Sims, 2011-01-01 Writing across theological disciplines nine African American women scholars reflect on what it means to live as responsible doers of justice With some classic essays and some contributions published here for the first time each chapter in this new volume in the Library of Theological Ethics series presents analytical strategies for understanding the story of womanist scholarship in the service of the black community The Library of Theological Ethics series focuses on what it means to think theologically and ethically It presents a selection of important and otherwise unavailable texts in easily accessible form Volumes in this series will enable sustained dialogue with predecessors though reflection on classic works in the field African American Theological Ethics Peter J. Paris, Julius Crump, 2015-12-18 This volume in the Library of Theological Ethics series draws on writings from the early nineteenth through the late twentieth centuries to explore the intersection of black experience and Christian faith throughout the history of the United States The first sections follow the many dimensions of the African American struggle with racism in this country struggles against theories of white supremacy against chattel slavery and against racial segregation and discrimination The latter sections turn to the black Christian vision of human flourishing drawing on perspectives from the arts religion philosophy ethics and theology It introduces students to major voices from African American Christianity including Frederick Douglass Richard Allen W E B DuBois Marcus Garvey Martin Luther King Jr Bayard Rustin Barbara Jordan James H Cone and Jacqueline Grant This is the essential resource for anyone who wishes to understand the role that Christian faith has played in the African American struggle for a more just society Gospel of the Absurd Robert Scot Miller, 2017-08-02 Gospel of the Absurd is a project that originates in the anarchic experiences of a crack cocaine addict who was knocked off his high horse by an experience of Jesus Having spent years as an enemy of the faith R Scot Miller came back to faith with the passion of a new convert infused with a subversive s heart for turning the world upside down In the process of stumbling every bit as much as he learned to walk in the light Miller begins to understand that the subversive claims of the gospel of Jesus as the Christ are not only the most meaningful response to the absurdity of the world but that such absurdity demands a community of action that makes the subversive Christ the credible response to a culture and Christendom run amok with power and greed Gospel of the Absurd is about an ethic informed by an absurd claim that being the claim that voluntary sacrifice of privilege is the proper response to human brokenness and the systems of domination that have lured the church into apostasy Miller then explores whether the church by prioritizing care ethics over legislative or coercive justice is the salvific experience Jesus is calling us to engage in In Face of Reality Thomas A. James, 2011-04-01 This study of the work of noted liberal theologian Gordon Kaufman tracks his career from his first published book Relativism Knowledge and Faith 1960 through his 2006 book Jesus and Creativity in light of recent conversations about divine action and modern scientific knowledge James interprets Kaufman's mature position as a sophisticated reconstruction of divine activity that makes use of recent scientific theory and its naturalistic assumptions in order to revitalize a theocentric frame of reference rooted in classical theological tradition Though there are costs to be paid in the construction of a theology of radical naturalism particularly with respect to the relation between divine action and the human good Kaufman's program offers a distinctive way forward After developing a critical analysis of the limitations and possibilities of Kaufman's mature position James suggests that a christological reconsideration of the meaning of human flourishing offers the prospect of an even more radically naturalistic and theocentric theology The Encyclopedia of the Cold War Spencer C.
