Titanicat True Stories:

Titanicat Marty Crisp, 2013-08-15 Young Jim Mulholland can't believe his good luck. He has signed on as a cabin boy to the world's finest ocean liner, the Titanic, and can't wait for the history-making voyage across the sea to America. As part of his duties, Jim is in charge of the ship's cat, a beautiful tortoiseshell that also appears happy to be on board. He calls the cat by the ship's construction number 401, certain that she will bring him good luck. And he's delighted when 401 shortly gives birth to a litter of kittens. But once the ship's trial runs are completed and it's ready to launch to sea, Jim notices that 401 is nowhere to be found. He's got to find her: the Titanic can't cast off without her lucky cat. Jim is faced with a decision that will affect the rest of his life. A newspaper journalist for 30 years, Marty Crisp often writes about the animals that hold a special interest and place in her heart. She has published many award-winning books for children and adults, including White Star, her book about a dog on the Titanic. Marty lives in Ephrata, Pennsylvania. Robert Papp's award-winning artwork includes hundreds of illustrations for major publishers across the United States, and his first children's book, The Scarlet Stockings Spy, was named an IRA Teachers Choice in 2005. His other books with Sleeping Bear Press include The Last Brother and M is for Meow: A Cat Alphabet. Robert lives in historic Bucks County, Pennsylvania. True Stories from Nova Scotia's Past Dianne Marshall, 2012-09-12 CBC Radio's Information Morning history columnist Dianne Marshall is well known for the lively and surprising true stories she tells about Nova Scotia's past. Now the best of them have been gathered together in this enjoyable book. The stories cover 250 years of Nova Scotia history, often featuring people who don't make it into conventional history books. These incredible accounts include the plot to assassinate US President Abraham Lincoln using germ warfare hatched by several prominent Halifax businessmen and a visiting American doctor; a posse of 1,000 armed men swarming the city after a burglary, firing so many shots that some First World War vets thought war had broken out at home; and the story of Halifax madam Julia Donovan, whose prison term for keeping a bawdy house was commuted to a 100 fine in return for her work to elect the city's next mayor. Other stories in the collection feature characters from rum-running days at Smuggler's Cove in Digby County and ghost busters in Antigonish County. Dianne Marshall has an eye for character, a firm knowledge of historical context, and a focus on what makes a good story. She brings many ordinary Nova Scotians with extraordinary experiences back to life in this readable collection. happened next in Rediscovering the Titanic ABOUT THE SERIES On the night of April 14 15 1912 the largest and most luxurious ship ever built hit an iceberg and sunk on her maiden voyage More than 100 years later the Titanic continues to fascinate How did this supposedly unsinkable ship meet its icy fate Who were the people who sailed on the ship and what was that experience like before during and after the disaster What did explorers discover in 1985 when they found the sunken ship at the bottom of the Atlantic Ocean Featuring historical imagery first hand accounts and lively text the four titles in this series will answer all these questions and more Let Them Live Stewart H. Holbrook,1938 The Futurist Rebecca Keegan,2010-10-05 With the release of Avatar in December 2009 James Cameron cements his reputation as king of sci fi and blockbuster filmmaking It s a distinction he s long been building through a directing career that includes such cinematic landmarks as The Terminator Aliens The Abyss and the highest grossing movie of all time Titanic The Futurist is the first in depth look at every aspect of this audacious creative genius culminating in an exclusive behind the scenes glimpse of the making of Avatar the movie that promises to utterly transform the way motion pictures are created and perceived As decisive a break with the past as the transition from silents to talkies Avatar pushes 3 D live action and photo realistic CGI to a new level It rips through the emotional barrier of the screen to transport the audience to a fabulous new virtual world With cooperation from the often reclusive Cameron author Rebecca Keegan has crafted a singularly revealing portrait of the director s life and work We meet the young truck driver who sees Star Wars and sets out to learn how to make even better movies himself starting by taking apart the first 35mm camera he rented to see how it works We observe the neophyte director deciding over lunch with Arnold Schwarzenegger that the ex body builder turned actor is wrong in every way for the Terminator role as written but perfect regardless After the success of The Terminator Cameron refines his special effects wizardry with a big time Hollywood budget in the creation of the relentlessly exciting Aliens He builds an immense underwater set for The Abyss in the massive containment vessel of an abandoned nuclear power plant where he pushes his scuba breathing cast to and sometimes past their physical and emotional breaking points including a white rat that Cameron saved from drowning by performing CPR And on the set of Titanic the director struggles to stay in charge when someone maliciously spikes craft services mussel chowder with a massive dose of PCP rendering most of the cast and crew temporarily psychotic Now after his movies have earned over 5 billion at the box office James Cameron is astounding the world with the most expensive innovative and ambitious movie of his career For decades the moviemaker has been ready to tell the Avatar story but was forced to hold off his ambitions until technology caught up with his vision Going beyond the technical ingenuity and narrative power that Cameron has long demonstrated Avatar shatters old cinematic paradigms and ushers in a new era of storytelling The Futurist is the story of the man who finally brought movies into the twenty first century
