The Way Of Beauty Five Meditations For Spiritual:

The Way of Beauty François Cheng, 2009-06-25 Five meditations on the role of beauty in human life and its direct connection with the sacred Looks at how beauty has the power to elevate and counterbalance the negative side of the reality facing us Presents the role of beauty in transforming individuals and transforming the world from a Taoist perspective In a time of mindless violence and widespread ecological and natural catastrophes François Cheng asks if talking about beauty may not seem incongruous even scandalous Yet this is actually the most appropriate time to revisit a subject that was a philosophical mainstay for millennia The power of beauty to elevate and transcend counterbalances the negative side of the reality facing us As John Keats noted in Ode on a Grecian Urn beauty is inseparable from truth Beauty is truth truth beauty that is all Ye know on earth and all ye need to know The ultimate human reality pivots on these two extremes of the living universe beauty and evil Cheng begins his teachings with the intrinsic sense of beauty revealed by the landscape symbolized by the staggeringly beautiful Lu Mountain of his native province in China His five meditations carry the reader from the understanding of beauty being in the mind of the beholder to its intimate relationship with the sacred both from a Western and Taoist perspective He shows that the most telling indication of the importance of beauty in human life and for individual spiritual realization can be grasped by simply imagining a world without it

Dimensions of Aesthetic Encounters

Robert E. Innis, 2022-04-01 We encounter in our lives things and situations that elicit from us special forms of attention They affect and inform us in various ways drawing us in and holding us in their grasp or turning us away Works of art of all sorts and nature in its myriad manifestations exemplify these luring and repelling qualities and potencies Dimensions of Aesthetic Encounters explores central perceptual interpretative and semiotic dimensions of these encounters combining a wide range of examples and intellectual resources from pragmatist hermeneutical and semiotic frameworks Practicing a kind of method of rotation Robert E Innis breaks down barriers in aesthetic theory and shows their complementary powers Recurring themes link each chapter throwing a powerful light on aesthetic encounters by foregrounding such pivotal notions as play fundedness and the role of memory the defining quality of an artwork energies of objects potencies rhythm form presentational abstraction medium symbolization intuition role of the body and the non argumentative nature of art

Sacred Motherhood Anni Daulter, Niki Dewart, 2016-07-05 Written for mothers seeking to fulfill their soul's work while simultaneously raising future generations Sacred Motherhood offers women on the path of motherhood a guide back to themselves It will help you embrace the reality that this is your spiritual life every moment of every day whether you are at the grocery store changing diapers arguing with your partner snuggling with your baby or dyeing your teenager's hair pink Greet the moments when you fall down as awakening opportunities every bit as holy and powerful as the moments you can drop in and bliss out Spanning the sacred and the mundane Sacred Motherhood is both a guide and a journal enticing you to pause momentarily to reflect and write and then return to your mothering tasks armed with a fresh perspective renewed vision practical tips and creative ideas for enriching family life For fifty two weeks a year of sacred motherhood the chapters illuminate subjects that are likely to arise as the mothering journey unfolds and present thoughtful prompts and helpful reminders relating to you your soul and your child American Aesthetics Walter B. Gulick, Gary Slater, 2020-05-01

Although there are distinctly American artists Walt Whitman Herman Melville Grandma Moses Thomas Hart Benton and Andy Warhol for example very little attention has been devoted to formulating any distinctively American characteristics of aesthetic judgment and practice This volume takes a step in this direction presenting an introductory essay on the possibility of such a distinctly American tradition and a collection of essays exploring particular examples from a variety of angles Some of the essays in this collection extend pragmatist and process insights about the important place aesthetics has in molding and assessing experience Other essays examine the place of American aesthetics in relation to such particular forms of art as painting literature music and film Three essays attend to the aesthetic aspects of a flourishing life In each of the essays American aesthetics is understood to arise out of deeply felt personal historical and cultural backgrounds Consequently not only are such relatively abstract notions as harmony fit elegance proportion and the like involved in aesthetic judgment but also religious political and social factors become embroiled in aesthetic discernment Thus the ongoing pattern of American aesthetics is shown to be distinguishable from such other varieties of aesthetic thought as analytic aesthetics New Criticism and postmodern approaches to aesthetics Humanities Perspectives in Peace Education Nicole L. Johnson, 2021-08-01

