Titanic Light Paul De Mans Post Romanticism Texts And Contexts:

Titanic Light Ortwin de Graef, 1995-01-01 Titanic Light concentrates on de Man's increased interest during the 1960s in Romantic and post-Romantic literature and criticism. De Graef follows in detail de Man's strong readings of the works of Holderlin, Rousseau, and Wordsworth. He connects de Man's interpretations of these and other writers with his earlier critical works and his later deconstructive writings. In addition, de Graef places de Man's essays from the 1960s, some later collected in the influential volume Blindness and Insight, in the context of the critical debates of that era: debates about structuralism, Marxism, phenomenology, American New Criticism, and other critical schools. Between Redemption and Doom Noah

William Isenberg, 1999-01-01 Between Redemption and Doom is a revelatory exploration of the evolution of German Jewish modernism. Through an examination of selected works in literature, theory, and film, Noah Isenberg investigates the ways in which Jewish identity was represented in German culture from the eve of the First World War through the rise of National Socialism. He argues that various responses to modernity, particularly to its social, cultural, and aesthetic currents, converge around the discourse on community, its renaissance, its crisis, and its dissolution. Isenberg opens with a general discussion of German modernism, its primary forms, movements, and manifestations. Subsequent chapters on Franz Kafka and Arnold Zweig deal with particular instances of the modern and often ambivalent search for forms of German Jewish identity based on cultural and ethnic community. Discussions of Paul Wegener's film Der Golem and Walter Benjamin's childhood memoirs explore the culmination of German modernism and the modes through which Jews were identified in mass society. Throughout, Isenberg shows how Jewish authors and figures confronted the dilemma of self-understanding, the exigencies of community in the modern world, in language, culture, memory, and representation. Richard Wagner and the Anti-Semitic Imagination Marc A. Weiner, 1997-01-01 This book addresses one of the most hotly contested debates in contemporary cultural life: the question of how anti-Semitism figures in the operas of Richard Wagner. Until now, scholars have generally acknowledged Wagner's anti-Semitism but have argued that it is irrelevant to the operas themselves. Marc A. Weiner challenges that traditional view by asserting that anti-Semitism is a crucial, pervasive feature in Wagner's operas. Weiner argues that the operas exemplify and contribute to a vast collection of images that are patently anti-Semitic and that were readily recognized as such by nineteenth-century German audiences. These images were associated particularly with the body. Through a careful examination of Wagner's music, libretti, and stage directions, Weiner reconstructs iconographies of corporeal images, iconographies of the eye, voice, smell, gait, and sexuality that were essential to the operas and were associated with anti-Semitism and the longing for an imagined German community. Keepers of the Motherland Dagmar C.

G. Lorenz, 1997-01-01 Keepers of the Motherland is the first comprehensive study of German and Austrian Jewish women authors. Dagmar Lorenz begins with an examination of the Yiddish author Glikl Hamil, whose works date from the late seventeenth and early eighteenth centuries, and proceeds through such contemporary writers as Grete Weil, Katja Behrens, and Ruth Kl_ger Along the way she examines an extraordinary range of distinguished authors including Else Lasker Sch_ler Rosa Luxemburg Nelly Sachs and Gertrud Kolmar Although Lorenz highlights the author s individualities she unifies Keepers of the Motherland with sustained attention to the ways in which they all reflect upon their identities as Jews and women In this spirit Lorenz argues that the themes and characters as well as the environments evoked in the texts of Jewish women authors writing in German resist patriarchal structures The term motherland defining the domain of the Jewish woman s native language regardless of political or ethnic boundaries is juxtaposed with the concept fatherland referring to the power structures of the nation or state in which she resides Lorenz describes a vital diverse and largely dissident literary tradition a brilliant countertradition in effect that has endured in spite of oppression and genocide Combining careful research with inspired synthesis Lorenz provides an indispensable work for students of German Jewish and women s writings Poetic Process W.
