Tocqueville New Issues Poetry And Prose:

Tocqueville Khaled Mattawa, 2010 Poetry In his masterful fourth collection Khaled Mattawa is concerned above all with the ramifications of a new global culture that most American poets have thus far ignored and neglected partly out of incomprehension partly out of fear By setting himself against such timidity Mattawa offers his most sustained and experimental reckoning with matters of cultural and social witness TOCQUEVILLE is part personal lyric part jeremiad part shooting script and part troubled homage to the great wry chronicler of American society evoked in the book's title It is a book of relentless invention that is also relentlessly urgent and that is a very rare thing indeed Khaled Mattawa is quite simply one of the finest fiercest and most original poets of his generation David Wojahn The Cambridge Companion to Twenty-First-Century American Poetry Timothy Yu, 2021-03-11 This book offers a comprehensive introduction to studying the diversity of American poetry in the twenty first century Interrogating Secularism Danielle Haque, 2019-09-25 Interrogating Secularism is a call to rethink binary categories of religion and secularism in contemporary Arab American fiction and art While most studies that explore the traffic between literature and issues of secularism emphasize how canonical texts naturalize and reinforce secular values Interrogating Secularism approaches this nexus through novels written by and about ethnic and religious minorities Haque juxtaposes accounts of secular experience in the writing of Arab Anglophone authors such as Mohja Kahf Rabih Alameddine Khaled Mattawa Laila Lalami and Rawi Hage with Arab and Muslim artists such as Ninar Esber Mounir Fatmi Hasan Elahi and Emily Jacir Looking at multiple genres and modes of aesthetic production including AIDS narratives visual art and digital media Haque explores how their conventions are used to subvert the ideals tied to secularism and the various anxieties and investments that support secularism as a premise These authors and artists critique Western iterations of secular thought in spaces such as art exhibits airports borders and literary discourses to capture how the secularism thesis reproduces the exclusivity it intends to remedy Transnational Landscapes and Postmodern Poetics Asma Hichri, Samira Mechri, 2017-11-06 This book moves beyond conventional conceptions of space and place to explore how the spatial imagination has informed our postmodern mapping of literature culture history geography and politics In this volume scholars from different academic fields contest new territories for critical expression venturing into a geocritical discussion of notions of identity borders territory cognitive geographies global cultural mobility gendered spaces post colonial cartographies and spaces of resistance These brilliant discussions of the postmodern dialectics of space and place invite a reappraisal of the value of space in our social political and historical realities thus extending the geographical imagination beyond its physical and territorial manifestations and investigating its hitherto uncharted spiritual psychic emotional literary and symbolic terrains Bringing together theoretical and critical contributions in the fields of culture history politics and literature this engaging work invites readers to think geocritically about the significance of space and place in the postmodern age It represents essential reading for students critics and scholars from various academic fields and disciplines including history geography cultural studies anthropology political science literature and critical theory

The Poetry Reader Mark Yakich, 2024-12-12 You have picked up this book because you are a poetry reader Or you are about to be one Because as soon as you read a poem that's what you are Filled with the profound the lyrical the consoling and the curious The Poetry Reader An Anthology is the book you would hope to find if you washed up alone on a deserted island this companionable collection shows how poetry itself is a discussion alive and flowing and how poems speak to with and sometimes over one another If you are a teacher this is the anthology you wish you had as a student a text that doesn't try to survey entire time periods or aesthetic areas but one that places side by side carefully selected poems that speak to each other over time as well as to today's readers Section header notes provide critical commentary framing the poems within their given topic Discussion and writing suggestions give interesting and actionable prompts Works as a standalone book or can easily be used alongside Poetry A Survivor's Guide 2nd ed Drawing on traditional poems and contemporary works this anthology offers globe spanning stylistically diverse poetry ranging from canonical poems by the likes of Sappho and Shakespeare to those of new voices such as Layli Long Soldier and Mukoma wa Ngugi As a compact eclectic and approachable collection based on specific aspects of poetry and poetic practices from identity and metaphor to sublimation and spirituality The Poetry Reader acts as a guide to understanding the essentials of both reading and writing poetry
