influence externally not so wide spread as that of his instructor was more radical in its effect on theological opinion He was a most inspiring teacher As a metaphysician Dr Taylor ranks higher than any other leader of the New England school after the elder Edwards With an acuteness and vigor which commanded universal respect he combined an eloquence rarely to be met with either in the lecture room or the pulpit At his side stood his colleagues Dr Eleazer T Fitch likewise a master in the field of metaphysical theology and in his prime a profound as well as attractive preacher the successor of President Dwight in the College pulpit and Dr Chauncey A Goodrich who for a good while was the chief conductor of the Christian Spectator the review in which many of the expositions of the New Haven Divinity as it was then called were given to the public Associated in the Faculty with the trio just named in his distinctive traits a complement to them was a scholar and a ripe and good one Josiah W Gibbs cautious and
