The Wedding Dress Meditations On Word And Life:

The Wedding Dress Fanny Howe, 2003-11-25 In times of great uncertainty the urgency of the artist's task is only surpassed by its difficulty Ours is such a time and rising to the challenge novelist and poet Fanny Howe suggests new and fruitful ways of thinking about both the artist's role and the condition of doubt In these original meditations on bewilderment motherhood imagination and art making Howe takes on conventional systems of belief and argues for another brave way of proceeding In the essays Immanence and Work and Love and those on writers such as Carmelite nun Edith Stein French mystic Simone Weil Thomas Hardy and Ilona Karmel who were particularly affected by political philosophical and existential events in the twentieth century she directly engages questions of race gender religion faith language and political thought and in doing so expands the field of the literary essay A richly evocative memoir Seeing Is Believing situates Howe's own domestic and political life in Boston in the late 60s and early 70s within the broader movement for survival and social justice in the face of that city's racism Whether discussing Weil Stein Meister Eckhart Saint Teresa Samuel Beckett or Lady Wilde Howe writes with consummate authority and grace turning bewilderment into a lens and a light for finding our way

Reading and Writing Experimental Texts Robin Silbergeld, Kristina Quynn, 2017-10-03 This collection of essays offers twelve innovative approaches to contemporary literary criticism The contributors women scholars who range from undergraduate students to contingent faculty to endowed chairs stage a critical dialogue that raises vital questions about the aims and forms of criticism its discourses and politics as well as the personal institutional and economic conditions of its production Offering compelling feminist and queer readings of avant garde twentieth and twenty first century texts the essays included here are playful performative and theoretically savvy Written for students scholars and professors in literature and creative writing Reading and Writing Experimental Texts provides examples for doing literary scholarship in innovative ways These provocative readings invite conversation and community reminding us that if the stakes of critical innovation are high so are the pleasures

The Literary Afterlives of Simone Weil Cynthia R. Wallace, 2024-04-23 Finalist 2025 Scholarly Writing Award Saskatchewan Book Awards The French philosopher mystic activist Simone Weil 1909-1943 has drawn both passionate admiration and scornful dismissal since her early death and the posthumous publication of her writings She has also provoked an extraordinary range of literary writing focused on not only her ideas but also her person novels nonfiction and especially poetry Given the challenges of Weil's ethic of self-emptying attention what accounts for her appeal especially among women writers This book tells the story of some of Weil's most dedicated and at points surprising literary conversation partners exploring why writers with varied political and religious commitments have found her thought and life so resonant Cynthia R. Wallace considers authors who have devoted decades of attention to Weil such as Adrienne Rich Annie Dillard and Mary Gordon and who have written poetic sequences or book-length verse biographies of Weil including Maggie Helwig Stephanie Strickland Kate Daniels Sarah Klassen Anne Carson and Lorri Neilsen Glenn She illuminates how writing to of and in the tradition of Weil has helped these writers grapple with the linked harms and possibilities of religious belief self giving attention and the kind of moral seriousness required by the ethical and political crises of late modernity The first book to trace Weil s influence on Anglophone literature The Literary Afterlives of Simone Weil provides new ways to understand Weil s legacy and why her provocative wisdom continues to challenge and inspire writers and readers

The Possibility of America David Dark,2019-04-09 Published in the years following 9 11 David Darks book The Gospel according to America warned American Christianity about the false worship that conflates love of country with love of God It delved deeply into the political divide that had gripped the country and the cultural captivity into which so many American churches had fallen In our current political season the problems Dark identified have blossomed The assessment he brought to these problems and the creative resources for resisting them are now more important than ever Into this new political landscape and expanding on the analysis of The Gospel according to America Dark offers The Possibility of America How the Gospel Can Mend Our God Blessed God Forsaken Land Dark expands his vision of a fractured yet redeemable American Christianity bringing his signature mix of theological cultural and political analysis to white supremacy evangelical surrender and other problems of the Trump era

Draw Your Weapons Sarah Sentilles,2017-07-04 A single book might not change the world But this utterly original meditation on art and war might transform the way you see the world and that makes all the difference How to live in the face of so much suffering What difference can one person make in this beautiful imperfect and imperiled world Through a dazzling combination of memoir history reporting visual culture literature and theology Sarah Sentilles offers an impassioned defense of life lived by peace and principle It is a literary collage with an urgent hope at its core that art might offer tools for remaking the world In Draw Your Weapons Sentilles tells the true stories of Howard a conscientious objector during World War II and Miles a former prison guard at Abu Ghraib and in the process she challenges conventional thinking about how war is waged witnessed and resisted The pacifist and the soldier both create art in response to war Howard builds a violin Miles paints portraits of detainees With echoes of Susan Sontag and Maggie Nelson Sentilles investigates images of violence from the era of slavery to the drone age In doing so she wrestles with some of our most profound questions What does it take to inspire compassion What impact can one person have How should we respond to violence when it feels like it can t be stopped Praise for Draw Your Weapons A collage of death savagery torture and trauma across generations and continents Sarah Sentilles s Draw Your Weapons is painful to read hard to put down and impossible to forget O The Oprah Magazine In her dynamic impressionistic and cleverly titled book Sentilles focuses on language and images particularly photography and considers what role they play in peace and war Eschewing a traditional narrative Sentilles focuses on two men one a World War II conscience objector who makes violins and the other an Abu Ghraib prison guard who paints detainee portraits In brief delicately layered pieces rather than a narrative Sentilles has created a collage that explores art violence and what it means to live a principled life The National

