Valuing Services in Trade Sebastian Saez, Daria Taglioni, 2015-01-15 Valuing Services in Trade A Toolkit for Competitiveness Diagnostics provides a framework guidance and practical tools for conducting an analysis and diagnostics of the trade competitiveness of a country's services sector The proposed methods subsequently identify the main constraints to improved competitiveness and the appropriate policy responses Valuing Services in Trade has been successfully tested on country specific assessments and is designed to address a wider audience including policy makers in developing countries and development practitioners in international organizations policy making institutions and academia Its modules are valuable for different audiences full country diagnostics can be undertaken or various parts of the Toolkit can be used to address specific areas of interest to policy makers and experts A successful diagnostic based on the Toolkit depends on qualitative assessments and information gathered from a wide variety of stakeholders in the country including government officials and the private sector as well as on the quantitative analysis A diagnostic analysis should therefore be conducted in four key steps including preparation of a preliminary trade outcome assessment based on available hard data initial desk research and preparation for fieldwork in country field research and analysis and preparation of the final report and policy recommendations

Trade Competitiveness Diagnostic Toolkit, 2014 Trade Competitiveness Diagnostic Toolkit Daria Taglioni, Jose Daniel Reyes, Filipe Lage de Sousa, 2014-06 As globalization progresses and investment becomes more mobile it is ever more important for policy makers to understand which firms constitute the domestic economy and how they are affected by policy This toolkit offers a framework guidelines and practical tools for conducting an analysis and diagnostic of trade competitiveness using firm level data The toolkit will show how firm level analysis can be used to complement and integrate analyses based on more aggregate data and deliver richer and more focused assessments of countries competitiveness Going beyond descriptive statistics the proposed framework suggests a coherent and comprehensive method of using firm level data for assessing the competitiveness of the export sector and its sustainability This volume presents a selection of tests to assess trade outcomes and an econometric methodology to link these to their main determinants Trade Competitiveness Diagnostic Toolkit, 2014 Streamlining Non-Tariff Measures Olivier Cadot, Mariem Malouche, Sebastian Saez, 2012-05-14 This toolkit provides a novel approach and a set of tools for policymakers and analysts to identify non tariff measures NTMs assess their trade restrictiveness and impact on prices and welfare and to strengthen the institutional coordination mechanism transparency and regulatory governance on NTMs Handbook on the EU and International Trade Sangeeta Khorana, María García, 2018-08-31 The Handbook on the EU and International Trade presents a multidisciplinary overview of the major perspectives actors and issues in contemporary EU trade relations Changes in institutional dynamics Brexit the politicisation of trade competing foreign policy agendas and adaptation to trade patterns of value chains and the digital and knowledge economy are reshaping the European Union s trade policy The authors tackle how these challenges frame the aims processes and effectiveness of trade policy making in the context of the EU s trade relations with developed developing and emerging states in the global economy

Diversification perspectives of Guyana's agrifood sector weber, r., bubbico, a., morales opazo, c., 2022-08-05

Guyana s agrifood systems are facing an increasing level of risk rising sea levels are eroding its coastal area where much of the agricultural activity is located recent off shore oil discoveries threaten to crowd out non oil sectors and a dependency on a limited number of agricultural export commodities exposes the agricultural sector to price and market volatility The diversification of agricultural production and exports has the potential to generate growth and increase the resilience of the agricultural sector This study identifies Guyana s diversification potential using comparative advantage and export sophistication metrics which are combined for a proximity analysis based on Guyana s production space The objective is to identify a set of commodities with high export potential which is in relative proximity to the current agrifood export basket We find oil seeds bovine meat sunflower seed oil fish flours for animal feed palm oil fowl cocoa beans cocoa paste and sunflower seeds to be commodities with high export potential These commodities share characteristics with the current agrifood export basket This implies that expanding the exports of these goods will not be costly and is likely to promote economic development agricultural sector growth and reduce risks associated with market concentration

Historical Dictionary of the World Bank Sarah Tenney, Anne C. Salda, 2013-10-30 When it was founded back in 1944 no one could possibly have foreseen how the World Bank known more formally as the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development IBRD would flourish Today with 188 members it is by far the largest lender for projects in agriculture health infrastructure and many other fields in developing countries around the world with a budget of billions of dollars and a staff of more than 9 000 and its advice is usually heeded by both the developing countries which borrow from it and the advanced ones which contribute This second edition of the Historical Dictionary of the World Bank shows the substantial progress the Bank has made this mainly through the dictionary section with concise entries on its component institutions related organizations its achievements in various fields some of the major projects and member countries and its various presidents The introduction explains how the Bank works while the chronology traces the major events over nearly 70 years Meanwhile the list of acronyms reminds us just who the main players are And the bibliography directs readers to useful internal documentation and outside studies
