Trade And Transport Corridor Management Toolkit Trade And Development:

Trade and Transport Corridor Management Toolkit Charles Kunaka, Robin Carruthers, 2014-05-07 Trade and transport corridors are fundamental to the overland movement of international trade particularly for landlocked countries This book provides tools and techniques for the design of trade and transport corridor projects It is meant for task managers policy makers and corridor service providers

The Distributional Impacts of Trade Jakob Engel, Deeksha Kokas, Gladys Lopez-Acevedo, Maryla Maliszewska, 2021-06-09 Trade is a well established driver of growth and poverty reduction But changes in trade policy also have distributional impacts that create winners and losers It is vital to understand and clearly communicate how trade affects economic well being across all segments of the population as well as how policies can more effectively ensure that the gains from trade are distributed more widely The Distributional Impacts of Trade Empirical Innovations Analytical Tools and Policy Responses provides a deeper understanding of the distributional effects of trade across regions industries and demographic groups within countries over time It includes an overview chapter 1 a review of innovations in empirical and theoretical work covering the impacts of trade at the subnational level chapter 2 highlights from empirical case studies on Bangladesh Brazil Mexico South Africa and Sri Lanka chapter 3 and a policy agenda to improve distributional outcomes from trade chapter 4 This book comes at a time when the shock from COVID 19 coronavirus adds to an already uncertain trade policy environment in which the value of the multilateral trading system has been under increased scrutiny A better understanding of how trade affects distributional outcomes can lead to more inclusive policies and support the ability of countries to maximize broad based benefits from trade

Connecting to Thrive Matías Herrera Dappe, Charles Kunaka, 2021-06-07 This book assess the Bangladesh Bhutan India Nepal Motor Vehicle Agreement analyzes how freight flows wages employment and income are likely to change in Bangladesh and India once the agreement is adopted and provides suggestions on enhancing the impact of regional connectivity on rural areas and women

International Economic Law and the Challenges of the Free Zones Julien Chaisse, Jiaxiang Hu, 2019-05-02 Special economic zones SEZs have become a permanent feature of the world trade scene This book the first to provide a critical and comprehensive analysis of SEZs covering a wide spectrum of countries and regions shows how SEZs albeit established at the domestic level by different countries raise multiple legal issues under international economic law This first rate book is the product of the Asia FDI Forum IV held in Hong Kong in 2018 Thoroughly exploring the development of the SEZ phenomenon and its players the contributing authors all leading economic law experts review the issues raised by SEZs in the context of international trade law international investment law and investment arbitration They identify the extent to which SEZs have been coherent in their design and policymaking in particular with regard to domestic law reforms They address such aspects both core themes and specific examples as the following investment protection in China s SEZs state owned enterprises regulation dispute settlement under what circumstances incentives available in SEZs count as export subsidies prohibited under World

