The Voice Of The African Child:

The African Child's Dream Rachel Adekunle, 2020-10-29 An innovative book from a different perspective to the run of the mill self help books that basically goes into the deep waters of the struggles and challenges that stand in the path of the young child aspiring to a dream and it cuts across the role of the parent in a participatory as well as spiritual level to ensure that the role of every party is specified A book that uses the story telling approach to show the path to achieving dreams with the roles of the parent and ward and inclusive of nuggets for those living in a dream not of their own choosing A book for anyone who wants to live a full and rich life doing what they love and needing the tools to equip themselves Unmasking Kelvin Kagimbi Waweru, 2020-04-27 Growing up anywhere brings its share of problems but growing up in a continent such as Africa is a struggle beyond imagination for many residents Put yourself in the shoes of an African child or should I say feet because many children do not wear shoes Imagine growing up in a world where you lack the very basics in life food clean water medicine shelter safety a bed of your own Beyond that there are no toys no dolls and no soccer balls no sweets and treats at best a bed of reeds to sleep on School would be wonderful to attend but there is no money for school fees So you stay at home and wait for a miracle but for most there is none Life is simply survival and staying alive It would be amazing to learn how to read and write but it may never happen for some ordinary African child in fact there are not many in the family that Acquire the very basic education There are few ways out of the slum in which you live One is to get education join criminal gangs practice prostitution and at its worst get recruited to terror groups However that is not the way you learned in your church just up the path from your slum called Emanuel where they spoke of Holiness right living and faith in God to bring about a future with hope You have had a lot of hope prayed a lot but not seen the bright future In fact many of the African children do not live long to know what life had in store for them They succumb to illness calamities and hostility in the community Some are abandoned by their parents while others die in full watch of their parents who cannot do anything to stop the ordeal The big question would be did their parents choose to be poor Did they choose to live in drought infested regions which are unproductive Did they choose not to seek education Did they choose to bear children only for them to die or live a miserable life Well when you get to the depth of this book you will realize that you are only lucky that life did not serve you with the same fate It is sad that most people assume life is a bed of roses for everyone while it is totally a nightmare for many especially in poor African countries

The status of the implementation of the African Children's Charter:
A ten-country study Elvis Fokala, Nkatha Murungi, Mai Aman, 2022-06-01 In 2020 the African Charter on the Rights and Welfare of the Child ACRWC celebrates 30 years since its adoption To date 50 African States have ratified the ACRWC and 28 have submitted the initial report 12 have submitted both initial and periodic reports to the African Committee of Experts on the African Charter on the Rights and Welfare of the Child ACERWC on the implementation of the ACRWC and have received recommendations from the ACERWC To ascertain the extent of children's rights protection in Africa the Centre for

Human Rights was commissioned to undertake a study on the implementation of the ACRWC in 10 countries namely Algeria Burkina Faso Burundi Cameroon Ethiopia Ghana Mozambique Namibia Sudan and Tanzania In country researchers were engaged to collect data using desk based research to obtain information consisting of literature documents and online sources that was then thematically analysed Children and AIDS Margaret Lombe,Alex Ochumbo,2017-05-08 The disproportional loss of individuals to HIV AIDS in their most productive years raises concerns over the welfare of surviving members of affected families and communities One consequence of the rapid increase in adult mortality is the rise in the proportion of children who are orphaned Sub Saharan Africa accounts for about 90 percent of these Mainly due to the staggering toll of HIV AIDS research effort has focused on treatment and prevention Children have received attention primarily in relation to mother to child transmission and paediatric AIDS These issues are important and compelling but fail to capture the whole story the unprecedented surge in the number of children made vulnerable by HIV AIDS In this book we reflect on the plight of children classified as vulnerable review interventions implemented to improve their welfare and grapple with the concept of vulnerability as it relates to human rights and the African child The Palgrave Handbook of African Oral Traditions and Folklore Akintunde Akinyemi,Toyin Falola,2021-03-05 This handbook offers the most comprehensive analytic and multidisciplinary study of oral traditions and folklore in Africa and the African Diaspora to date Preeminent scholars Akintunde Akinyemi and Toyin Falola assemble a team of leading and rising stars across African Studies research to retrieve and renew the scholarship of oral traditions and folklore in Africa and the Diaspora just as critical concerns about their survival are pushed to the forefront of the field With five sections on the central themes within orality and folklore including engagement ranging from popular culture to technology methods to pedagogy this handbook is an indispensable resource to scholars students and practitioners of oral traditions and folklore preservation alike This definitive reference is the first to provide detailed systematic discussion and up to date analysis of African oral traditions and folklore

