Wound Care Kerrie Coleman, Glo Neilsen, 2019-10-15. Wound Care: a practical guide for maintaining skin integrity is a contemporary ANZ resource designed to assist students and clinicians in applying evidence-based wound care to practice. Written by expert wound care clinicians and academics, the text offers a range of clinical scenarios to test wound care knowledge and skills within the context of real-world settings. It presents a problem-solving approach to encourage students and practising nurses to critically think about how to deliver wound care to individuals with a range of acute and chronic wounds. Including the most recent local dressings and wound care products, Wound Care: a practical guide for maintaining skin integrity reinforces the principles of wound care and provides the necessary tools for students and clinicians to determine how best to deliver effective nursing care. Each chapter provides an overview of specific wound types followed by five case studies and related multiple-choice questions to test your knowledge and skills. Case studies include an assessment and management approach to assist you in developing effective clinical application of wound care theory. Full-colour illustrations to help familiarise yourself with a variety of wound types. A nursing focus with a multidisciplinary approach helps to enhance the real-world experience of wound care. Additional resources on Evolve eBook on VitalSource Instructor and Student Resources, Answers to Case Study questions, Quick reference list of local wound care products, dressings, Self-assessment quizzes, Image bank.

Nursing Home Federal Requirements James E. Allen, 2010-11-24. The book lists all the federal requirements that are evaluated by state surveyors during the annual survey visit to nursing homes and for complaint visits. The exhibit section contains forms used by surveyors to gather data during the survey visit. Visually, the format makes the regulations easy to read. If nursing home staff used the book to prepare for a survey, they would be well prepared.
