Teaching History in an Uncivilized World Philip Bigler, 2012-10-15 Teaching History in an Uncivilized World is the latest book by National Teacher of the Year Philip Bigler It is a fascinating chronicle of his 23 year odyssey as a high school history and humanities teacher Widely recognized for his innovative and exciting methods Bigler explains how as a novice teacher he discovered the power of using historical simulations to motivate students and to help them become active participants in their own learning These inspiring lessons proved highly effective in teaching important curricular content as President Bill Clinton would later acknowledge Through these historic simulations his students have learned lessons about democracy and the meaning of citizenship lessons we want every American to know Despite Bigler s success as a history teacher he was laid off twice early in his career due to school budgetary crises Growing frustrated and increasingly disillusioned Bigler eventually quit teaching and during this three year hiatus he received an advanced degree at the College of William and Mary and served as an Army historian at Arlington National Cemetery It was while working at Arlington that Bigler discovered that he missed the daily excitement of teaching history as well as the interaction with his students In 1985 he returned to the high school classroom a far wiser and better educator At BCC and McLean High Schools Bigler taught a variety of history courses and was actively involved in implementing the latest computer technology into his instruction As the yearbook advisor at McLean he aggressively upgraded the publication s limited computer resources and introduced the editors and staff to desktop publishing Widely respected by both staff and students Philip Bigler was twice selected by the McLean High School senior class as their most influential teacher and was chosen as the school s Teacher of the Year in 1996 In order to pursue his avid interest in the potential of educational technology to improve student learning Bigler transferred to Thomas Jefferson High School for Science and Technology in the fall of 1996 There he was selected as the Fairfax County and the Virginia Teacher of the Year In 1998 Philip Bigler was named the National Teacher of the Year by President Bill Clinton who remarked We need more teachers like Philip Bigler in every classroom in America today for it is they who can make our schools the best in the world As the National Teacher of the Year Bigler was granted a one year sabbatical and traveled extensively speaking to various educational groups and organizations about the importance of teaching He persuasively argues that Civilization begins anew with each child and that if we fail to teach and educate our young people we are just one generation removed from barbarism Bigler advocates for a return of academic rigor to our nation s classrooms and the need for strong content standards Bigler has appeared as a featured guest on The Late Show with David Letterman Nightline and the History Channel Teaching History in an Uncivilized World is an essential book for all of those interested in improving the quality of American education It is highly readable and contains numerous useful appendices for history teachers The book is supported by a regularly updated website where additional educational resources and lesson plans are available

Teaching Death and Dying Christopher M

Moreman,2008-10-03 The academic study of death rose to prominence during the 1960s Courses on some aspect of death and dying can now be found at most institutions of higher learning These courses tend to stress the psycho social aspects of grief and bereavement however ignoring the religious elements inherent to the subject This collection is the first to address the teaching of courses on death and dying from a religious studies perspective Critical Literacy Approach to English as a Foreign Language Nizar Kamal Ibrahim,2022-06-13 This book discusses how to approach critical literacy in English as a Foreign Language EFL contexts It responds to the concerns of educators who get enthusiastic about teaching critical literacy but become perplexed when they start reading about its theories This causes some to avoid it altogether and leads others to argue for practicing it without theory The book argues that both positions should be reconsidered and capitalizes on the notion of praxis a notion introduced by Freire to explicate the various subtle connections between theory and practice The book instills the theoretical assumptions of critical literacy with as little jargon as possible with many practical illustrations It will be of interest to graduate and undergraduate students language teachers program and material developers researchers and educational policy makers

E-Portfolios in Higher Education Tushar Chaudhuri,Béatrice Cabau,2017-03-30 This book shares the collective experience of integrating electronic portfolios as assessment tools and as instruments for life long learning in courses across various disciplines in higher education It enables readers to trace the evolution of e portfolios over the last ten years and to deal with the challenges faced by instructors and students when implementing e portfolios in their respective courses Further the book suggests flexible ways of dealing with those challenges It also highlights the relevance of electronic portfolios for the needs and demands of contemporary societies As such it speaks to a large target audience from a range of disciplines roles and geographical contexts within the wider context of higher education in Asia and around the globe
