Smart Tests Catherine M. Walker, Edgar Schmidt, Kat Mototsune, 2004 High stakes accountability and the growing move towards standardized testing are placing teacher knowledge and assessment skills under ever increasing scrutiny Teachers know what is going on in their classrooms and have first hand reliable evidence of what their students can accomplish They can be the major factor in student assessment and help their students better demonstrate what they have learned Smart Tests shows educators how to create well structured evaluation tools that match assessment tasks to the purpose and content of instruction Teachers learn how to relate testing directly to classroom goals and activities and make assessment an integral part of learning and teaching not just the end result They will find the information they need to build assessment tasks that give students in grades K 8 the opportunity to succeed These tasks encourage students to apply new knowledge reflect and defend their thoughts and opinions and connect what they learn the world beyond the classroom

From Grade Books to Graphic Organizers David A. Dockterman, 2003 A practical guide to how computers can help teachers inside and outside the classroom

Hollywood or History? Sarah J. Kaka, 2022-01-01

The rationale for the present text Hollywood or History An Inquiry Based Strategy for Using Film to Teach About Inequality and Inequity Throughout History stems from two main things First and foremost is the fact that the reviews of the first two volumes in the Hollywood or History series have been overwhelmingly positive especially as it pertains to the application of the strategy for practitioners Classroom utility and teacher practice have continued to be the primary objectives in developing the Hollywood or History strategy The second thing is that this most recent volume in the series takes it in a new direction rather than focusing on eras in history it focuses on the themes of inequity and inequality throughout history and how teachers can utilize the Hollywood or History strategy to tackle some of the more complicated content throughout history that many teachers tend to shy away from There is a firm belief that students connection to film along with teachers ability to use film in an effective manner will help alleviate some of the challenges of teaching challenging topics such as inequity and inequality in terms of gender race socioeconomic status and so much more The book provides 30 secondary lesson plans grades 6 12 that address nine different topics centered around inequity and inequality throughout history many of which connect students to the world we are living in today The intended audience for the book are teachers who teach social studies at the 6th 12th grade level both in the United States and other countries An additional audience will be college and university social studies history methods professors in the United States and worldwide

Connected Viewing Jennifer Holt, Kevin Sanson, 2013-12-04 As patterns of media use become more integrated with mobile technologies and multiple screens a new mode of viewer engagement has emerged in the form of connected viewing which allows for an array of new relationships between audiences and media texts in the digital space This exciting new collection brings together twelve original essays that critically engage with the socially networked multi platform and cloud based world of today examining the connected viewing phenomenon across television film video games and social media The result is a wide ranging analysis of shifting business models policy matters technological infrastructure new forms of user engagement and other key trends affecting screen media in the digital era Connected Viewing contextualizes the dramatic transformations taking place across both media industries and national contexts and offers students and scholars alike a diverse set of methods and perspectives for studying this critical moment in media culture

Creative SEL Michele Haiken, Mark Gura, 2023 This collection of creative lessons offers ideas for integrating design thinking literacy and STEAM to drive SEL skills including self awareness self management mindfulness responsible decision making and social awareness Research shows that creativity can be beneficial for mental health and can help build critical skills such as empathy and introspection while social emotional learning SEL is an integral part of education and human development This book bridges these two ideas with a series of creative projects that foster SEL learning by promoting growth mindset supporting mindfulness offering ways to cope with anxiety and stress and encouraging and guiding positive social activism Opening with an overview of research behind the integration of SEL and creativity the book then features a variety of lessons based on the above themes illustrating how to deepen SEL by integrating the arts and STEAM learning in creative and authentic ways The activities are drawn from the work of the authors and a diverse group of educator contributors to provide engaging insightful and culturally responsive learning opportunities appropriate for traditional or online blended learning environments The book Highlights a diverse array of educators innovators and design thinkers who share their insights on SEL STEAM and creativity Offers an accessible and fun approach to teaching SEL which is critical to education and human development Guides teachers in implementing the following ISTE Standards for Students Creative Communicator Innovative Designer and Knowledge Constructor This book invites teachers to consider a variety of formats print and digital audio video games and more and shows how helping students become creators and design thinkers can foster SEL Audience K 12 educators
