Voices From The Luftwaffe Hitlers War Machine:

Voices from the Luftwaffe Bob Carruthers, 2013-01-07 This WWII oral history tells the story of the Luftwaffe through the eyes of those who served in combat illustrated with wartime propaganda Drawing on extensive interviews with Luftwaffe Emmy Award winning historian Bob Carruthers traces its rise from the ashes of the Great War to its fearsome height and ultimate downfall Here are the personal memories and perspectives of young volunteers seeking adventure who would soon face the grim realities of their service Here too is the propaganda machine that glorified the Nazi cause and perpetuated the charade that this was a civilian undertaking With vivid detail and revealing candor readers experience how the stunning successes of the Blitzkrieg era are quickly overshadowed by the grim experiences of the Battle of Britain and the life or death fight for the skies over Germany The book is illustrated throughout with extensive selections from Der Adler the wartime Luftwaffe propaganda magazine

The Death of Hitler's War Machine Samuel W. Mitcham, 2021-02-02 It was the endgame for Hitler's Reich In the winter of 1944-45 Germany staked everything on its surprise campaign in the Ardennes the Battle of the Bulge But when American and Allied forces recovered from their initial shock the German forces were left fighting for their very survival especially on the Eastern Front where the Soviet army was intent on matching or even surpassing Nazi atrocities At the mercy of the Fuehrer who refused to acknowledge reality and forbade German retreats the Wehrmacht was slowly annihilated in horrific battles that have rarely been adequately covered in histories of the Second World War especially the brutal Soviet siege of Budapest which became known as the Stalingrad of the Waffen SS Capping a career that has produced more than forty books Dr Samuel W Mitcham now tells the extraordinary tale of how Hitler's once dreaded war machine came to a cataclysmic end from the Battle of the Bulge in December 1944 to the German surrender in May 1945 Making use of German wartime papers and memoirs some rarely seen in English language sources Mitcham's sweeping narrative deserves a place on the shelf of every student of World War II

Servants of Evil: Voices from Hitler's Army, History is always written by the victors this is the other side of the coin This is the front line perspective on World War II as seen through the eyes of the losing side the men who fought for Hitler These are the recollections of the men of the Kriegsmarine the Luftwaffe and the Heer Altogether they formed the Wehrmacht which in 1940 was the most efficient fighting force the world had ever seen By 1942 the tide had begun to turn and the men of the once mighty Wehrmacht fought in vain at Stalingrad El Alamein Monte Cassino Caen and Berlin These are the U boat men the Panzer crews and the air aces This is military history at its best and most enlightening as told from primary sources Written by Emmy award winning author Bob Carruthers this unique publication documents the primary accounts of many of those who fought in Hitler's army

Luftwaffe Combat Reports Bob Carruthers, 2012-03 My Luftwaffe is invincible And so now we turn to England How long will this one last two three weeks Hermann Goering June 1940 These detailed accounts of Luftwaffe combat operations are taken from the extensive series of interviews conducted with higher echelons of the German Fighter Force by the USAAF

very shortly after the end of the Second World War The new generation of German fighters such as the Me 262 was at the forefront of the agenda and the USAAF were particularly keen to learn as much as they could about these machines and their successes and failures These fascinating insights cover the experience of the Luftwaffe during the whole war and are drawn from the interviews conducted by those who managed to excel despite all that was thrown at them Heinz Bar an ace with 240 victories to his credit Walter Dahl an anti bomber specialist Hitsch Hitschhold who undertook many high risk operations with his Stukas and FW 190 s and Adolf Galland last commander of the Luftwaffe and author of the classic memoir The First and the Last The frustrations which the pilots of the Luftwaffe encountered in their own aircraft is well voiced within these pages as is the tenuous relationship between the fighter and bomber wings of the Luftwaffe Political interference the bane of the Wehrmacht also raised its head within the Luftwaffe and the consequences of intermeddling by Hitler and others in the Nazi machine are expressed in the interviews These absorbing primary source accounts of aerial combat at the tactical operational and strategic level provide a unique window on the Luftwaffe at war

Hitler's Irish Voices David O'Donoghue, 1998 Tells for the first time the history of German Radio s wartime Irish service from 1939 1945 As well as describing in details the radio station s on air operations from Nazi Germany it also provides in depth profiles of those involved and the service and what became of them after the war It reveals details long forgotten in both Ireland and Germany for example the involvement a permanent member of the Irish civil Service who ran the service whilst on leave of absence from the National Museum of Dublin