The African Charter on the Rights and Welfare of the Child: A Commentary Julia Sloth-Nielsen, Elvis Fokala, Godfrey Odongo, 2025-01-01 Since its adoption in July 1990 and entry into force in November 1999 the African Charter on the Rights and Welfare of the Child African Children's Charter has become a key treaty within the African human rights system governing children's rights in Africa To date 51 out of 55 African Union member states have ratified the African Children's Charter which demonstrates a growing commitment to respect protect and promote the rights of children There is no doubt that the Charter since entering into force has significantly contributed to the development of standards and practice related to children in Africa This comprehensive commentary on the African Children's Charter the first of its kind provides a systematic analysis of each article of the Charter tracing the origin of the rights highlighting and explaining unique African concepts and normative standards featured in the Charter The Commentary aims to be a one stop shop for anyone interested in protecting and promoting children's rights in Africa such as researchers teachers students practitioners policy makers and activists Authored by an array of contributors steeped in African jurisprudence and human rights values comprising 38 discrete chapters it constitutes an essential and contemporary guide to the legal understanding of the various provisions the Charter provides for It is edited by three African scholars prominent in the field of children's rights in Africa Prof Julia Sloth Nielsen Prof Elvis Fokala and Dr Godfrey Odongo This Commentary is the second in the PULP series of Commentaries on African human rights law

The World of Children Simone Lässig, Andreas Weiß, 2019-10-03 In an era of rapidly increasing technological advances and international exchange how did young people come to understand the world beyond their doorsteps Focusing on Germany through the lens of the history of knowledge this collection explores various media for children from textbooks adventure stories and other literature to board games museums and cultural events to probe what they aimed to teach young people about different cultures and world regions These multifaceted contributions from specialists in historical literary and cultural studies delve into the ways that children absorbed combined and adapted notions of the world

