 Jestrovic, 2020-06-22 This book takes Roland Barthes's famous proclamation of The Death of the Author as a starting point to investigate concepts of authorial presence and absence on various levels of text and performance By offering a new understanding of the author as neither a source of unquestioned authority nor an obsolete construct but rather as a performative figure the book illuminates wide ranging aesthetic and political aspects of authorial death by asking how is the author constructed through cultural and political imaginaries and erasures intertextual and intertheatrical references re performances and self referentiality And what are the politics and ethics of these constructions
