A Tribute To My Dad

Who is that man with the gentle face,
Who in his youth kept a hectic pace,
To provide for his family, all that he could,
Who is that man so giving and good?

Who is that man with the ready smile,
Who always took time to sit for a while?
He was there when his family needed him there.
Who is that man with the gray in his hair?

Who is that man who encouraged us all,
And helped us up when we took a fall,
Spending a lifetime extending his hand,
Who is that kind, compassionate man?

Who is that man who we all adore,
The man who these words of devotion are for?
I'll tell you with all of the love that I can,
My Dad is that truly exceptional man!

Stories of Life in the Workplace Larry Browning, George H. Morris, 2012-04-27 Addressing both renowned theories and standard applications Stories of Life in the Workplace explains how stories affect human practices and organizational life Authors Larry Browning and George H Morris explore how we experience interpret and personalize narrative stories in our everyday lives and how these communicative acts impact our social aims and interactions In pushing the boundaries of how we perceive narrative and organization the authors include stories that are broadly applicable across all concepts and experiences With a perception of narrative and its organizational application chapters focus on areas such as pedagogy therapy project management strategic planning public communication and organizational culture Readers will learn to differentiate and gain an in depth understanding of perspectives from varying narrators recognize how stories are constructed and used in organizations and modify the stories they tell view stories as a means to promote an open exchange of creativity By integrating a range of theories and practices Browning and Morris write for an audience of narrative novices and scholars alike With a distinctive approach and original insight Stories of Life in the Workplace shows how individuality developing culture and the psychology of the self are constructed with language and how the acceptance of one s self is accomplished by reaffirming and rearranging one s story

Living for Leadership Frank C. Etsell, 2012-07 My parents Pastors Wilson and Bessie Etsell faced many obstacles during the early years of their ministry They began their ministry in a small community in August 1934 One cold morning in October of that year they found themselves sitting on a small trunk by the side of the road They had no money and no place to live Everything they owned was in that trunk By faith they overcame and because of their dedication and determination they developed many leadership qualities which guided them throughout their lives This is an account of their early years in ministry and some of the leadership qualities that contributed to almost fifty years of full time ministry throughout Newfoundland One of the greatest challenges that Mom and Dad ever faced came in 1950 when I was thirteen years of age and medical doctors at the General Hospital in St John s Newfoundland told them that there was no hope or cure for my condition and that I would only live for a few weeks

e-Jeanne: 2004 (Part Two: July through December) Jeanne Halsey, 2013-02-19 e Jeanne was a precursor of currently popular blogs although we called her an e zine She was assembled early in the morning right after my morning devotions in fact I realize that many of my morning devotions somehow crept into the e Editorials and then forwarded by e mail to over 300 people all around the world I did this two or three days a week for 10 years Like I said maybe I am a little crazy 2004 was a lengthy year filled with commentary about the impending American Presidential Election yes George W Bush won again fluctuating health issues and much sharing of prayer requests and praise reports among the faithful and beloved Readers 2004 was so long that I had to split it into two books this is Part Two covering July through December Like its sister books e Jeanne 2004 Part Two comes out looking like a fair sized phone book you ll need strong arms and strong hands to hold it while reading and I strongly
