Making Their Own Way Marcia B. Baxter Magolda, 2023-07-03 WINNER OF AERA S NARRATIVE RESEARCH SPECIAL INTEREST GROUP 2003 BOOK AWARD What impact does a college education have on students careers and personal lives after they graduate Do they consider themselves well prepared for the demands and ambiguities of contemporary society What can we learn from their stories to improve the college learning experience This groundbreaking book extends Marcia Baxter Magolda s renowned longitudinal study and follows her participants lives from their graduation to their early thirties We follow these students journeys to an internally authored sense of identity and how they make meaning of their lives From this the author proposes a new framework for higher education to better foster students crucial journeys of transformation through the shaping of curriculum and co curriculum advising leadership opportunities campus work settings collaboration diversity and community building This is an important book for all faculty administrators and student affairs professionals

Medical Humanities, Sociology and the Suffering Self Wendy Lowe, 2020-12-22 Following criticisms of the traditionally polarized view of understanding suffering through either medicine or social justice Lowe makes a compelling argument for how the medical humanities can help to go beyond the traditional biographical and epistemic breaks to see into the nature and properties of suffering and what is at stake Lowe demonstrates through analysis of major healthcare workforce issues and incidence of burnout how key policies and practices influence healthcare education and experiences of both patients and health professionals By including first person narratives from health professionals as a tool and resource she illustrates how dominant ideas about the self enter practice as a refusal of suffering Demonstrating the relationship between personal experience theory and research Lowe argues for a pedagogy of suffering that shows how the moral anguish implicit in suffering is an ethical response of the emergent self This is an important read for all those interested in medical humanities health professional education person centred care and the sociology of health and illness
