Global Cities Greg Clark, 2016-11-29 Why have some cities become great global urban centers and what cities will be future leaders From Athens and Rome in ancient times to New York and Singapore today a handful of cities have stood out as centers of global economic military or political power In the twenty first century the number of truly global cities is greater than ever before reflecting the globalization of both economic and political power In Global Cities A Short History Greg Clark an internationally renowned British urbanist examines the enduring forces such as trade migration war and technology that have enabled some cities to emerge from the pack into global leadership Much more than an historical review Clark s book looks to the future examining the trends that are transforming cities around the world as well as the new challenges all global cities increasingly will face Which cities will be the global leaders of tomorrow What are the common issues and opportunities they will face What kinds of leadership can make these cities competitive and resilient Clark offers answers to these and similar questions in a book that will be of interest to anyone who lives in or is affected by the world's great urban areas The Cambridge World History: Volume 4, A World with States, Empires and Networks 1200 BCE–900 CE Craig Benjamin, 2015-04-16 From 1200 BCE to 900 CE the world witnessed the rise of powerful new states and empires as well as networks of cross cultural exchange and conquest Considering the formation and expansion of these large scale entities this fourth volume of the Cambridge World History series outlines key economic political social cultural and intellectual developments that occurred across the globe in this period Leading scholars examine critical transformations in science and technology economic systems attitudes towards gender and family social hierarchies education art and slavery The second part of the volume focuses on broader processes of change within western and central Eurasia the Mediterranean South Asia Africa East Asia Europe the Americas and Oceania as well as offering regional studies highlighting specific topics from trade along the Silk Roads and across the Sahara to Chaco culture in the US southwest to Confucianism and the state in East Asia Program of the ...
