The Use And Abuse Of Australian History:

The Use and Abuse of Australian History Graeme Davison, 2000 This collection of engaging and vigorous essays examine what makes the history business tick Davison demonstrates that Australia's history can be relevant to the issues we confront everyday at the governmental level at work and in our communities Melbourne's Monuments Ronald T. Ridley, 1996 A guide to the public statuary of Melbourne based on two walks around the inner city Many public monuments are often just accepted as part of the scene but each statue or memorial has a story to tell whether about the sculptor or the person or event it commemorates and all of them represent a small piece of Melbourne history Turning Points in Australian History Martin Crotty, David Andrew Roberts, 2009 This exciting and stimulating book looks back at turning points and crucial moments in Australian history Rather than arguing that there have been forks on a pre determined road the book challenges us to think about other paths or better paths that might have led to different outcomes Representing the Past in the Art of the Long Nineteenth Century Matthew C. Potter, 2021-09-30 This edited collection explores the intersection of historical studies and the artistic representation of the past in the long nineteenth century The case studies provide not just an account of the pursuit of history in art within Western Europe but also examples from beyond that sphere These cover canonical and conventional examples of history painting as well as more inclusive popular and vernacular visual cultural phenomena General themes explored include the problematics internal to the theory and practice of academic history painting and historical genre painting including compositional devices and the authenticity of artefacts depicted relationships of power and purpose in historical art the use of historical art for alternative Liberal and authoritarian ideals the international cross fertilisation of ideas about historical art and exploration of the diverse influences of socioeconomic and geopolitical factors This book will be of particular interest to scholars of the histories of nineteenth century art and culture

Colonial Violence and Monuments in Global History Cynthia C. Prescott, Janne Lahti, 2023-08-29 This book tackles the historical relationship between colonial violence and monuments in Africa Europe the Indian subcontinent North America and Australia In this volume the authors ask similar questions about monuments in each location and answer them following a parallel structure that encourages comparison highlighting common themes The chapters track the contested histories of monuments scrutinizing their narrative power and examining the violent events behind them It is both about the history of monuments and the histories the monuments are meant to commemorate It is interested in this nuanced relationship between violence monuments memory and colonial legacies the ways different facets of colonial violence conquest resistance massacres genocides internments and injustices have been commemorated or haven't been how they live in the present and how pertinent they are in the present to different peoples Legacies of colonial violence and continued reinterpretations of the past and its meanings remain very much ongoing They are still very much unsettled questions in large parts of the world Colonial Violence and Monuments in Global History will be essential reading for students scholars and researchers of political science history sociology and colonial studies The book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Genocide Research

The Art of Time Travel Tom Griffiths, 2017-07-03 No matter how practised we are at history it always humbles us No matter how often we visit the past it always surprises us Winner of the Ernest Scott Prize and shortlisted for the NSW Premier's Literary Award for Non fiction A rare feat of imagination and generosity Mark McKenna With every sentence they write historians must walk the tightrope between discipline and imagination empathy and evidence In this landmark work eminent historian and award winning author Tom Griffiths shares his passion for the fascinating complex craft of history or as he calls it the art of time travel In fourteen portraits Griffiths illuminates how historians such as Inga Clendinnen Judith Wright Geoffrey Blainey and Henry Reynolds have approached their craft In prose both earthy and elegant he shows the new insights they have brought to Australian history and in so doing reshapes our shared knowledge of this continent The Art of Time Travel is an exhilarating book that will forever change the way you think of Australia's past If the past is a foreign country Tom Griffiths makes the perfect travelling companion Let him be your eyes and ears on our shared history Most of all follow his heart Clare Wright

Work of History Peter Beilharz, Sian Supski, 2022-07-05 Stuart Macintyre was an eminent figure within the world of Australian history scholarship for 45 years This collection of essays and responses revisits and extends this extraordinary life of achievement and engagement Leading scholars write here of Macintyre's contribution to understanding radicalism and communism postwar reconstruction education and civics universities liberalism historiography and the history wars They also tell us about collegiality and friendship The practice of history writing and telling has long been central to the narrative of the nation in Australia The Work of History connects us to that past It raises the question of what comes next and re values Macintyre's contribution serving both as a snapshot of the state of the historian's art and an introduction to those who come more recently to this highly contested field
