Wounded Writers Ask: Am I Doing it Write? S. Rebecca Leigh, 2014-09-24 This book addresses and aims to dismantle writer woundedness a state of being that prevents students from trusting themselves as capable of writing something they can feel good about Wounded Writers Ask Am I Doing it Write invites students to begin a new writing history through a collection of 48 free writes that explore list writing aesthetic writing word craft and writing that delves into personal life stories These free writes are invitations to develop a lead or improve a story title to discover a character s name or replace one word for another that is more vivid to locate a story idea or revise a story s focus More than this Wounded Writers Ask Am I Doing it Write emphasizes creative consciousness over correctness where writing is a vehicle for exploring identity and re claiming voice across multiple grade levels This book is for the wounded student writer as much as it is for the wounded classroom teacher as writer who may feel burdened by his her own writing history such that he she struggles with where or how to start For each free write Leigh offers Before Writing During Writing and After Writing suggestions with samples of student writing to guide teachers into writing engagements with their students that break down walls and open up new vistas

Reclaiming Literacies as Meaning Making Kathryn Whitmore, Richard Meyer, 2020-04-15 Whitmore and Meyer bring together top literacy scholars from around the world to introduce the concept of manifestations evidence of meaning making in literacy events practices processes products and thinking Manifestation are windows into literacy identities and serve as affective and sociocultural signifiers of learners understanding at a point in time and in a specific context The volume reclaims progressive spaces for understanding reading writing drawing speaking playing and other literacies It grounds manifestations of literacies in the discourse of meaning making and demonstrates how literacy learners and educators are active agents in this complex social political emotional and multimodal process Ideal for preservice teachers graduate students and researchers in literacy education this book shifts the conversation away from treating literacies as acquired commodities and illustrates how educators engage with learners to deepen understanding of literacy learners experiences Organized by five pillars of literacy teaching learning language curriculum and sociocultural contexts each section covers critical and cutting edge topics and offers examples tools and strategies for research and practical applications in diverse classroom settings Each chapter includes a range of examples and is followed by a short complementary reading extension to engage the reader

Sense and Sensitivity Hanna Ezer, 2015-12-17 The study described in this book is a qualitative phenomenological research study whose objective was to reveal the writer s identity of teacher educators in academia and to discover how they express this identity in their teaching practice Twenty three academic scholars were interviewed for the study The research findings indicate that the identity of the writer is complex incorporating three interwoven aspects a cognitive aspect an emotional aspect and a sociocultural aspect The cognitive aspect finds expression in the writer s awareness and understanding of the medium of writing which explicitly and openly entails the production of ideas while writing This process is fundamentally rhizomatic in that it moves in different directions each time beginning anew from a different point and is ultimately geared toward a multidirectional and multilayered product The emotional aspect in the writer s life is somewhat mystical in nature It is a medium that surrounds writers at all times and enables them to find their voice and their place in the world The writing workspace is perceived as part of this aspect It is a sanctuary that provides inspiration is designed according to the writer s needs and shapes the writing The sociocultural aspect shapes the identity of the writer and highlights social mirroring as part of the writer s positioning in life and in the professional community

Intended audience This book is aimed at the community of researchers in the writing domain It is also of interest to academic scholars in higher education who perceive writing as part of their personal and academic identity Qualitative researchers will find interest in the research method and the relations between qualitative genres among them phenomenological and narrative genres
