Identity, Community, and Sexuality in Slash Fan Fiction Anne Kustritz, 2023-11-24 This book explores slash fan fiction communities during the pivotal years of the late 1990s and early 2000s as the practice transitioned from print to digital circulation. Delving into over ten years of online and in-person ethnography, the book offers an in-depth examination of slash fan fiction, original stories written by and circulated within female-centered communities about same-sex characters borrowed from previously published sources to document the history of a feminist queer media subculture whose infrastructure, creativity, and ways of life are often obscured in dominant histories of the internet's development and by the contemporary focus on industry-friendly but often misogynist digital fan subcultures. Arguing that online slash communities created an alternate public space that provided opportunities for unanticipated encounters with a wide range of complex sexual, relational, and political practices, the book contends that slash thereby added to readers' tools for experiencing and thinking about pleasure and ways of living by forming a pocket public that is a digital space public enough to be found and protected enough to shield participants from harassment and censorship. This insightful and comprehensive study will interest students and scholars working in the areas of media studies, literary studies, anthropology, new media, audience communities, convergence culture, fan studies, women's studies, and queer studies. Seeking the Divine Spark Gerard Charles Wilson, 2011-12 Paul Martin is not sure what he is, where he is going, and who he is going with until he meets Persephone Stickx, with whom he falls in love. Super-confident modern Persephone is determined to lead Paul to inner enlightenment through the divine feminine. Paul meets Persephone when friend, property dealer Brad, brings Persephone and her partner Hayden to Paul's house in the pristine hinterland, a haven for environmentalists and counterculture enthusiasts. Persephone and Hayden show a keen interest in an old religious picture Paul bought at the local market. They say the picture represents bondage for Paul. They want to help Paul break that bondage. Their enthusiasm to help intensifies when they learn Paul knows Fr. Robbie Pleasance, who is before the
