Jeffries brings readers into the world of comedy to reveal its dark corners and share its buoyant lifeblood He draws on conversations with comedians as well as club owners bookers and managers to show the extraordinary social connections professional humor demands Not only do comedians have to read their audience night after night but they must also create lasting bonds across the profession to get gigs in the first place Comedy is not a meritocracy and its rewards are not often fame and fortune Only performers who know the rules of their community are able to make it a career
