Total Solar Eclipses and How to Observe Them Martin Mobberley,2007-08-03 To children the world is full of magical events and the line between make believe and reality is happily distinctly blurred However as we all age and have to be realistic earn money become serious and responsible adults yawn and accept that life is short and no one is immortal those magical events fade and die We accept that the worlds of make believe are simply a product of the vivid imagi tions of great story tellers and that we are all very similar human beings just sl ging away at the tedious day job and hoping for a win on the lottery However there are still a few events which are truly magical and for me total solar eclipses TSEs are about as magical an event as you can ever experience Our Earth and Sun are by a ludicrously lucky coincidence or some would argue by a cosmic architect almost the same apparent size in the sky Thus seventy times a century the Moon s shadow passes over a narrow band on the Earth s surface and for those on the track with clear skies a truly awe inspiring sight can be seen But be warned eclipse chasing is an addictive drug Once you have seen tot ity you will crave more of the same The sight of an eclipsed Sun is the stuff of science ction but for the cost of a plane ight or an organized holiday it can be yours albeit for a few eeting minutes

The Pedagogical Imagination Leon Sachs, 2014-05-01 French school debates of recent years which are simultaneously debates about the French Republic's identity and values have generated a spate of internationally successful literature and film on the topic of education While mainstream media and scholarly essays tend to treat these works as faithful representations of classroom reality The Pedagogical Imagination takes a different approach In this study of French education and republicanism as represented in twenty first century French literature and film Leon Sachs shifts our attention from what literature and film say about education to how they say it He argues that the most important literary and filmic treatments of French education in recent years the works of Agnès Varda, Rik Orsenna, Abdellatif Kechiche, François Begaudeau do more than merely depict the present day school crisis They explore questions of education through experiments with form The Pedagogical Imagination shows how such techniques engage present day readers and viewers in acts of interpretation that reproduce pedagogical principles of active experiential learning principles at the core of late nineteenth century educational reform that became vehicles for the diffusion of republican ideology
