

I ONCE LOVED A BEECH TREE

I once loved a beech tree,
She was growing tall and strong,
Been there years and years, they said,
Godtime knows how long.

All the birds, they loved her too,
Pigeon and owl and jay
They piped and chirped, crooned and sang,
Perched there, night and day.

Through winter winds she waited
For spring to turn her green,
Then dressed in all her glory,
She became my flower queen.

Badgers played around her trunk
And dug their deep-down sets,
Lived there in amongst her roots,
Warm and snug, out of the wet.

Often I came wandering by,
Scuffling through her leaves and her moss,
Walking my way in my willies,
Touching her bark as I passed.

I was sure she'd last for ever,
She'd weathered every gale,
Too tall, I thought, too strong to fall.
Always still there to tell the tale.

An April storm was blowing in,
She waved and moaned and groaned,
A full-blown sail above me,
Below the blackbirds groaning.

It rained so hard it hurt my face,
I sheltered a while, then walked on by.
The last time I saw her, touched her,
I should have waved a silent goodbye.

Next morning I found her lying there,
The sudden of all my days.
My giant, my friend, uprooted.
I knew what I must say.

"I'll make you a promise, and it will come true,
My children will see you rise and grow.
I'll plant you again. I will, I will.
Again you will see a sunset glow."

Another beech tree stands there now,
Growing as tall and as strong,
Promises made and promises kept.
Oh, may you please live long.

My children waddle through your leaves,
We put your bark as we pass you by.
They have their own tree now to love,
And we always wave you a silent goodbye.

My Heart Was a Tree Michael Morpurgo, 2023-06-01 Discover the beauty and wonder of trees in this stunningly illustrated collection of poetry and stories celebrating trees and what they mean to the world around us. Inspired by the woods around his home, the mighty forests that support our life on Earth, and the Ted Hughes poem which gives this book its title, My Heart Was a Tree is a celebration and Sir Michael Morpurgo's love letter to trees. There are stories from an ancient olive remembering Odysseus and Penelope, and from a eucalyptus that gave shelter to a koala, from a piece of driftwood that was made into a chair, and from a tiny sapling carried by a refugee as a reminder of home. These are poems and stories that will amuse, move, and energise families and readers of all ages to appreciate the beauty and wonder of trees. We clean the air and seed the clouds, we drench the thirsty land with rain. We are like wizards. The story of a tree is a story of community, communication, and cooperation. Although trees may seem like silent, independent organisms, they form a network buzzing with life; they talk, share food, raise their young, and offer protection. Trees thrive on diversity, learn from their ancestors, and give back to their communities. Trees not only sustain life on our planet; they can also teach us important lessons about patience, survival, and teamwork.
