Toward a Typology of European Languages Johannes Bechert, Giuliano Bernini, Claude Buridant, 2011-04-20 The series is a platform for contributions of all kinds to this rapidly developing field General problems are studied from the perspective of individual languages language families language groups or language samples Conclusions are the result of a deepened study of empirical data Special emphasis is given to little known languages whose analysis may shed new light on long standing problems in general linguistics

Beyond the Limits of Thought Graham Priest, 2002 Graham Priest presents an expanded edition of his exploration of the nature and limits of thought Embracing contradiction and challenging traditional logic he engages with issues across philosophical borders from the historical to the modern Eastern to Western continental to analytic

A History of Early Vedānta Philosophy Hajime Nakamura, 1983-01-01 The history of the Vedanta school is well known since the time of sankara but its prehistory before sankara is quite obscure However there is a period of a thousand years between the compilation of the major Upanisads of sankara without loss of the tradition of the upanisads there appeared many philosophers and dogmaticians although their thoughts are not clearly known In a history of early vedanta Philosophy the author made clear the details of the pre sankara vedanta philosophy utilizing not only sanskrit materials but also Pali prakrit as well as Tibetan and Chinese sources In this respect this epoch making work was awarded the imparial prize by the Japan Academy

Toward a Sociology of Education John Beck, Chris Jenks, Nell Keddie, Michael F. D. Young, 2020-03-10 By including material from literary philosophical and anthropological sources and by selecting readings which consider educational practice both within and beyond formal educational contexts this book broadens the character of sociological inquiry in education The editors bring together material they have found valuable when working with students of education and sociology at all levels Many of these articles and extracts are either inaccessible or have not been reprinted The collection should stimulate inquiry about the assumptions underlying current debates on curriculum streaming school organization methods of teaching and preconceived notions of ability

Production-oriented and Comprehension-based Grammar Teaching in the Foreign Language Classroom Anna Mystkowska-Wiertelak, Mirosław Pawlak, 2012-03-02 The book addresses one of the key controversies in teaching foreign language grammar which is the utility of production oriented instruction as exemplified in the PPP sequence and comprehension based teaching as implemented in interpretation tasks and processing instruction It provides a thorough overview of issues related to learning and teaching grammar with a particular focus on input oriented approaches and reports the findings of four studies which sought to compare their effects with instruction based on different forms of output practice The findings serve as a basis for guidelines on how the two options can be successfully combined in the classroom
