Topaz Moon Chiura Obata's Art Of The Internment:

Chiura Obata's Topaz Moon Chiura Obata, 2000 Presents the artist's sketches, sumi paintings and watercolors depicting the austerity, hardship, hope and beauty he discovered in the internment camp and includes a collection of his interviews and correspondence Topaz Moon: Chiura Obata's Art of the Internment, 2000 The Sculpture of Ruth Asawa, Second Edition Timothy Anglin, Burgard, Daniell Cornell, 2020-07-14 An expanded edition of the definitive book on Ruth Asawa's fascinating life and her lasting contributions to American art. The work of American artist Ruth Asawa, 1926-2013, is brought into brilliant focus in this definitive book originally published to accompany the first complete retrospective of Asawa's career organized by the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco in 2006. This new edition features an expanded collection of essays and a detailed illustrated chronology that explore Asawa's fascinating life and her lasting contributions to American art. Beginning with her earliest works, drawings and paintings created in the 1940s while she was studying at Black Mountain College, this beautiful volume traces Asawa's flourishing career in San Francisco and her trajectory as a pioneering modernist sculptor who is recognized internationally for her innovative wire sculptures, public commissions and activism on behalf of public arts education. Through her lifelong experimentations with wire, especially its capacity to balance open and closed forms, Asawa invented a powerful vocabulary that contributed a unique perspective to the field of twentieth-century abstract sculpture. Working in a variety of nontraditional media, Asawa performed a series of remarkable metamorphoses leading viewers into a deeper awareness of natural forms by revealing their structural properties. Through her art, Asawa transfigured the commonplace into metaphors for life processes themselves. The Sculpture of Ruth Asawa establishes the importance of Asawa's work within a larger cultural context of artists who redefined art as a way of thinking and acting in the world rather than as merely a stylistic practice. This updated edition includes a new introduction and more than fifty new images as well as original essays that reflect on the impact of American political history on Asawa's artistic vision, her experience with printmaking and her friendship with photographer Imogen Cunningham. Contributors include Susan Ehrens, Mary Emma Harris, Karin Higa, Jacqueline Hoefer, Emily K. Doman, Jennings, Paul J. Karlstrom, John Kreidler, Susan Stauter, Colleen Terry and Sally B. Woodbridge. Published in association with the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco, FAMSF.

Japanese American Internment during World War II Wendy Ng, 2001-12-30 The internment of thousands of Japanese Americans during World War II is one of the most shameful episodes in American history. This history and reference guide will help students and other interested readers to understand the history of this action and its reinterpretation in recent years, but it will also help readers to understand the Japanese American wartime experience through the words of those who were interned. Why did the U.S. government take this extraordinary action? How was the evacuation and resettlement handled? How did Japanese Americans feel on being asked to leave their homes and live in what amounted to concentration camps? How did they respond and did they resist? What developments have taken place in the last twenty years that have reevaluated this wartime action A variety of materials is provided to assist readers in understanding the internment experience Six interpretive essays examine key aspects of the event and provide new interpretations based on the most recent scholarship Essays include A short narrative history of the Japanese in America before World War II The evacuation Life within barbed wire the assembly and relocation centers The question of loyalty Japanese Americans in the military and draft resisters Legal challenges to the evacuation and internment After the war resettlement and redress A chronology of events 26 biographical profiles of important figures the text of 10 key primary documents from Executive Order 9066 which authorized the internment camps to first person accounts of the internment experience a glossary of terms and an annotative bibliography of recommended print sources and web sites provide ready reference value Every library should update its resources on World War II with this history and reference guide

Before Internment Yuji Ichioka, Gordon H. Chang, Eiichiro Azuma, 2006 This book is an anthology of essays by Yuji Ichioka the foremost authority on Japanese American history which studies Japanese American life and politics in the interwar years

Artifacts of Loss Jane Elizabeth Dusselier, 2008 From 1942 to 1946 as America prepared for war 120 000 people of Japanese descent were forcibly interned in harsh desert camps across the American west In Artifacts of Loss Jane E Dusselier looks at the lives of these internees through the lens of their art These camp made creations included flowers made with tissue paper and shells wood carvings of pets left behind furniture made from discarded apple crates gardens grown next to their housing anything to help alleviate the visual deprivation and isolation caused by their circumstances Their crafts were also central in sustaining re forming and inspiring new relationships Creating exhibiting consuming living with and thinking about art became embedded in the everyday patterns of camp life and helped provide internees with sustenance for mental emotional and psychic survival Dusselier urges her readers to consider these often overlooked folk crafts as meaningful political statements which are significant as material forms of protest and as representations of loss She concludes briefly with a discussion of other displaced people around the globe today and the ways in which personal and group identity is reflected in similar creative ways
