions of original empirical work and contributors include established leaders in the field rising stars and new voices including practitioner and industry voices This is a comprehensive overview of the field ideal not only for undergraduate and postgraduate fashion studies students but also for researchers and students in

Creating African Fashion Histories JoAnn McGregor, Heather Akou, Nicola Stylianou, 2022-04-05 Creating African Fashion Histories examines the stark disjuncture between African self fashioning and museum practices Conventionally African clothing textiles and body adornments were classified by museums as examples of trade goods art and ethnographic materials never as fashion Counterposing the dynamism of African fashion with museums historic holdings thus provides a unique way of confronting ways in which coloniality persists in knowledge and institutions today This volume brings together an interdisciplinary group of scholars and curators to debate sources and approaches for constructing African fashion histories and to examine their potential for decolonizing museums fashion studies and global cultural history The editors of this volume seek to answer questions such as How can researchers use museum collections to reveal traces of past self fashioning that are obscured by racialized forms of knowledge and institutional practice How can archival visual oral ethnographic and online sources be deployed to capture the diversity of African sartorial pasts How can scholars and curators decolonize the Eurocentric frames of thinking encapsulated in historic collections and current curricula Can new collections of African fashion decolonize museum practice From Moroccan fashion bloggers to upmarket Lagos designers the voices in this ground breaking collection reveal fascinating histories and geographies of circulation within and beyond the continent and its diasporic communities

Materializing Memory in Art and Popular Culture Laszlo Muntean, Liedeke Plate, Anneke Smelik, 2016-12-08 Memory matters It matters because memory brings the past into the present and opens it up to the future But it also matters literally because memory is mediated materially Materiality is the stuff of memory Meaningful objects that we love or hate function not only as aide mmoire but are integral to memory Drawing on previous scholarship on the interrelation of memory and materiality this book applies recent theories of new materialism to explore the material dimension of memory in art and popular culture The book s underlying premise is twofold on the one hand memory is performed mediated and stored through the material world that surrounds us on the other hand inanimate objects and things also have agency on their own which affects practices of memory as well as forgetting Chapters 1 4 and 5 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 3 0 license
