 Ahlquist the President of the American Chesterton Society and author of G K Chesterton The Apostle of Common Sense presents a book of wonderful insights on how to look at the whole world through the eyes of Chesterton Since as he says Chesterton wrote about everything there is an ocean of his material to benefit from GKC's insights on a kaleidoscope of many important topics Chesterton wrote a hundred books on a variety of themes thousands of essays for London newspapers penned epic poetry delighted in detective fiction drew illustrations and made everyone laugh by his keen humor Everyone who knew Chesterton loved him even those he debated with His unique writing style that combines philosophy spirituality history humor and paradox have made him one of the most widely read authors of modern times As Ahlquist shows in his engaging volume this most quoted writer of the 20th century has much to share with us on topics covering politics art education wonder marriage fads poetry faith charity and much more The Gospel of Mark Made Easy Patrick J.
 Flanagan, 1997 This is a fascinating introductory book for studying the Gospels It includes a simple presentation of contemporary scriptural interpretation of Mark's Gospel resource notes and compelling new insights for clergy biblical readers and study groups Peace Education James Page, 2008-09-01 Peace education is now well recognized within international legal instruments and within critical educational literature as an important aspect of education Despite this little attention has been given in the critical literature to the philosophical foundations for peace education and the rationale for peace education thus remains substantially an assumed one This investigation explores some possible ethico philosophical foundations for peace education through an examination of five specific ethical traditions 1 virtue ethics whereby peace may be interpreted as a virtue and or virtue is interpreted as peacefulness and peace education as education in that virtue 2 consequentialist ethics whereby peace education may be interpreted as education regarding the consequences of our action and inaction both as individuals and collectivities 3 conservative political ethics whereby peace education may be interpreted as emphasizing the importance of the evolution of social institutions and the importance of ordered and lawful social change 4 aesthetic ethics whereby peace may be interpreted as something beautiful and valuable in itself and peace education as emphasizing the importance of that beauty and value and 5 the ethics of care whereby care may be interpreted as a core element in peace and peace education as encouraging trust and engagement with the other The study addresses major contributions to each of these ethical traditions the strengths and weaknesses of the tradition and the ways in which the tradition provides support for peace education It is argued in the thesis that each tradition provides only a partial basis for peace education and that ultimately a holistic and integrative understanding is required one that encourages a culture of peace an important addition to the emerging literature on peace education and the culture of peace From the Foreword by Koichiro Matsuura Director General of UNESCO Albany Review ,1907 The Collected Poems of G.
