Outlook Alfred Emanuel Smith, Francis Walton, 1879 Defend the Valley Margaretta Barton Colt, 1999 The author brings to life the courage recklessness heartbreak and deprivation of the Shenandoah Valley Campaign and the battles to the east of the Blue Ridge The Commercial Appeal 60 photos Whig's Progress J. Kent Clark, 2004 Considered simply as a story the narrative has intrinsic drama with a complex protagonist a vivid cast of historical characters and enough conflict including family conflicts for several novels The cast is headed by the redoubtable Wharton clan and by the party leaders royal and non royal who dominated the period The characters are usually vivid often confused sometimes psychotic and in the Restoration era seldom pure History is sometimes indistinguishable from gossip some of it supplied by the Whartons Political drama often becomes social drama Lizzie Adriance Margaret Lee, 1881 Sleeping With the Lights On Darryl Jones, 2018-10-04 Four o'clock in the morning and the lights are on and still there's no way we're going to sleep not after the film we just saw The book we just read Fear is one of the most primal human emotions and one of the hardest to reason with and dispel So why do we scare ourselves It seems almost mad that we would frighten ourselves for fun and yet there are thousands of books films games and other forms of entertainment designed to do exactly that As Darryl Jones shows the horror genre is huge Ranging from vampires ghosts and werewolves to mad scientists Satanists and deranged serial killers the cathartic release of scaring ourselves has made its appearance in everything from Shakespearean tragedies to internet memes Exploring the key tropes of the genre including its monsters its psychological chills and its love affair with the macabre Darryl Jones discusses why horror stories disturb us and how society responds to literary and film representations of the gruesome and taboo Should the enjoyment of horror be regarded with suspicion Are there different levels of the horrific and should we distinguish between the commonly reviled carnage of contemporary torture porn and the culturally acceptable bloodbaths of ancient Greek tragedies Analysing the way in which horror manifests multiple personalities and has been used throughout history to articulate the fears and taboos of the current generation Jones considers the continuing evolution of the genre today As horror is mass marketed to mainstream society in the form of romantic vampires and blockbuster hits it also continues to maintain its former shadowy presence on the edges of respectability as banned films and violent internet phenomena push us to question both our own preconceptions and the terrifying capacity of human nature Stuart's Tarheels Chris J. Hartley, 2011-08-10 When Confederate Major General J E B Stuart said North Carolina has done nobly in this army he had one of his own men to thank Brigadier General James Byron Gordon A protege of Stuart Gordon was the consummate nineteenth century landowner politician and businessman Despite a lack of military training he rose rapidly through the ranks and as the commander of all North Carolina cavalrymen in the Army of Northern Virginia he helped bring unparalleled success to Stuart's famed Confederate cavalry This updated biography originally published in 1996 chronicles Gordon's early life and military career and through his men takes a fresh look at the vaunted Army of Northern Virginia its battles controversies and troops This second edition includes additional source material that has come to light and a roster of Gordon's 1st North Carolina Cavalry
