Transnational Spaces Routledge Research In Transnationalism:

Transnational Spaces Philip Crang, Claire Dwyer, Peter Jackson, 2004-07-31 Social relations in our globalising world are increasingly stretched out across the borders of two or more nation states Yet despite the growing academic interest in transnational economic networks political movements and cultural forms too little attention has been paid to the transformations of space that these processes both reflect and reproduce Transnational Spaces takes an innovative perspective looking at transnationalism as a social space that can be occupied by a wide range of actors not all of whom are themselves directly connected to transnational migrant communities

Postcolonial Translocations Marga Munkelt, Markus Schmitz, Mark Stein, Silke Stroh, 2013 The sites from which postcolonial cultural articulations develop and the sites at which they are received have undergone profound transformations within the last decades This book traces the accelerating emergence of cultural crossovers and overlaps in a global perspective and through a variety of disciplinary approaches It starts from the premise that after the spatial turn human action and cultural representations can no longer be grasped as firmly located in or clearly demarcated by territorial entities The collection of essays investigates postcolonial articulations of various genres and media in their spatiality and locatedness while envisaging acts of location as dynamic cultural processes It explores the ways in which critical spatial thinking can be made Productive Testing the uses and limitations of translocation as an open exploratory model for a critically spatialized postcolonial studies it covers a wide range of cultural expressions from the anglophone world and beyond literature film TV photography and other forms of visual art philosophy historical memory and tourism The extensive introductory chapter charts various facets of spatial thinking from a variety of disciplines and critically discusses their implications for postcolonial studies The Contributors essays range from theoretical interventions into the critical routines of postcolonial criticism to case studies of specific cultural texts objects and events reflecting temporal and spatial material and intellectual physical and spiritual mobility What emerges is a fascinating survey of the multiple directions postcolonial translocations can take in the future This book is aimed at students and scholars of postcolonial literary and cultural studies diaspora studies migration studies transnational studies globalisation studies critical space studies urban studies film studies media studies art history philosophy history and anthropology Contributors Diana Brydon Lars Eckstein Paloma Fresno Calleja Lucia Kr mer Gesa Mackenthun Thomas Martinek Sandra Meyer Therese M Meyer Marga Munkelt Lynda Ng Claudia Perner Katharina Rennhak

Gundo Rial y Costas Markus Schmitz Mark Stein Silke Stroh Kathy Ann Tan Petra Tournay Theodotou Daria Tunca Jessica Voges Roland Walter Dirk Wiemann International Migration and the Globalization of Domestic Politics Rey Koslowski, 2006 This book considers the impact of migrant communities on the politics of their home nations with case studies from Israel Turkey Kurdistan the Dominican Republic Mexico and Sri Lanka Migrant Citizenship from Below K. Shinozaki, 2015-05-06 Migrant Citizenship from Below explores the dynamic local and transnational lives of Filipina and Filipino migrant domestic workers living in Sch nberg Germany Shinozaki examines their irregular migrant citizenship status from above which is produced by complex interactions between Germany s welfare care and migration regimes and the Philippines gendered politics of overseas employment Despite the predominant representation of these workers as invisible these spatially immobile migrants maintain sustained transnational engagements through parenting and religious practices Shinozaki studies the reverse gendered process of international reproductive labor migration in which women traveled first and were later joined by men Despite their structural vulnerability participant observations and biographical interviews with the migrants demonstrate that they enact and negotiate migrant citizenship in the workplace transnational households religious practices and through accessing health provisions Transnationalism, Education and Empowerment Niranjana Casinader, 2017-02-03 Transnationalism Education and Empowerment challenges the prevailing notion that transnationalism is concerned fundamentally with the process of enhanced global population movement that has been allied with modern globalisation Instead it argues that transnationalism is a state of mind disassociated from the notion of place that can be observed equally in societies of the past Drawing on the context of colonial Sri Lanka and the British Empire the book discusses how education in the British Empire was the means by which some marginalised groups in colonised societies were able to activate their transnational dispositions Far from being a universal oppressor of colonised people as argued by postcolonial scholarship colonial education was capable of creating pathways to life improvement that did not exist before the European colonial period providing agency to those who did not possess it prior to colonial rule The book begins by exploring the meaning of transnationalism arguing that it needs to be redefined to meet the realities of past and current global societies It then moves on to examine the ways education was used within the period of 18th and 19th century European colonialism with a particular emphasis on Sri Lanka and other parts of the former British Empire Drawing from examples of his own family s ancestry Casinader then discusses how some marginalised groups in parts of the British Empire were able to use education as the key to unlocking their pre existing transnational dispositions in order to create pathways for more prosperous futures Rather than being subjugated by colonial education they harnessed the educational aspects of British colonial education for their own goals This book is one of the first to contest and critically evaluate the contemporary conceptualisation of transnationalism particularly in the educational context It will be of key interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of education the history of education imperial and colonial history

