Remembering Marielle Franco from a Theological Perspective Katharina Merian, 2024-08-20 In this Open Access book Katharina Merian discusses memories of Marielle Franco from the perspective of the concept of dangerous memory introduced by the political theologian Johann Baptist Metz Franco was an Afro Brazilian human rights activist and city councilor of Rio de Janeiro who was assassinated on March 14 2018 Her murder elicited worldwide protest and empathy Today she is considered an international symbol in the fight for human women and LGBTQ rights Based on the memories of people from Franco's inner circle the study explores Franco's life what it meant to the people around her and how her image was transformed following her murder By critically engaging with Metz's concept of dangerous memory which concerns memories of suffering and unfulfilled hopes that challenge the present Merian demonstrates that the memories of Franco represent a decolonial dangerous memory that sparks individual and collective self empowerment among Black women members of the LGBTQ community and favela residents This work not only contributes to a critical reappraisal of Franco s story and the meaning of her memory in the Brazilian and international context but also proposes a differentiated understanding of dangerous memory that highlights the relationship between solidarity and self empowerment in a moment of existential danger and threat

The Making of Brazil's Black Mecca Scott Ickes, Bernd Reiter, 2018-10-01 One of the few interdisciplinary volumes on Bahia available The Making of Brazil s Black Mecca Bahia Reconsidered contains contributions covering a wide chronological and topical range by scholars whose work has made important contributions to the field of Bahian studies over the last two decades The authors interrogate and problematize the idea of Bahia as a Black Mecca or a haven where Brazilians of African descent can embrace their cultural and spiritual African heritage without fear of discrimination In the first section leading historians create a century long historical narrative of the emergence of these discourses their limitations and their inability to effect meaningful structural change The chapters by social scientists in the second section present critical reflections and insights some provocative on deficiencies and problematic biases built into current research paradigms on blackness in Bahia As a whole the text provides a series of insights into the ways that inequality has been structured in Bahia since the final days of slavery

The Color of Asylum Katherine Jensen, 2023-09-05 Congolese migrants wait in long lines in unbearable heat to see immigration officials while Syrians go through an expedited process And while Syrian migrants reported a relaxed and comfortable environment while meeting with immigration officials Congolese migrants were met with distrust and suspicion as they recounted the harrowing and traumatic stories of life in their home country As Jensen shows Syrians are treated so differently from other asylum seekers because the Brazilian state recognizes them as white This dates back to Brazilian immigration policy that followed the abolition of slavery Eager to whiten its population Brazil welcomed a first wave of Syrian and Lebanese immigrants a precedent that would affect the nation s policy toward Syrian refugees in the twenty first century On the other hand anti black racism shapes the experiences of Congolese and other African refugees and entrenches racial inequalities even among those deemed worthy of safe haven

Black Feminist Constellations Christen A. Smith, Lorraine Leu, 2023-12-05 A collection of essays interviews and conversations by and between scholars activists and artists from Latin America and the Caribbean that paints a portrait of Black women s experiences across the region Black women in Latin America and the Caribbean suffer a triple erasure as Black people as women and as non English speakers in a global environment dominated by the Anglophone North Black Feminist Constellations is a passionate and necessary corrective Focused on and written by Black women of the southern Americas the original works composing this volume make legible the epistemologies that sustain radical scholarship art and political organizing by Black women everywhere In essays poems and dialogues the writers in Black Feminist Constellations reimagine liberation from the perspectives of radical South American and Caribbean Black women thinkers The volume's methodologically innovative approach reflects how Black women come together to theorize the world and challenges the notion that the university is the only site where knowledge can emerge A major work of intellectual history Black Feminist Constellations amplifies rarely heard voices centers the uncanonized and celebrates the overlooked work of Black women

Lemon-Aid New and Used Cars and Trucks 1990-2016 Phil Edmonston, 2015-11-21 This book steers buyers through the the confusion and anxiety of new and used vehicle purchases unlike any other car and truck book on the market Dr Phil Canada's best known automotive expert for more than forty five years pulls no punches