Book Review It s the kind of book that after reading just half you have to stop and catch your breath because reading it changes you not just in terms of what you know it changes the way you think and how you feel so much so that halfway in I wanted to go back and start again because I felt I was already a different person to the person I was when I began Turnaround Motherhood Memoirs: Mothers Creating/Writing Lives Justine Dymond,2013-07-01 The authors in this collection examine and critique motherhood memoir alongside the texts of their own lives while seeking to transform mothering practice highlighting revolutionary praxis within books or when none is available creating new visions for social change Many essays interrogate the tensions of maternal narrative the negotiation of the historical location of writer and readers narrative and linguistic constraints and the slippery ground of memory as well as the borders constructed between the objective scholar and the reader who engages with and identifies with texts through her intellect and her emotional being

The Future of the World Tiffany Eberle Kriner,2014-07-01 Kriner tells the story of how readers participate in the future of the word the eschatology of texts If texts have a future in the kingdom of God then readers engagements with them everything from preservation and utterance to translation criticism and call and response can cultivate those futures in the love of the Trinity Kriner explores how the fallenness and failures of texts alongside readers own failures ultimately point to reading as a posture of reconciliation in which reader and text meet in the Maranatha of all text How to Read a Poem

Thomas H. Ford,2021-07-11 How to Read a Poem is an introduction to creative reading the art of coming up with something to say about a text It presents a new method for learning and teaching the skills of poetic interpretation providing its readers with practical steps they can use to construct perceptive inventive readings of any poem they might read The Introduction sets out the aims of the book and provides some basic operating principles for applying the seven steps In each subsequent chapter the step is introduced and explained relevant points of interpretative theory and methodology are discussed and illustrated with multiple examples and the step is put into practice in a final section Through these final sections step by step the book develops an extended reading of a single poem Letitia Landon s Lines Written under a Picture of a Girl Burning a Love Letter from 1822 That reading is sustained across the whole arc of the book providing a detailed worked example of how to read a poem This accessible and enjoyable guide is the ideal introduction to anyone approaching the detailed study of poetry for the first time and offers valuable theoretical insights for those more experienced in the area Rosie's Daughters

Matilda Butler,Kendra Bonnett,2007 Meet Rosie s Daughters in this collective memoir of American women born during World War II precursors of the Baby Boom generation Their stories will inform entertain and surprise you In these in depth interviews they are declaring their place in history A Future and a Hope Tiffany Eberle Kriner,2005 Parabola ,2003

The Lyrics Fanny Howe,2007-06-26 Who was that stranger beside me Please forgive me for insisting It must have been a dream No one could survive such happiness from Untitled The Lyrics by Fanny Howe records the days of one seeking knowledge through movement and contingent images a monastery a motel an Irish coastal river all the while conscious of political and class warfare of being American of the need to know the difference if there is one between good and evil Each poem is a lament formed in a place of rest asking Can we get beyond this and still be The Lyrics is the newest work of an intense and vital poet Zyzzyyva ,2003 The African American National Biography: Roman-Tzomes Henry Louis Gates (Jr.),Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham,2008 An 8 volume reference set containing over 4 000 entries written by distinguished scholars The African American National Biography is the most significant and expansive compilation of black lives in print today Rain Taxi Review of Books ,2004 Quill & Quire ,2003 The Winter Sun Fanny Howe,2009-03-03 A collage of essays on childhood language spiritual biographies and the writer s life a vocation has no name P 4 of cover The Arizona Quarterly ,2012 On the Ground Fanny Howe,2004-07 A spiritually resonant and politically urgent new collection by the winner of the Lenore Marshall poetry prize My father was a soldier who was smaller than my son when he returned as a ghost I begged him to stay with us but he said Not until you come to life from Untitled Fanny Howe s bold new collection responds to the contrast between American imperialist goals and the realities of life lived on the ground While our minds are preoccupied with the war games on television we go on living among our ordinary joys and appetites How can we live under these dissonant conditions and reconcile our existence with our longings Library Journal Melvil Dewey,Richard Rogers Bowker,L.
