The Meaning and Uses of βασιλεία in the Gospel of Matthew Tobias Ålöw, 2024-04-02 Contrary to the prevailing view that is a verbal noun signifying God's rule this study demonstrates how the term's pragmatic range in Matthew's Gospel covers both five distinct types of use and their integration into a coherent concept The study which is the first to examine all occurrences of in the First Gospel from the perspective of semantic monosemy extends and enhances our appreciation of the Matthean Zentralbegriff and engenders a more accurate apprehension of the nature and aims of the Matthean narrative and the theological views it conveys The Language and Literature of the New Testament Lois Fuller Dow, Craig A.

Evans, Andrew W. Pitts, 2016-11-28 In The Language and Literature of the New Testament a team of international scholars assembles to honour the academic career of New Testament scholar Stanley E Porter Over the years Porter has distinguished himself in a wide range of sub disciplines within New Testament Studies The contents of this book represent these diverse scholarly interests ranging from canon and textual criticism to linguistics other interpretive methodologies Jesus and the Gospels and Pauline studies The Grants Register 2025 Palgrave Macmillan, 2024-08-23 The Grants Register 2025 is the

Kimble, 2013-12-10 In an age of tolerance and moral laxity the implementation of church discipline is often looked upon with disdain fear or incredulousness However there is clear biblical precedent for the practice of discipline within a local church context While many are aware of several passages in Scripture that speak to this reality in this work Jeremy Kimble calls readers to observe clear biblical mandates historic precedent as well as theological and practical implications for the practice of church discipline Seeking to venture past the pragmatic discussions surrounding church discipline Kimble articulates for his readers a lucid theological presentation of this topic He argues that discipline serves as a warning of potential end time judgment As such discipline also serves as a means to the sinner's repentance and the perseverance of the saints within that local church This theological understanding of discipline calls pastors and congregations to faithfulness There is a seriousness to church discipline that cannot be ignored and likewise discipline must also be viewed as a mercy knowing it is a means to repentance and enduring in one's faith 2010-2011 College Admissions Data Sourcebook West Edition

, 2010-09 The Expeditionary Man Rich Wagner, 2009-05-26 Your career is compelling Your ministry at church is God's calling But do you realize how these outside activities capture your heart and steal your time and energy from your family

Adventure becomes what you want to do while family is what you are supposed to do Now author Rich Wagner offers a bold alternative In this personal and revealing book the author challenges Christian men to harness their career ambitions and limit their ministries while their children are at home Wagner shows how the pull of business success and the call to church ministries are compelling even seductive But if you allow your heart to be captured by career and church you put your kid s spiritual lives at risk Far too many Christian children grow up with the vision of a loving Father in heaven but live with the reality of an earthly father who seems more devoted to outside interests than he is to them As a result many children in Christian families today drift away from their faith as they become adults Wagner reveals how accepting his challenge will not only result in spiritually healthy kids but also give you the true adventure for which every Christian man yearns

Inerrancy Norman L. Geisler, 1980 Inerrancy is a collection of essays by fourteen leading evangelical scholars on a wide range of topics related to the doctrine of the inerrancy of the Bible Footnotes and index are included God's Inerrant Word John Warwick Montgomery, 2018-01-27 Editor John Warwick Montgomery b 1931 is one of the major philosophical apologists of the 20th century He is also a trained lawyer which influenced his historical legal approach to Christian apologetics He is perhaps best known as a writer for his books History and Christianity How Do We Know There is a God Faith Founded on Fact Evidence for Faith Where is History Going The Shape of the Past The Quest for Noah s Ark as well as for his debates with the infamous atheist Madalyn Murray O Hair 1967 with Joseph Fletcher reprinted in Situation Ethics True or False with Death of God theologian Thomas Altizer reprinted in The Suicide of Christian Theology R C Sproul wrote in the Foreword to this 1974 book The essays in this book were written as research articles for delivery at the Conference on the Inspiration and Authority of Scripture in the fall of 1976 The Conference was sponsored by the Ligonier Valley Study Center a facility developed to make the resources of Christian scholarship available to today s laymen and pastors The eleven essays comprising the text of this book were all publicly delivered at the Ligonier Conference Pg 9 Essays are included by authors such as Montgomery J I Packer John Gerstner Clark Pinnock John Frame Sproul etc Montgomery states in his own Introduction that The Ligonier Conference was designed specifically to serve as an adrenal injection for the faint of heart who question the place of inerrancy in historic Christian theology or doubt that modern research is compatible with an errorless Bible The essayists may differ from each other in a number of respects but they hold in common the historic Christian confidence in an entirely trustworthy Bible They would impart that confidence to the readers of this volume Pg 14 Montgomery states in his first essay Embedded in the liberal evangelical s attempt to preserve an infallible Bible in spite of errors is a further and even more serious fallacy We invariably find that the non revelational areas are the areas of science and history the areas of prime testability The result if one carries this line of reasoning to its logical conclusion is Where the Bible errs it is non revelatory when it is capable of being tested it is precariously revelatory revelatory only until proven wrong and where it cannot be tested it always remains revelatory and inerrant This is just like believers in sea serpents claiming that they appear only when no scientists are present Pg 31 32 Pinnock observes If we say as Vatican II does that inspiration guarantees only those truths necessary for salvation the question arises how much we need to know to be saved The way is open for someone to come along with the opinion that he need know very little Very little then is inerrantly taught in Scripture Pg 150 Sproul says in an essay Jesus understanding of the Old Testament Scriptures casts a shadow over his own sinlessness Jesus does not have to be omniscient to be infallible But he must be infallible to be sinless That is to say if Jesus claiming to be sent from God and invoking the authority of God in his teaching errs in that teaching he is guilty of sin The one who claims to be the truth cannot err and be consistent with that claim Anyone claiming absolute authority in his teaching must be absolutely trustworthy in what he teaches in order to merit absolute authority In light of his claims Jesus cannot plead invincible ignorance as an excuse for error Pg 253 These essays will be of great interest to any Christians studying the doctrine of biblical inerrancy by Steven H Propp Top 100 Reviewer Finding Ourselves Lost Robert C.

Dykstra,2018-06-13 This book wrestles with quandaries of pastoral ministry in what psychotherapist Mary Pipher calls the age of overwhelm Drawing especially from the wisdom of Jesus own teaching and healing ministries as portrayed in the Gospel of Luke it offers an intimate narrative introduction to pastoral theology for guiding bewildering tasks of pastoral care and counseling These essays encourage seminarians and ministers to embrace their role as agents of healing by exploring their own debilitating shame and daring to speak what in childhood could not be spoken by revealing their discoveries to a trusted confidant so as to feel less loathsome or lonely by attending to even minute individual differences in self and others that fuel social isolation and by believing in those persons who first believed in them Colleges in the Midwest evangelical and Pentecostal groups These groups sometimes display a certain indifference towards academic theological training or even reject it altogether In view of this development the question arises to what extent the relationship between faith and theology as defined in the wake of the Reformation will in future continue to be religiously productive and may thus serve the churches and their congregations
