His goals for members of Japan's youth are the same as for the other countries: peace, good jobs, and a better life. But he also wants to "change the Japanese mind," says the American ambassador. "I want to see the Japanese people become more open to the world, more open to the United Nations, more open to the United States, and more open to the United Nations' efforts to bring about peace in the world." He also wants to see the Japanese people become more open to the United Nations' efforts to bring about peace in the world.