Trade Organization WTO rules compliance with internal market rules in European Union EU free zones local populations as victims of land expropriation Brazil s Manaus Free Trade Zone India s experience with multiple SEZs the administrative approval system in the Shanghai Free Trade Zone economic corridors and transit routes as SEZs refugee cities SEZs for migrants how China s Supreme People s Court serves national strategy how foreign investors challenge free zone regimes impacts of the establishment of SEZs on tax revenues SEZs and labour migration and management models The chapters also include insights into the new emerging generation of international investment agreements WTO accession transparency and case law materials clarifying specific trade issues associated with SEZs and new rules to protect the environment and labour rights as well as analysis of crucially significant cases such as Goetz v The Republic of Burundi Lee Jong Baek v Kyrgyzstan and Ampal American and Others v Egypt With its critical and comprehensive analysis of the dynamic SEZ phenomenon across legal economic investment regulatory and policy matrices including a thorough analysis of the success factors and required policies for SEZs this book takes a giant step towards answering the question whether SEZs fundamentally contradict norms of international law or whether SEZs have to be considered as laboratories which facilitate the implementation of international economic policies Its careful examination of theory and practice and its approach to lessons learned from case studies will reward trade and investment officials policymakers diplomats economists lawyers think tanks business leaders and others interested in this ever more important area of law and economics Quantitative Analysis of Road Transport Agreements - QuARTA Charles Kunaka, Virginia Tanase, Pierre Latrille, Peter Krausz, 2013-02-05 In most regions of the world road transport is the predominant channel of international trade traffic Yet the agreements used by states to regulate international road transport services often lack transparency This study sheds light on such agreements and identifies potential focus areas for reform Transport and Climate Change Maxim A. Dulebenets, Szymon Wiśniewski, Marta Borowska-Stefańska, 2025-12-21 This book surveys the impact of the transportation sector on accelerated climate change and the main solutions that have been proposed over the years to address the problem The examples of these solutions include but are not limited to emission reduction targets electrification of the transportation sector elimination of vehicles with traditional fossil fuel engines renewable energy sources and introduction of emission control measures Some of these solutions are quite difficult to implement due to the associated costs Certain approaches may seem rather ambitious and need more thorough assessment Urban areas are substantially impacted by greenhouse gas emissions produced by the transportation sector Global warming and rapid urbanization are all contributing factors that heighten the likelihood of compound extreme weather events As climate change events become more frequent and intense communities around the world become increasingly vulnerable due to their everyday dependence on transportation systems The book presents innovative mitigation and adaptation strategies that reduce the future effects of climate change resulting from the transportation sector and promote adaptive transport systems to minimize human as well as economic losses caused by climate change The new strategies are inspired by intelligent supply chain management solutions transportation network operational alternatives and sustainability driven interdisciplinary approaches The book emphasizes low risk and high payoff solutions The Evolution of Economic Development in Africa Francis K. Mbroh,2021-07-11 Within the theoretical framework of the trade growth and structural transformation growth nexuses the book examines the evolution of African goods and service trade in terms of value and share of global commerce relative to other regions during the period 1948 2017 It also identifies and discusses discernible changes in the composition and structure of African exports and imports between 1995 and 2015 and their implications for economic development in Africa The study attributes Africa s laggard trade performance during the period primarily to sub optimal macroeconomic policies and lack of bold export development policies and initiatives among other factors It also offers an incisive discussion of several inhibitions to the structural transformation of African exports and imports including lack of finance globalization tariff and non tariff measures in global markets The discussion of the evolution of African trade during the period 1948 2017 based on statistics and publications of international organizations including the UNCTAD the World Bank and the African Development Bank among others is the first of its kind in terms of scope and depth of review of African trade The analyses of cross border trade during 1948 2017 and their implications for Africa s economic development prospects constitute a useful reference material for academics and students of African and development studies and African and international policymakers The Stationery Office Agency

Catalogue Stationery Office (Great Britain),2017 Customs Modernization Handbook Luc de Wulf,José B. Sokol,2005 Trade integration helps promote economic development and poverty alleviation however customs procedures are often complex costly and lack transparency limiting external competitiveness and trade liberalisation reforms This handbook reviews the key elements of a successful customs modernisation strategy drawing on lessons from successful customs reform initiatives and on the experiences of the World Bank It includes operational guidelines to deal with issues such as customs valuation rules of origin duty relief and exemptions transit and security issues use of information technology a legal framework for customs operations human resource management strategies to combat corruption and management autonomy

Africa's Infrastructure Vivien Foster,Cecilia Briceño-Garmendia,World Bank,2010 This booklet contains the Overview as well as a list of contents from the forthcoming book Africa s Infrastructure A time for Transformation Report ,2008

