Vietnam Some Basic Issues And Alternatives:

Vietnam W. Isard, 1969 Acting Strategically Using Drama Theory James William Bryant, 2015-10-09 In today's confrontational and connected world communication is the key strategic act This book uses drama theory a radical extension of game theory to show how best to communicate so as to manage the emotionally charged confrontations occurring in any worthwhile relationship Alongside a toolset that provides a systematic framework for analysing Dynamics and Conflict in Regional Structural Change Manas Chatterji, Robert E. Keunne, 1990-06-18 The second in a two volume tribute to Walter Isard the first being New Frontiers in Regional Science this book looks at dynamics and conflict in regional structural change Together they contain 50 papers by experts in this field and look at subjects such as location theory A Question of Values Peter Lawler, 1995 Places the work of Johan Galtung in the context of past and current debates in international relations political theory and more generally in the social sciences This comprehensive and critical account scrutinises Galtung's conceptual icons such as positive peace and structural violence Special Bibliography Series United States Air Force Academy. Library, 1990 New Frontiers in Regional Science Manas Chatterji, Robert E. Keunne, 1990-06-18 The first in a two volume tribute to Walter Isard the second being Dynamics and Conflict in Regional structural Change this book looks at new frontiers in regional science Together they contains 50 papers by experts in this field and look at subjects such as location theory Politics in Wired Nations Ithiel de Sola Pool, 2018-04-17 Ithiel de Sola Pool was a pioneering social scientist a distinguished scholar of the political process and one of the most original thinkers in the development of the social sciences Passionately engaged in politics he continued his role of leadership throughout his life building the MIT Political Science Department into an outstanding group He organized international teams of social scientists and collaborated widely to develop the understanding of social change He was a frequent adviser to governments as consultant and in house critic and a successful advocate of limits on government regulation Politics in Wired Nations presents his writings on the social and political impact of different communication systems and new telecommunications technology Included in this volume is the first study of trends in a global information society and the first study of social networks and the small world phenomenon that creates new relationships and routes of informal influence and political power both domestic and international Pool's essays on the politics of foreign trade the influence of American businessmen on Congress and changeable unnatural institutions of the modern world e.g. bureaucracies mega cities and nation states are herein contained Pool describes a nonviolent revolution in freedom and political control that is possible as the world changes from the era of one way mass communications targeted to national audiences to a new era of abundant high capacity low cost interactive and user controlled communications on a global scale He discusses policy choices for freedom the battlegrounds ahead and the risks of government involvement in the regulation of new telecommunication technologies Special Bibliography Series, 1957 At War with Asia Noam Chomsky, 2005 Indispensable look at American military involvement in Vietnam Cambodia and

Laos until 1970 World Communism, 1964-1969, a Selected Bibliography United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary, 1971 Negotiating Peace Paul R. Pillar, 2014-07-14 This work draws on insights from the experimental and theoretical literature on bargaining to provide a much needed comprehensive treatment of the neglected subject of how wars end In a study of how states simultaneously wage war and negotiate peace settlements Paul R Pillar argues that war termination is best understood as a bargaining process Originally published in 1983 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Vietnam's Dilemmas and Options Mya Than, Loong-Hoe Tan, 1993 New and exciting economic political and social developments have been rapidly unfolding in Vietnam since the mid 1980s Doi moi revolution marks a new stage in the economic development of Vietnam transforming the failed command control economy to a market oriented one The drastic changes brought about by doi moi within Vietnam and the international events that impinge on it have stimulated several Vietnamese economists and social scientists as well as specialists or Vietnam watchers to analyse the situation and share their knowledge and diverse experience in this timely and useful book Vietnam Walter Isard, 1969-01-01 The War Managers Douglas Kinnard, 2014-03-15 Long considered a classic for its enlightening analysis of what went wrong in Vietnam this frank assessment of the American involvement in the war comes straight from the U S Army generals responsible for its conduct in the field First published in 1977 to great acclaim the painful indictment of both the military and civilian policy makers serves as a useful guide on how to avoid similar disasters in today s conflicts The author an American general who was chief of staff of the most important field command in Vietnam before his retirement in 1970 sent an extensive questionnaire to 173 other generals in 1974 seeking their views on the war and guaranteeing anonymity Nearly 70% responded with many adding pages of comments about such sensitive subjects as leadership and integrity General Kinnard then interviewed twenty of the respondents and supplemented their input with research of Army documents What emerges from his analysis of the generals responses is a uniquely fascinating and penetrating look at the war focusing on such central issues as the competence of American and Vietnamese troops the clarity of U S objectives the influence of body counts and much more Proceedings of the International Peace Research Association Third Conference: Philosophy of peace research International Peace Research Association, 1970 Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1981 Recent Trends in Vietnam's Rapid Economic Development Pham Khanh Nam, Almas Heshmati, 2024-10-02 This book offers an up to date and comprehensive picture of the Vietnamese economy which is the fast growing economy in Southeast Asia The country has invested heavily in education health and development infrastructure across the country Progress in recent decades has been strong and Vietnam has attracted significant relocation and outsourcing of production from OECD countries In recent years much of the withdrawn foreign direct investment from China is channeled to Vietnam The state s development policy has created optimal conditions for further expansion of production supply chain education and finances Investment in education health infrastructure administration and regulations is facilitating investment inflows technology transfer and spillover to the growing national companies The educated young population and disciplined labor force have provided a strong basis for the growth in the economy The high level of productivity improved quality of products low and competitive cost of production and more than 100 million people provide a strong base for a continued economic growth This edited volume is written by the professional young educated and active entrepreneurial generation with good insights into the features of the economy and its development potential They provide an up to date view and empirical research based picture of the recent trends in Vietnam s economic development The target audience are educators undergraduate and graduate students domestic and foreign investors government agencies provincial and industrial sector decision makers trade partners libraries individual researchers and professional and practitioners This book helps to fill the gap in knowledge and inform development planners and investors about different sectors of the Vietnamese economy and its development potential
