JOSEPHUS Flavius Josephus,2022-03-26

Josephus was born Joseph Ben Mattathias in 37 C E in Jerusalem of a priestly and royal family He excelled in his studies of Jewish law and studied with the Sadducees Pharisees and the Essenes eventually aligning himself with the Pharisees In 62 C E he went to Rome to free some imprisoned priests After accomplishing this mission through the intercession of Nero's wife Poppaea he returned to Jerusalem in 65 C E to find the country in revolt against Rome Although Josephus had deep misgivings about the revolt it became inevitable due to reasons he discusses in his history primarily the abuses of the Romans this spurred the growth of fanatical Messianic Jewish movements which believed that the world was coming to an end shortly In 66 C E the Masada was seized by the Zealots and the Romans were on the march Josephus was appointed the commander of Galilee Josephus had to fight a defensive war against overwhelming force while refereeing internecine squabbles in the Jewish ranks In 67 C E Josephus and other rebels were cornered in a cave during the siege of Jotapata and took a suicide pact However Josephus survived and was taken hostage by the Romans led by Vespasian Josephus shrewdly reinterpreted the Messianic prophecies He predicted that Vespasian would become the ruler of the entire world Josephus joined the Romans for which he was branded a traitor He acted as consultant to the Romans and a go between with the revolutionaries Unable to convince the rebels to surrender Josephus ended up watching the second destruction of the Temple and the defeat of the Jewish nation His prophecy became true in 68 C E when Nero committed suicide and Vespasian became Caesar As a result Josephus was freed he moved to Roman and became a Roman citizen taking the Vespasian family name Flavius Vespasian commissioned Josephus to write a history of the war which he finished in 78 C E the Jewish War His second major work the Antiquities of the Jews was completed in 93 C E He wrote Against Apion in about 96-100 C E and The Life of Josephus his autobiography about 100 He died shortly after Despite his ambivalent role Josephus was an eyewitness to history and his writings are considered authoritative These texts are key to understanding a pivotal point in world history which has tragic repercussions even to this day

Josephus, the Wars of the Jews Titus Josephus,2018-02-05 Josephus was an eye witness to those events that he records in this book The Wars of The Jews or The History of The Destruction Of Jerusalem He records historic events that took place during and after the times of the New Testament scriptures The book of Revelation was a prophecy given to Jesus Christ and published by the Apostle John about those things that were shortly to come to pass in his day From the internal evidence of the book Revelation was written before the Neuronic persecution of 66 A D and before the fall off Jerusalem and the destruction of the temple in 70 A D This is because the book records that the temple in Jerusalem was still standing at the time the book was written and not around 95 A D as Eusebius mistakenly says The historic events that Josephus records are remarkable as they give evidence to the fulfilment of Prophecy given by the Lord Jesus in his Olivet prophecy In fact the book of Revelation was a prophecy of those events that were shortly to come to pass when Jesus spoke to John who wrote the Revelation Jesus had informed his Apostles about future events and they lived in expectation of there fulfilment in their day Josephus gives the historic evidence of the fulfilment of those prophecies and that confirms scripture fulfilment We recommend the James Stuart Russell s book The Parousia as a very good introduction to this subject and advertised at the back of this book in our Further Publications
