Transformations Torry D. Dickinson, 2008 Transformations , 2008 Transformations Torry D. Dickinson, Robert Schaeffer, 2008 Examines the rise of intersecting women centred movements that contribute to alternative development and the rise of new societies Greening Social Work Education Susan Hillock, 2024-03-01 Despite urgent calls for global action sustainable social work practice and a solid green theoretical knowledge base North American social work and helping professions have been slow to learn from community activists acknowledge the international climate emergency and act collectively to achieve climate justice Greening Social Work Education examines how social work educators can best incorporate sustainability content into social work curricula integrate green teaching methods and mobilize students and colleagues towards climate action justice and leadership Drawing on Canadian content this collection highlights Indigenous eco feminist collective action and multi interdisciplinary approaches to social work The book provides a rationale for why the topic of greening is important for social work and the helping professions discussion of current debates tensions and issues useful ideas related to innovative interdisciplinary theoretical approaches analyses and constructs and practical recommendations for teaching green social work education In doing so Greening Social Work Education strives to help social workers and educators gain the confidence and tools they need to transform their teaching and curricula Reading Religion and Spirituality in Jamaican Reggae Dancehall Dance 'H' Patten, 2022-03-30 This book explores the genealogy of Jamaican dancehall while questioning whether dancehall has a spiritual underscoring foregrounding dance and cultural expression This study identifies the performance and performative behavioural actions that may be considered as representing spiritual ritual practices within the reggae dancehall dance phenomenon It does so by juxtaposing reggae dancehall against Jamaican African neo African spiritual practices such as Jonkonnu masquerade Revivalism and Kumina alongside Christianity and post modern holistic spiritual approaches This book will be of great interest to students and scholars in performance studies popular culture music theology cultural studies Jamaican Caribbean culture and dance specialists Transnational Feminism in the United States Leela Fernandes, 2013-03-11 The acceleration of economic globalization and the rapid global flows of people culture and information have intensified the importance of developing transnational understandings of contemporary issues Transnational Feminism in the United States examines how transnational perspectives shape the ways in which we create and disseminate knowledge about the world within the United States and how the paradigm of transnational feminism is affected by national narratives and public discourses within the country itself An innovative theoretical project that is both deconstructive and constructive this book interrogates the limits of feminist thought primarily through case studies that illustrate its power to create new fields of research out of traditionally interdisciplinary lines of inquiry Leela Fernandes discusses ways to approach analyze and capture processes that exceed and unsettle the nation state within the transnational feminist paradigm Examining the links between power and knowledge that bind interdisciplinary theory and research she shines new light on issues such as human rights as well as academic debates about transnational feminist perspectives on global issues A thought provoking analysis Transnational Feminism in the United States powerfully contributes to the field of Women s Studies and related cross disciplinary scholarship on feminist theory and gender from a global perspective Leela Fernandes is Professor of Women s Studies and Political Science at the University of Michigan and author of India s New Middle Class Democratic Politics in an Era of Economic Reform Producing Workers The Politics of Gender Class and Culture in the Calcutta Jute Mills and Transforming Feminist Practice

Transnational Borderlands in Women's Global Networks M. Sierra,C. Román-Odio,2011-06-06 Transnational Borderlands The Making of Cultural Resistance in Women s Global Networks investigates the implications of transnational feminist methodologies at multiple levels collective actions theory pedagogy discursive and visual productions It addresses a substantial gap in the field of transnational feminisms namely the absence of a voice that links social and theoretical outcomes to the politics of representation in literature visual art discourses of rights and citizenships and pedagogy The book encompasses three categories of relevance to contemporary transnational methodologies the politics of cultural representation in literature and visual art the de centering of human women s rights and pedagogies of crossing and dissent Given current interest in the cultures of globalization and the role women and other minorities play in them we expect this book will appeal to scholars in the fields of Women s and Gender Studies Borderlands Studies Transnational Studies and to anyone interested in how transnational processes shape a culture of resistance in women s global networks Transnational Feminist Itineraries Ashwini Tambe,Millie Thayer,2021-07-06 Transnational Feminist Itineraries brings together scholars and activists from multiple continents to demonstrate the ongoing importance of transnational feminist theory in challenging neoliberal globalization and the rise of authoritarian nationalisms around the world The contributors illuminate transnational feminism s unique constellation of elements its specific mode of thinking across scales its historical understanding of identity categories and its expansive imagining of solidarity based on difference rather than similarity Contesting the idea that transnational feminism works in opposition to other approaches especially intersectional and decolonial feminisms this volume instead argues for their complementarity Throughout the contributors call for reaching across social ideological and geographical boundaries to better confront the growing reach of nationalism authoritarianism and religious and economic fundamentalism Contributors Mary Bernstein Isabel Maria Cortes o Casimiro Rafael de la Dehesa Carmen L Diaz Alba Inderpal Grewal Cricket Keating Amy Lind Laura L Lovett Kathryn Moeller Nancy A Naples Jennifer C Nash Amrita Pande Srila Roy Cara K Snyder Ashwini Tambe Millie Thayer Catarina Casimiro Trindade The Oxford Handbook of Transnational Feminist Movements Daniel Beland,Christopher Howard,Kimberly J. Morgan,2015-02-25 The American welfare state has long been a source of political contention and academic debate This Oxford Handbook pulls together much of our current knowledge about the origins development functions and challenges of American social policy After the Introduction

the first substantive part of the handbook offers an historical overview of U S social policy from the colonial era to the present This is followed by a set of chapters on different theoretical perspectives available for understanding and explaining the development of U S social policy The three following parts of the volume focus on concrete social programs for the elderly the poor and near poor the disabled and workers and families Policy areas covered include health care pensions food assistance housing unemployment benefits disability benefits workers compensation family support and programs for soldiers and veterans The final part of the book focuses on some of the consequences of the U S welfare state for poverty inequality and citizenship Many of the chapters comprising this handbook emphasize the disjointed patterns of policy making inherent to U S policymaking and the public private mix of social provision in which the government helps certain groups of citizens directly e g social insurance or indirectly e g tax expenditures regulations The contributing authors are experts from political science sociology history economics and other social sciences

Gendering Global Transformations Chima J.

Korieh,Philomina E Okeke-Ihejirika,2008-11-19 The authors collected in Gendering Global Transformations Gender Culture Race and Identity probe the effects of global and local forces in reshaping notions of gender race class identity human rights and community across Africa and its Diaspora The essays in this unique collection employ diverse interdisciplinary approaches drawing from subjects such as history sociology religion anthropology gender studies feminist studies in an effort to centralize gender as a category of analysis in developing critical perspectives in a globalizing world From this approach come a host of exciting insights and subtle analyses that serve to illuminate the effects of issues such as international migration globalization and cultural continuities among diaspora communities on the articulation of women s agency community organization and identity formation at the local and the global level Bringing together the voices of scholars from Africa Europe and the United States Gendering Global Transformations Gender Culture Race and Identity offers a multi national and wholly original perspective on the intricacies of life in a globalized era