Voice of African Children, 2001 Do African Children Have Rights? Stephen Nmerigini Achilihu, 2010 The United Nations 1989 Convention on the Rights of the Child CRC constitutes a landmark in the development of international human rights law and reflects an historic turn in universal thinking about children and their rights Many children in Africa today face the future with a deep sense of uncertainty and foreboding Many have no hope of education and the issues of child trafficking sexual exploitation and child labour reflect a profound crisis of the family The current socio economic situation has radically changed the world views and the life expectations of the African child This book attempts to respond to some of the questions that could be asked to what extent have the provisions of the CRC been implemented in the national legislations of African States What effect have they had on children in Africa What mechanisms exist to prevent and sanction rights abusers Are children s rights in Africa reality or simply rhetoric Welcoming Africa's children - Theological and ministry perspectives Jan Grobbelaar,Gert Breed,Stephan de Beer,Nico Koopman,Elijah Mahlangu,Malan Nel,Dirkie Smit,Pieter Verster,2016-12-31 The purpose of this book is to combine perspectives of scholars from Africa on Child Theology from a variety of theological sub disciplines to provide some theological and ministerial perspectives on this topic The book disseminates original research and new developments in this study field especially as relevant to the African context In the process it addresses also the global need to hear voices from Africa in this academic field It aims to convey the importance of considering Africa s children in theologising The different chapters represent diverse methodologies but the central and common focus is to approach the subject from the viewpoint of Africa s children The individual authors varied theological sub disciplinary dispositions contribute to the unique and distinct character of the book Almost all chapters are theoretical orientated with less empirical but more qualitative research although some of the chapters refer to empirical research that the authors have performed in the past Most of the academic literature in the field of Child Theologies is from American or British European origin The African context is fairly absent in this discourse although it is the youngest continent and presents unique and relevant challenges This book was written by theological scholars from Africa focussing on Africa s children It addresses not only theoretical challenges in this field but also provides theological perspectives for ministry with children and for important social change Written from a variety of theological sub disciplines the book is aimed at scholars across theological sub disciplines especially those theological scholars interested in the intersections between theology childhood studies and African cultural or social themes It addresses themes and provides insights that are also relevant for specialist leaders and professionals in this field No part of the book was plagiarised from another publication or published elsewhere The African Charter on the Rights and Welfare of the Child Thoko Kaime,2009 The African Charter on the Rights and Welfare of the Child A socio legal perspective by Thoko Kaime 2009 ISBN 978 0 9814420 4 4 Pages xii 247 Print version Available Electronic version Free PDF available Child Rights and Displacement in East Africa Cherie C. Enns,Willibard J. Kombe,2022-09-01 Focusing on the intersection of spatial justice child rights and planning policy this book investigates the challenges of resettlement in East Africa where half of those displaced are children The challenges created by displacement and resettlement are often considered from an adult centric perspective by planners and humanitarian and development experts The spatial injustice of displacement and resettlement the agency of children and the application of tools such as Child Participatory Vulnerability Index CPVI is siloed commonly overlooked or discounted This book uses a CPVI and rights based assessment of land use policies to investigate resettlement due to conflict and settlement in northern Uganda floods due to climate change in Dar es Salaam Tanzania and urban to rural migration of children due to the aids pandemic in Western Kenya Case studies from over a decade of field research are integrated with examples from applied planning projects and policy development in the East Africa region This book uses spatial justice theory to show how child friendly planning approaches can positively promote child rights in the context of resettlement Providing important insights on how to enact child friendly planning in informal settlements refugee camps and displacement camps this book will be of interest to planning and development professionals and researchers across the fields of children s rights Development Studies Planning and African Studies Africanising the Curriculum Vuyisile Msila,2016-03-01 The alienating nature of the dominant curriculum in African schools and universities is an issue which simmered just below the surface in the 2015 student protests that swept through the South African higher education sector The collection of essays found in this timely publication offers compelling arguments for the deliberate embrace of the African culture to advance African knowledge and enhance African lives It proposes fresh perspectives on what shape and form a decolonised curriculum should take on The Woman in Me Mama Sophia,2010 This book contains a two fold purpose it shares the experiences of an African woman who developed from powerlessness to great empowering heights and it also attempts to communicate to the world the experiences and stories of the many voiceless African women and their children The book is an introduction to a five year on going research on the African Women and Psychology of Oppression The contents are mostly stories beliefs and philosophies of African women They are true experiences Some of them are breathtaking some are heartbreaking Children's Rights in Africa Julia Sloth-Nielsen,2016-05-23 This collection is anchored in an African conception of children s rights and the law and reflects contemporary discourses taking place in the region of the children s rights sphere The majority of contributors are African and adopt an individual approach to their topic which reflects their first hand experience The book focuses on child rights issues which have particular resonance on the continent and the chapters span themes which are both broad and narrow containing subject matter which is both theoretical and illuminated by practice The book profiles recent developments and experiences in furthering children s legal rights in the African context and distils from these future trends the specific role that the law can play in the African children s rights environment The Smell of Exile Padmore Enyonam Agbemabiese,2008-01-10 The Smell of Exile is a collection of poems that speaks about complex and diverse human experiences They are simple stories about people their hopes dreams and their indomitable spirit that clings to something mystical as they struggle to survive in a foreign culture To the first time reader it outlines and examines the cultural and historical effects of human nature disconnection the severance of an African poet from his time honored customs and traditions of Africa and his being caught in the rituals of the new world But the feeling of separation from a birthplace is one of the largest and greatest universal sources of nostalgic feelings and of suffering of which Padmore Agbemabiese has been inspired to talk about in various styles and art forms Tales narrated by the poems are sensitive and capture the imagination in order to provide the reader with an escape or a journey into the realm of the mystical supernatural and esoteric world of that human tragedy loss of identity In the poem One Gentle Night Padmore Agbemabiese brings us this feeling of loss one gentle night I saw the moonlight coming out in the dark and remembered the
