The Word Before The Powers An Ethic Of Preaching:

The Word Before the Powers Charles L. Campbell, 2002-01-01 In this examination of the ethical significance of preaching Charles Campbell provides both fresh insights into the relationship between preaching and ethics and a challenging moral vision for the contemporary church Moving beyond a narrow focus on moral decision making or social issues sermons Campbell argues that a particular ethic nonviolent resistance is inherent in the practice of preaching and shapes the moral life of the church In the face of the powers the fundamental ethical task of preaching involves building up the church as a community of resistance Employing three dimensions of character ethics vision practices and virtues Campbell demonstrates the concrete ways in which preachers may undertake this task Ways of the Word Sally A. Brown, Luke A.

Powery, 2016-05-19 Preaching and the discipline of preaching is at a crossroads The changing realities of church and theological education the diversity of our classrooms and our increasingly complex community contexts leave us in search of tools to help train a rising generation of preachers for a future whose contours are far from clear The questions are immense How to support preachers in contexts that are diverse religiously culturally and ethnically both inside and outside the church How to help students take varied contexts seriously as they are formed as leaders In Ways of the Word a dynamic team of master preachers brings much needed help Different in race gender age and tradition both Sally A Brown and Luke A Powery speak with one voice their belief that preaching is Spirit empowered event an embodied vocalized actively received here and now witness to the ongoing work of God in the world They aspire to help students and preachers alike to reflect on a journey of learning by doing They aim to help preachers to become more attuned to the Spirit more adept in preaching s component skills and more self aware about all that is at stake in proclaiming the redemptive work of God in specific contexts