In Humanities Perspectives in Peace Education Re Engaging the Heart of Peace Studies scholar teachers across a variety of humanities fields explore the content methods and pedagogies that are unique to their respective disciplines in contributing to the study of peace and justice In recent decades even as peace scholarship has burgeoned many peace studies texts including those that purport to be interdisciplinary in nature have emphasized social science perspectives and in some cases have foregone exploration of the role of the humanities altogether in comprehensive peace education While humanities scholars continue to stake out space for peace scholarship within their fields no volume has attempted to collect the wisdom of multiple humanities disciplines in order to make the case for their critical role in authentic peace education Humanities Perspectives in Peace Education addresses that shortcoming in the field of peace studies by exploring the ways in which the humanities are uniquely situated to contribute particular content knowledge skills and values required of comprehensive peace education scholarship and activism These include the development of empathy and understanding creative vision and imagination personal and communal transformation toward the good in society such as the pursuit of justice nonviolence freedom and human thriving and field specific analytical lenses of their own among other contributions Both teachers and students of peace will find value in this interdisciplinary humanities volume Each chapter of Humanities Perspectives in Peace Education offers a deep dive into a particular humanities field including philosophy literature language and culture studies rhetoric religion history and music to mine the field's unique contributions to peace and justice studies Scholars ask

What are we missing in peace education if we fail to include this academic discipline Chapters include suggestions for peace pedagogies within the humanities field as well as bibliographies and suggestions for further reading The Publishers Weekly, 2009

Art and Enchantment Patrick Curry, 2023-03-17 This book concerns the experience of enchantment in art Considering the essential characteristics dynamics and conditions of the experience of enchantment in relation to art including liminality it offers studies of different kinds of artistic experience and activity including painting music fiction and poetry before exploring the possibility of a life oriented to enchantment as the activity of art itself With attention to the complex relationship between wonder in art and the programmatic disenchantment to which it is often subject the author draws on the thought of a diverse range of philosophers sociological theorists and artists to offer an understanding of art through the idea of enchantment and enchantment through art An accessible study richly illustrated with experience both that of the author and others Art and Enchantment will appeal to scholars and students of sociology anthropology philosophy and anyone with interests in the nature of aesthetic experience Beholding Beauty Domenico Ingenito, 2020-12-29

Beholding Beauty Sa di of Shiraz and the Aesthetics of Desire in Medieval Persian Poetry explores the relationship between sexuality politics and spirituality in the lyrics of Sa di Shirazi d 1292 CE one of the most revered masters of classical Persian literature Relying on a variety of sources including unstudied manuscripts Domenico Ingenito presents the so called inimitable smoothness of Sa di s lyric style as a serene yet multifaceted window into the uncanny beauty of the world the human body and the realm of the unseen The book constitutes the first attempt to study Sa di s lyric meditations on beauty in the context of the major artistic scientific and intellectual trends of his time By charting unexplored connections between Islamic philosophy and mysticism obscene verses and courtly ideals of love Ingenito approaches Sa di s literary genius from the perspective of sacred homoeroticism and the psychology of performative lyricism in their historical context Christian Science Sentinel, 1901

Five Meditations on Death François Cheng, 2016-06-16 Philosophical discussions on the ways that death makes life meaningful and sacred Reveals how being conscious of death gives our fate its full meaning inviting the reader to contemplate life in the light of their own death Examines the author s experience of ancestor worship in his native China and the beliefs that underlie it Explains how death is a transition in a longer living process not visible from the modern black and white view of life and death Translated by award winning translator Jody Gladding Born from intimate discussions with friends these five meditations on death from poet philosopher Fran ois Cheng examine the multiple ways the prospect of death significantly shapes life and is in fact what makes life meaningful and sacred Written at the age of 84 in the twilight of life these meditations each approach the human understanding of death from different yet intertwined perspectives effortlessly returning to certain themes and ideas questioning them again more deeply with each passing The author shows that death is a transition in a longer living process not visible from the modern black and white view of life and death He examines his experience of ancestor worship in his native China and the beliefs that underlies it Our ancestors are alive in another form that what is living can never die and what is dead has never lived Cheng looks at the consequences of a world that has abandoned the sacred and avoids the mention of death a world now blindly staggering through the chaos it has created yet which can return to balance if we once again embrace the essential sacredness of life as well as death Throughout these five heart baring meditations Cheng invites us to contemplate life in the light of our own death He reveals that to be conscious of death gives our fate its full meaning Our death is an integral part of our great adventure in becoming For if birth is a seed then death is the fruit the final sacred product of a life well lived The Christian Advocate ,1908
