New York Magazine ,1981-11-23 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

Chasing Rainbows Ana Lydia Armstrong,2014-08-08 CHASING RAINBOWS shows that retirement is only the beginning of a new way of living which can be full and exciting Your children are grown up and busy You have no more responsibilities and time in your hands to at last do all you have wanted to and never did Starting with a new home in Spain this second part of Ana Lydia s memoirs is a continuation of the activities that have become her lifestyle Travelling all over the world this is a sentimental journey to all the countries she had lived before and all the changes she found there From Brazil and a fascinating story of Macumba black magic to stories of the strength and courage to keep going in spite of big drawbacks

Fatal Family Violence and the Dementias Neil Websdale,2024-03-05 This book explores dementia related aggression violence and homicide through a detailed analysis of gray mist killings The term gray mist killing refers to intimate partner homicides IPHs committed by spouses partners suffering from dementia homicides of dementia sufferers committed by their caregiving spouses partners or other family members and IPHs attributable to the complications of caring for a co resident family member suffering from dementia Killings by people with dementia raise questions about the role of biological psychological and sociological forces This book therefore encourages discussions around the relative weighting of these interrelated forces and why the criminal justice system and the courts have a hard time handling these killings It also adds to our understanding of the social responses to people with dementia the orchestration of services the nature of caring and the interaction between sufferers and those familial community and state actors that provide support and care The vividly detailed case studies from the US UK and Australia uniquely inform criminological debates about violence homicide and the social responses to these complex phenomena They are organized around the apparent motives for the killing such as mercy theft prior intimate partner violence mental illness and exhaustion The social responses of families communities and state actors are examined and contextualized against what researchers and dementia specialists suggest are promising or best practices for intervention. Apparent triggers or circumstantial precipitants for the killings invite discussion of signals, risks, and preventive interventions. The book culminates in an attempt to make sense of gray mist killings as well as a discussion of broader implications and significance in relation to globalization, violence against women, the rising prevalence of the dementias, declining birthrates, climate change, and sustainable economic development. Drawing from a variety of disciplines, this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of criminology, sociology, psychology, psychiatry, anthropology, gender studies, social work, law, public policy, and gerontology. It should also appeal to judges, prosecutors, lawyers, social workers, gerontologists, law enforcement, adult protective services, physicians, psychologists, and psychiatrists.