United Nations Publications Catalogue ,2006 Trade and Transport Facilitation Assessment International Bank for Reconstruction and Development,Monica Alina Mustra,Jean-François Arvis,World bank (Washington, DC).,2010 The Effectiveness of Transport Corridor Agreements in Promoting Trade in Landlocked Developing Countries ,2008 This paper will examine the effectiveness of transport corridor agreements in increasing trade levels in landlocked developing countries LLDC with a focus on the 1985 Northern Corridor Transit Agreements performance in Uganda Finding ways to stimulate economic growth in landlocked economies is a critical development issue since many of these countries are poor Being removed from world markets and having to rely on neighboring countries for access to the sea LLDCs experience high transport costs that hinder trade and potentially stunt economic growth Transport corridor agreements are designed to improve the flow of goods through the transport corridors that landlocked countries depend on and therefore can help lower transport costs and improve trade in landlocked economies Using a time series ordinary least squares OLS model this paper will calculate whether the Northern Corridor Transit Agreement has had a measurably significant effect on trade levels in the landlocked Northern Corridor state of Uganda Data for this study will come from the 2006 World Development Indicators WDI database the Penn World Table Version 6.2 PWT 6.2 and the 2004 Polity IV database The main hypothesis of this paper is that by reducing transaction costs the Northern Corridor Transit Agreement has increased trade volumes in Uganda The findings of this study however provide only tentative support for the hypothesis They may be of interest to LLDC and African policymakers as well as the greater international development community including U.S. donor agencies as they seek to improve the well being of landlocked developing economies

Trade and Transport Facilitation Assessment Monica Alina Mustra, Jean-François Arvis, 2010 Corridor Management Kristine Williams, 2000 This synthesis report will be of interest to department of transportation administrators and transportation planning right of way economic development and environmental planning staffs as well as to the consultants that work with them It would also appeal to regional and local government officials and staff as well as to the private sector It summarizes information about corridor management policies and programs at the federal state and local levels An effort was made to select a diversity of methods and programs for the broadest treatment of the subject The synthesis focuses more on roadway corridors than on transit or greenway corridors but much of the information provided is relevant to any corridor management effort This report examines state policies and programs techniques applied and coordination issues A series of case studies provides more detailed study This report of the Transportation Research Board documents successful partnerships It presents examples of transportation agencies working together proactively with local governments and other stakeholders to achieve more cost effective and comprehensive solutions to transportation problems

International Trade and Transportation Infrastructure Development Juan Carlos Villa, Maria Boile, Sotirios Theofanis, 2020-04-24 International Trade and Transportation Infrastructure Development Experiences in North America and Europe examines the impact of trade agreements such as the North American Trade Agreement NAFTA and the European Union Customs Union and their relationship to transportation systems and infrastructure in member countries It analyzes historical trade by mode evaluating modal shifts due to trade policy and disputes and their implications for all involved nations This book also examines both supply and demand trends reviewing transportation processes and the stakeholders involved Capacity development funding mechanisms and operational characteristics of each mode are detailed in relation to the policies that influence them The book reviews recent trends and the impact of disruptive technologies as well as future potential regulatory changes with relation to upcoming infrastructure plans project funding and operations This book is an ideal reference for transportation practitioners involved in planning feasibility studies consultation and policy for international transportation systems or infrastructure Academic researchers and graduate students in transportation planning international relations and trade will also find this book useful

Deepening Trade and Transport Facilitation Policy Analysis of Border Crossing Points Asian Development Bank,2025-08-04 This report expands the CAREC Corridor Performance Measurement and Monitoring CPMM framework to assess border efficiency and trade facilitation through a new diagnostic index It introduces the Cross Border Trade and Transport Facilitation Index CBTTFI as an extension of the CPMM framework to provide more detailed assessments of border performance in selected CAREC countries Based on survey data the index identifies key operational institutional and regulatory factors affecting trade and transport facilitation The analysis supports efforts to inform policy dialogue and guide improvements in border management and corridor efficiency in line with the CAREC Integrated Trade Agenda 2030

Integrated Approach to Trade and Transport Facilitation Asian Development Bank,2022 To promote smoother flows of goods across borders while reducing trade costs this report explores an integrated approach to facilitating trade and transport across Asia and the Pacific for better engagement in value chains The report examines the current state of trade and transport facilitation analyzes gaps in the available guidance and provides strategic recommendations It includes a framework for the assessment of trade readiness at national and subnational levels and illustrates its implementation through case studies of Cambodia and Thailand The report aims to help governments boost the region s recovery from COVID 19 disruption by making cross border trading and transport arrangements more efficient and more sustainable inclusive and equitable North American International Trade Corridor Development Plan Booz, Allen & Hamilton,ATA Foundation,TransCore (Firm),Iowa State University.
