Sinclair,2021-11-09 May Sinclair was the pseudonym of Mary Amelia St Clair 24 August 1863 14 November 1946 a popular British writer who wrote about two dozen novels short stories and poetry She was an active suffragist and member of the Woman Writers Suffrage League She once dressed up as a demure rebel Jane Austen for a suffrage fundraising event Sinclair was also a significant critic in the area of modernist poetry and prose and she is attributed with first using the term stream of consciousness in a literary context when reviewing the first volumes of Dorothy Richardson s novel sequence Pilgrimage 1915 1967 in The Egoist April 1918 Women's Identities at War Susan R. Grayzel,2014-03-19 There are few moments in history when the division between the sexes seems as natural as during wartime men go off to the war front while women stay behind on the home front But the very notion of the home front was an invention of the First World War when for the first time home and domestic became adjectives that modified the military term front Such an innovation acknowledged the significant and presumably new contributions of civilians especially women to the war effort Yet as Susan Grayzel argues throughout the war traditional notions of masculinity and femininity survived primarily through the maintenance of and indeed reemphasis on soldiering and mothering as the core of gender and national identities Drawing on sources that range from popular fiction and war memorials to newspapers and legislative debates Grayzel analyzes the effects of World War I on ideas about civic participation national service morality sexuality and identity in wartime Britain and France Despite the appearance of enormous challenges to gender roles due to the upheavals of war the forces of stability prevailed she says demonstrating the Western European gender system s remarkable resilience The Tree of Heaven May

Sinclair,2017-12-28 The Tree of Heaven draws upon Sinclair s experiences in the First World War Concerned with the Harrisoon family it follows the three children Michael Nicky and Dorothy as they grow up in the 1900s and face the war as young adults Dorothy hosts a sufragette meeting that lands her in jail then trains with the Red Cross and joins an ambulance unit in Belgium Michael is a poet involved with avant garde artists embracing pacifism and resisting family pressure to join up Nicky is an engineer who enlists early and invents an early prototype of the tank The novel examines the ideals of the suffrage movement the spiritual uplift of the war and the personal cost both could extract from those involved The Second Battlefield Angela K. Smith, 2000 This book investigates the connection between women's writing about WWI and the development of literary modernisms focusing on issues of gender which remain topical today Drawing on a wealth of unpublished diaries and letters the book examines the way in which the new roles undertaken by women triggered a search for new forms of expression Blending literary criticism and history the book contributes to the scholarship of women and expands our definition of modernisms The Persistence of the Soul in Literature, Art and Politics Delphine

Louis-Dimitrov, Estelle Murail, 2023-12-28 This book analyses the evolution of literary and artistic representations of the soul exploring its development through different time periods The volume combines literary aesthetic ethical and political considerations of the soul in texts and works of art from the seventeenth to the twenty first centuries spanning cultures and schools of thought Drawing on philosophical religious and psychological theories of the soul it emphasizes the far reaching and enduring epistemological function of the concept in literature art and politics The authors argue that the concept of the soul has shaped the understanding of human life and persistently irrigated cultural productions They show how the concept of soul was explored and redefined by writers and artists remaining relevant even as it became removed from its ancient or Christian origins The Canadian Magazine of Politics, Science, Art & Literature, 1917 The Canadian Magazine, 1918

Fighting Forces, Writing Women Sharon Ouditt, 2020-09-23 In a period of high idealism and titanic illimitable death women often found themselves longing to play an active role alongside their male compatriots In this fascinating work Sharon Ouditt examines the traumatic nature of women's experiences during the Great War and the complex ideological structures they constructed in order to legitimate their position in the public world of work and politics Using a wealth of historical material contemporary propaganda journals magazines memoirs and fiction Sharon Ouditt challenges the notion that women achieved sudden and unproblematic independence and demonstrates the ways in which women mediated their attraction to a fixed female identity with their desire for radical social change Fighting Forces Sharon Ouditt, 2003-09-02 First published in 1993 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Women's Writing of the First World War Angela K. Smith, 2000 A fully rounded anthology of women's writing from World War One containing the known and unknown biographers and fiction writers of the period Explores the impact of the war on ideology gender genre and society and is a perfect complimentary text to Trudi Tate's Women Men and the Great War Aims to re read the First World War as a female experience by drawing on the public and private sources of a wide range of different women Uses diaries letters articles and essays many of which have not been published Invaluable source document for scholars in many disciplines The New Republic Herbert David Croly, 1918 The Book News Monthly, 1918 The Literature of the Great War Reconsidered P. Quinn, S. Trout, 2001-06-17 This definitive volume will profoundly alter our understanding of the literature of the Great War New critical approaches have over the last two decades redefined the term war literature and its cultural legacy Consisting in equal measure of essays by male and female scholars from several different countries and devoted to both familiar and lesser known works this book presents the many faces of Great War literary study at the millennium