cultural studies and geography Mapping LGBTQ Spaces and Places Marianne Blidon, Stanley D. Brunn, 2022-07-11 This book addresses LGBTQ issues in relation to among others law and policy mobility and migration children and family social well being and identity visible and invisible landscapes teaching and instruction parades arts and cartography and mapping A variety of research methods are used to explore identities communities networks and landscapes all which can be used in subsequent research and classroom instruction and disciplinary and interdisciplinary levels This extensive book stimulates future pioneering research ventures in rural and urban settings about existing and proposed LGBTQ policies individual and group mapping visible and invisible spaces and the construction of public and private spaces Through the methodologies and rich bibliographies this book provides a rich source for future comparative research of scholars working in social work NGOs and public policy and community networking and development Fluctuating Transnationalism Astghik Chaloyan, 2017-06-28 This book concerns various modes of being transnational among a diasporic population Armenians in Germany by drawing parallels between the first and second generation migrants It puts forth the questions as to whether or not and which kind of transactional activity ties practices survive over generations and to what extent transnational engagements influence self identification and the sense of belonging It also examines how various modes of transnationalism in turn impact the sense of belonging The book fleshes out new perspectives and interpretations of transnationalism by revealing specific aspects of border spanning ties and by showing that connections to the country of origin do not necessarily need to be sustained or intensive in order to survive They can instead fluctuate depending on various factors but still have the right to be called transnational Bourdieu and Social Space Deborah Reed-Danahay, 2019-11-01 French sociologist and anthropologist Pierre Bourdieu s relevance for studies of spatiality and mobility has received less attention than other aspects of his work Here Deborah Reed Danahay argues that the concept of social space central to Bourdieu s ideas addresses the structured inequalities that prevail in spatial choices and practices She provides an ethnographically informed interpretation of social space that demonstrates its potential for new directions in studies of mobility immobility and emplacement This book traces the links between habitus and social space across the span of Bourdieu s writings and places his work in dialogue with historical and contemporary approaches to mobility Introduction to Migration Studies Peter Scholten, 2022-06-03 This open access textbook provides an introduction to theories concepts and methodological approaches concerning various facets of migration and migration related diversities It starts with an introduction to migration studies and continues with an introductory reading of migration drivers migration infrastructures migration flows and several transversal topics such as gender and migration It also covers politics policies and governance as well as specific research methods As an interactive guide this book develops an innovative format that brings a connection with various online sources This means that whereas the chapters bring together literature in a coherent way they are also connected to IMISCOE s online interactive Migration Research Hub for further reading and for more empirical material on migration and diversity As such this textbook provides a very useful introductory reading for undergraduate and graduate students as well as for policymakers policy advisors and all those interested in studies on migration and migration related diversities Handbook on Transnationalism Yeoh, Brenda S.A., Collins, Francis L., 2022-01-18 Providing a critical overview of transnationalism as a concept this Handbook looks at its growing influence in an era of high speed globalised interconnectivity It offers crucial insights on how approaches to transnationalism have altered how we think about social life from the family to the nation state whilst also challenging the predominance of methodologically nationalist analyses

Culture and Politics in the Information Age Frank Webster, 2001 This volume addresses these key issues through an analysis of important theoretical debates on issues such as digital democracy cultural politics and transnational communities Featuring contributors from both sides of the Atlantic the book contains a series of case studies on new social movements including campaigns on the environment gender animal rights and human rights It combines cutting edge research with theoretical material and makes an important contribution to this highly topical and rapidly growing area This book will be invaluable reading for students in areas including Politics Communications and IT Sociology and Cultural Studies

Bosnian Post-Refugee Transnationalism Maja Halilovic-Pastuovic, 2020-05-27 This book develops a new concept of post refugee transnationalism to describe experiences of Bosnian refugees who settled in Ireland after fleeing the conflict in 1990s Bosnia and Herzegovina The book explores their ambivalent relationship with their host and home countries Ireland and Bosnia arguing that their current experiences are best described as post refugee transnationalism Post refugee transnationalism is characterised by Bosnians dividing their time between the two countries rather than permanently settling in either and by engaging in summer migrations and diasporic interconnections and affiliations The book proposes post refugee transnationalism as different to other instances of transnationalism by stressing its enforced origin provoked by the conflict and institutionalized by the Dayton Peace Agreement The book combines Foucault's biopolitics David Theo Goldberg's understanding of nation states as racial states and Giorgio Agamben's expansion on the idea of potentiality to develop the concept of post refugee transnationalism

