New Critical Essays on Toni Morrison's God Help the Child Alice Knox Eaton, Maxine Lavon Montgomery, Shirley A. Stave, 2020-07-23 Contributions by Alice Knox Eaton Mar Gallego Maxine Lavon Montgomery Evelyn Jaffe Schreiber Shirley A Stave Justine Tally Susana Vega Gonz lez and Anissa Wardi In her eleventh novel God Help the Child Toni Morrison returned to several of the signature themes explored in her previous work pernicious beauty standards for women particularly African American women mother child relationships racism and colorism and child sexual abuse God Help the Child published in 2015 is set in the contemporary period unlike all of her previous novels The contemporary setting is ultimately incidental to the project of the novel however as with Morrison's other work the story takes on mythic qualities and the larger than life themes lend themselves to allegorical and symbolic readings that resonate in light of both contemporary and historical issues New Critical Essays on Toni Morrison's God Help the Child Race Culture and History a collection of eight essays by both seasoned Morrison scholars as well as new and rising scholars takes on the novel in a nuanced and insightful analysis interpreting it in relation to Morrison's earlier work as well as locating it within ongoing debates in literary and other academic disciplines engaged with African American literature The volume is divided into three sections The first focuses on trauma both the pain and suffering caused by neglect and abuse as well as healing and understanding The second section considers narrative choices concentrating on experimentation and reader engagement The third section turns a comparative eye to Morrison's fictional canon from her debut work of fiction The Bluest Eye until the present These essays build on previous studies of Morrison's novels and deepen readers understanding of both her last novel and her larger literary output Supplementary Exercise Booklet Lex Runciman, Andrea A. Lunsford, Carolyn Lengel, Kate Silver, 2009-02-06 This ancillary exercise booklet contains unique exercise sets not found anywhere else to give you more practice with the writing and editing topics essential for your composition class Instructors With a Bedford Instructor Account you can download the answer key for this booklet here Spectrality in the Novels of Toni Morrison Melanie R. Anderson, 2013-03-30 At first glance Beloved would appear to be the only ghost story among Toni Morrison's nine novels but as this provocative new study shows spectral presences and places abound in the celebrated author's fiction Melanie R Anderson explores how Morrison uses specters to bring the traumas of African American life to the forefront highlighting histories and experiences both cultural and personal that society at large too frequently ignores Working against the background of magical realism while simultaneously expanding notions of the supernatural within American and African American writing Morrison peoples her novels with what Anderson identifies as two distinctive types of ghosts spectral figures and social ghosts Deconstructing Western binaries Morrison uses the spectral to indicate power through its transcendence of corporality temporality and explication and she employs the ghostly as a metaphor of erasure for living characters who are marginalized and haunt the edges of their communities The interaction of these social ghosts with the

spectral presences functions as a transformative healing process that draws the marginalized figure out of the shadows and creates links across ruptures between generations and between past and present life and death This book examines how these relationships become increasingly more prominent in the novelist's canon from their beginnings in The Bluest Eye and Sula to their flowering in the trilogy that comprises Beloved Jazz and Paradise and onward into A Mercy An important contribution to the understanding of one of America's premier fiction writers Spectrality in the Novels of Toni Morrison demonstrates how the Nobel laureate's powerful and challenging works give presence to the invisible voice to the previously silenced and agency to the oppressed outsiders who are refused a space in which to narrate their stories Melanie R Anderson is an Instructional Assistant Professor of American Literature at the University of Mississippi Toni Morrison Adrienne Lanier Seward, Justine Tally, 2014-08-12 Toni Morrison Memory and Meaning boasts essays by well known international scholars focusing on the author's literary production and including her very latest works the theatrical production Desdemona and her tenth and latest novel Home These original contributions are among the first scholarly analyses of these latest additions to her oeuvre and make the volume a valuable addition to potential readers and teachers eager to understand the position of Desdemona and Home within the wider scope of Morrison's career Indeed in Home we find a reworking of many of the tropes and themes that run throughout Morrison's fiction prompting the editors to organize the essays as they relate to themes prevalent in Home In many ways Morrison has actually initiated paradigm shifts that permeate the essays They consistently reflect in approach and interpretation the revolutionary change in the study of American literature represented by Morrison's focus on the interior lives of enslaved Africans This collection assumes black subjectivity rather than argues for it in order to reread and revise the horror of slavery and its consequences into our time The analyses presented in this volume also attest to the broad range of interdisciplinary specializations and interests in novels that have now become classics in world literature The essays are divided into five sections each entitled with a direct quotation from Home and framed by two poems Rita Dove's The Buckeye and Sonia Sanchez's Aaayeee Babo Aaayeee Babo Aaayeee Babo

Food and Culture in Contemporary American Fiction Lorna Piatti-Farnell, 2011-07-13 Establishing an interdisciplinary connection between Food Studies and American literary scholarship Piatti Farnell investigates the significances of food and eating in American fiction from 1980 to the present day She argues that culturally coded representations of the culinary illuminate contemporary American anxieties about class gender race tradition immigration nationhood and history As she offers a critical analysis of major works of contemporary fiction Piatti Farnell unveils contrasting modes of culinary nostalgia disillusionment and progress that pervasively address the cultural disintegration of local and familiar culinary values in favor of globalized economies of consumption In identifying different incarnations of the American culinary Piatti Farnell covers the depiction of food in specific categories of American fiction and explores how the cultural separation that molds food preferences inevitably challenges the existence of a homogenous American identity The study treads on new grounds since it not only provides the first comprehensive study of food and consumption in contemporary American fiction but also aims to expose interrelated politics of consumption in a variety of authors from different ethnic cultural racial and social backgrounds within the United States
