Transcultural Realities Interdisciplinary Perspectives On Crosscultural Relations:

Transcultural Realities Virginia H. Milhouse, Molefi Kete Asante, Peter O. Nwosu, 2001-07-24 This text challenges the quantitative social science perspective on intercultural communication by examining critical issues from diverse perspectives. Key topics include historical and religious perspectives, racial and ethnic issues, cross-cultural adaptation, and methods of researching other cultures. The book takes a more critical cultural worldview of intercultural communication, including some of the major thinkers of the contemporary times, including Molefi Kete Asante, Ama Mazama, Anthony Monteiro, and Ali Mazrui. It is constructed so that professors and students of any cultural group might use it. Transcultural Realities Virginia H. Milhouse, Molefi Kete Asante, Peter O. Nwosu, 2001-07-24 Transcultural Realities is an important collection of essays written by an outstanding cast of critical scholars who discuss the importance of transculture in interdisciplinary contexts. The primary goal of the contributors is to help the reader to understand that a state of community or harmony cannot be achieved in the world until we are all ready to accept different cultural forms, norms, and orientations. In this book, transculture is defined as a form of culture created not from within separate spheres but in the holistic forms of diverse cultures. It is based on the principle that a single culture in and of itself is incomplete and requires interaction and dialogue with other cultures. Transcultural Realities is divided into five parts: Transcultural issues in international and cross-cultural contexts; Historical and religious struggles within and between nations; Socially constructed racial identities and their consequences for transculturalism in the United States; The transformative effects of sojourning in diverse cultural environments; The fundamentals of transcultural research. Editors Virginia H. Milhouse, Molefi Kete Asante, and Peter O. Nwosu set out to meet three specific needs: First, that the book's interdisciplinary approach to theory and practice in cross-cultural relations will make it an important book for several fields of study, including intercultural and interpersonal communication, international relations, human relations, psychology, anthropology, philosophy, and sociology. Second, that the book will be a reference tool for scholars of transcultural research, providing up-to-date information on cross-cultural relations that are transcultural in nature. And finally, through the use of research, is critical to a fuller understanding of cross-cultural relations in a transcultural world. Intercultural Competence in Higher Education Darla Deardorff, Lily Arasaratnam-Smith, 2017-07-20 Intercultural Competence in Higher Education features the work of scholars and international education practitioners in understanding the learning outcomes of internationalization, moving beyond rhetoric to concrete practice around the world. Devoted exclusively to exploring the central learning outcomes of internationalization efforts, this edited volume contains a refreshing combination of chapters and case studies from interdisciplinary and cross-cultural contributors, including cutting-edge issues within intercultural competence development, such as intersectionality, mapping intercultural competence, and assessment. The role of higher education in developing intercultural competence for peacebuilding in the aftermath of violent conflict, facilitating intercultural competence through international student internships, interdisciplinary and cross-cultural