The Oxford Handbook of Refugee and Forced Migration Studies Elena Fiddian-Qasbiyeh, Gil Loescher, Katy Long, Nando Sigona, 2014-06-12 Refugee and Forced Migration Studies has grown from being a concern of a relatively small number of scholars and policy researchers in the 1980s to a global field of interest with thousands of students worldwide studying displacement either from traditional disciplinary perspectives or as a core component of newer programmes across the Humanities and Social and Political Sciences Today the field encompasses both rigorous academic research which may or may not ultimately inform policy and practice as well as action research focused on advocating in favour of refugees needs and rights This authoritative Handbook critically evaluates the birth and development of Refugee and Forced Migration Studies and analyses the key contemporary and future challenges faced by academics and practitioners working with and for forcibly displaced populations around the world The 52 state of the art chapters written by leading academics practitioners and policymakers working in universities research centres think tanks NGOs and international organizations provide a comprehensive and cutting edge overview of the key intellectual political social and institutional challenges arising from mass displacement in the world today The chapters vividly illustrate the vibrant and engaging debates that characterize this rapidly expanding field of research and practice Carolina del Norte:

The International Co-operative Alliance and the consumer co-operative movement in northern Europe, c. 1860-1939 Mary Hilson, 2018-04-10 The book examines the history of co operation in the broad context of the history of consumerism and consumption of internationalism and the development of international organisations and debates about international trade during the inter war period The fundamental question explored in the book concerns the meaning of co operation Was it a social movement or an economic enterprise Did it aspire to challenge capitalism or to reform it Did it contain at its heart a political vision for the transformation of society or was it simply a practical guide for organising a business Hilson argues that it was both but that an examination of the debates over the different meanings of co operation can also illuminate broader questions about the emergence of consumer interests in the first half of the twentieth century especially in a transnational context

Uncertain Citizenship Megan Ryburn, 2018-10-19 Uncertain Citizenship explores how Bolivian migrants to Chile experience citizenship in their daily lives Intraregional migration is on the rise in Latin America and challenges how citizenship in the region is understood and experienced As Megan Ryburn powerfully argues many individuals occupy a state of uncertain citizenship as they navigate movement and migration across borders Drawing on multi-sited ethnographic research this book contributes to debates on the meaning and practice of citizenship in Latin America and for migrants throughout the world

Mobile Media and Social Intimacies in Asia Jason Vincent A. Cabañes, Cecilia S. Uy-Tioco, 2020-01-09 This edited volume brings together cutting edge studies from emerging scholars of East Southeast Asia who explore the role of mobile media in the contemporary transformation of the region's social intimacies from the romantic to the familial to the communal By providing a regional and transnational overview of such studies it affords new insights into how these mobile technologies have contributed to the rise of glocal intimacies This pertains to the normalisation and intensification of how people's relationships of closeness are entangled in the ever-shifting and constantly negotiated flows between global modernity and local everyday life In providing case studies of mobile media and glocal intimacies the chapters in the volume attend to a broad range of countries that include China Korea Malaysia the Philippines Singapore Vietnam and Taiwan This illustrates the differing ways in which mobile media might be embedded in the region's divergent articulations of social intimacies which reflect the ongoing tensions between Western and Asian imaginaries of modernity The chapters also discuss a wide array of mobile media that people use from social media platforms like Facebook and Instagram to messaging apps like KakaoTalk and WhatsApp to dating apps like Tinder and Blued This allows for a mapping out of the different levels of impact that mobile media might have on social intimacies in a region that contains some of the most technologically advanced as well as the most technologically behind societies in the world In summary this book allows readers to take a comparative approach to understanding the complexity of the glocal intimacies that are emerging from the ways people in Asia use mobile media to reconfigure their local ties and to enact global relationships This volume will benefit students academics and researchers who are keen in media and communication cultural studies sociology anthropology and Asian studies This exciting and much-needed book will greatly advance our efforts to decolonise media and communications research The chapters offer empirically rich and nuanced accounts that challenge the dominant paradigms about mediated intimacy Mirca Madianou Goldsmiths University of London This collection develops the original concept of glocal intimacies to describe how mobile media have become a crucial site where new social intimacies are enacted reinforced and transformed in Asia It introduces fresh empirical research from emerging scholars to furnish deep theoretical insights into these imaginaries and practices Audrey Yue National University of Singapore

Continuity and Change Patricia M. O'Connor, Fidelma McCorry, 2025-04-15 Bringing together a multidisciplinary team of authors this book relays the untold story of postwar migration between Ireland and Australia Spanning the period 1945 2024 it explores the experiences of migrants from the Republic of Ireland and Northern Ireland and provides insights into the multiple reasons these migrants came to Australia factors which prompted permanency or return and the extent of continuity and change between recent arrivals and their historical predecessors Contemporary flows are examined through the lens of social economic policy and technological changes occurring at the time in Ireland Australia and globally Decades of economic boom and bust in Ireland including the growth and demise of the Celtic Tiger the impact of government investment in education in the Republic and the Troubles in Northern Ireland occurred alongside marked changes in Australia s immigration policy During this time an increased affordability of international travel and communication brought new dynamics to the tyranny of distance that characterised historical flows How contemporary migrants from Ireland navigated these changes in terms of identity and belonging homesickness and transnationalism are the key themes which are explored The role of Ireland s Government in relation to its migrant community in Australia and the impact of COVID 19 are also considered This book not only fills a gap in Ireland s diaspora research but also contributes to migration studies more broadly particularly the experiences of invisible immigrants
