Horak,2019-05-01 In the 1920s Los Angeles enjoyed a buoyant homegrown Spanish language culture comprised of local and itinerant stock companies that produced zarzuelas stage plays and variety acts After the introduction of sound films Spanish language cinema thrived in the city s downtown theatres screening throughout the 1930s 1940s and 1950s in venues such as the Teatro El ctrico the California the Roosevelt the Mason the Azteca the Million Dollar and the Mayan Theater among others With the emergence and growth of Mexican and Argentine sound cinema in the early to mid 1930s downtown Los Angeles quickly became the undisputed capital of Latin American cinema culture in the United States Meanwhile the advent of talkies resulted in the Hollywood studios hiring local and international talent from Latin America and Spain for the production of films in Spanish Parallel with these productions a series of Spanish language films were financed by independent producers As a result Los Angeles can be viewed as the most important hub in the United States for the production distribution and exhibition of films made in Spanish for Latin American audiences In April 2017 the International Federation of Film Archives organized a symposium Hollywood Goes Latin Spanish Language Cinema in Los Angeles which brought together scholars and film archivists from all of Latin America Spain and the United States to discuss the many issues surrounding the creation of Hollywood s Cine Hispano The papers presented in this two day symposium are collected and revised here This is a joint publication of FIAF and UCLA Film Television Archive The Projection of Britain James
