Flat-World Fiction Liliana M. Naydan, 2021-12-15 Flat World Fiction analyzes representations of digital technology and the social and ethical concerns it creates in mainstream literary American fiction and fiction written about the United States in the first two decades of the twenty-first century In this period authors such as Don DeLillo Jennifer Egan Dave Eggers Joshua Ferris Jonathan Safran Foer Mohsin Hamid Thomas Pynchon Kristen Roupenian Gary Shteyngart and Zadie Smith found themselves not only implicated in the developing digital world of flat screens but also threatened by it while simultaneously attempting to critique it As a result their texts explore how human relationships with digital devices and media transform human identity and human relationships with one another history divinity capitalism and nationality Liliana M. Naydan walks us through these complex relationships revealing how authors show through their fiction that technology is political In the process these authors complement and expand on work by historians philosophers and social scientists creating accessible literary road maps to our digital future Borrowed Voices Jennifer Glaser,2016-03-10 In the decades following World War II many American Jews sought to downplay their difference as a means of assimilating into Middle America Yet a significant minority including many prominent Jewish writers and intellectuals clung to their ethnic difference using it to register dissent with the status quo and act as spokespeople for non white America In this provocative book Jennifer Glaser examines how racial ventriloquism became a hallmark of Jewish American fiction as Jewish writers asserted that their own ethnicity enabled them to speak for other minorities Rather than simply condemning this racial ventriloquism as a form of cultural appropriation or commending it as an act of empathic imagination Borrowed Voices offers a nuanced analysis of the technique judiciously assessing both its limitations and its potential benefits Glaser considers how the practice of racial ventriloquism has changed over time examining the books of many well known writers including Bernard Malamud Cynthia Ozick Philip Roth Michael Chabon Saul Bellow and many others Bringing Jewish studies into conversation with critical race theory Glaser also opens up a dialogue between Jewish American literature and other forms of media including films magazines and graphic novels Moreover she demonstrates how Jewish American fiction can help us understand the larger anxieties about ethnic identity authenticity and authorial voice that emerged in the wake of the civil rights movement Twentieth-Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context Linda De Roche,2021-06-04 This four volume reference work surveys American literature from the early 20th century to the present day featuring a diverse range of American works and authors and an expansive selection of primary source materials Bringing useful and engaging material into the classroom this four volume set covers more than a century of American literary history from 1900 to the present Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context profiles authors and their works and provides overviews of literary movements and genres through which readers will understand the historical cultural and political contexts that have shaped American writing Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context provides wide coverage of authors works genres and movements that are emblematic of the diversity of modern America Not only are major literary movements represented such as the Beats but this work also highlights the emergence and development of modern Native American literature African American literature and other representative groups that showcase the diversity of American letters A rich selection of primary documents and background material provides indispensable information for student research The Encyclopedia of Contemporary American Fiction, 2 Volumes Patrick O'Donnell,Stephen J.
