Association of Translation and Intercultural Studies and co editor with Federico Zanettin of Translation Studies Abstracts and Bibliography of Translation Studies Ubiquitous Translation Piotr Blumczynski, 2016-06-23 In this book Piotr Blumczynski explores the central role of translation as a key epistemological concept as well as a hermeneutic ethical linguistic and interpersonal practice His argument is three fold 1 that translation provides a basis for genuine exciting serious innovative and meaningful exchange between various areas of the humanities through both a concept the WHAT and a method the HOW 2 that in doing so it questions and challenges many of the traditional boundaries and offers a transdisciplinary epistemological paradigm leading to a new understanding of quality and thus also meaning truth and knowledge and 3 that translational phenomena are studied by a broad range of disciplines in the humanities including philosophy theology linguistics and anthropology using various often seemingly unrelated concepts which nevertheless display a considerable degree of qualitative proximity The common thread running through all these convictions and binding them together is the insistence that translational phenomena are ubiquitous Because of its unconventional and innovative approach this book will be of interest to translation studies scholars looking to situate their research within a broader transdisciplinary model as well as to students of translation programs and practicing translators who seek a fuller understanding of why and how translation matters

Voices of Women Writers Elena Anna Spagnuolo, 2023-10-10 This book investigates the practice of writing and self translating phenomenon of self translation within the context of mobility through the analysis of a corpus of narratives written by authors who were born in Italy and then moved to English speaking countries Emphasizing writing and self translating As practices which exists in conjunction with a process of redefinition of identity the book illustrates how these authors use language to negotiate and voice their identity in trans migratory contexts

Translator, Touretter: Avant-Garde Translation and the Touretter Sublime Douglas Robinson, 2024-07-01 Experimental translation has been surging in popularity recently with avant garde translation at the combative forefront But how to do it How to read it Translator Touretter plays on the Italian dictum traduttore traditore translator traitor to mobilize the affective intensity of Tourettic tics as a practical guide to making and reading avant garde translations It smashes the theoretical literature on the sublime from Longinus to Kant into Motherless Brooklyn both the 1999 novel by Jonathan Lethem and its 2019 screen adaptation by Edward Norton in order to generate out of their collision a series of models visual aural oral and kinesthetic for avant garde literary translation

Against World Literature Emily Apter, 2014-06-17 Against World Literature On the Politics of Untranslatability argues for a rethinking of comparative literature focusing on the problems that emerge when large scale paradigms of literary studies ignore the politics of the Untranslatable the realm of those words that are continually retranslated mistranslated transferred from language to language or especially resistant to substitution In the place of World Literature a dominant paradigm in the humanities one grounded in market driven notions of readability and universal appeal Apter proposes a plurality of world literatures oriented around philosophical concepts and geopolitical pressure points The history and theory of the language that constructs World Literature is critically examined with a special focus on Weltliteratur literary world systems narrative ecosystems language borders and checkpoints theologies of translation and planetary devolution in a book set to revolutionize the discipline of comparative literature Self-Translation Anthony Cordingley, 2013-01-03 A study of the multilingual cultural contexts and the hybrid identities created when writers self translate Translation and Stylistic Variation Helen Gibson, 2023-09-01 Translation and Stylistic Variation Dialect and Heteroglossia in Northern Irish Poetic Translation considers the ways in which translators use stylistic variation analysing the works of three Northern Irish poet translators to look at how in this variety the translation process becomes a creative act by which translators can explore their own linguistic and cultural heritage The volume offers a holistic portrait of the use of linguistic variety dialect and heteroglossia in the literary translations of Seamus Heaney Ciaran Carson and Tom Paulin shedding light on the translators choices but also readers experiences of them Drawing on work from cognitive stylistics Gibson reflects on how and why translators choose to add linguistic variety and how these choices can often be traced back to their socio cultural context The book not only extends existing scholarship on Irish English literary translation to examine issues unique to Northern Ireland but also raises broader questions about translation in locations where language choice is fraught and political The volume makes the case for giving increased consideration to the role of the individual translator both for insights into personal choices and a more nuanced understanding of contemporary literary translation practices in Ireland and beyond This book will be of interest to scholars working in translation studies literary studies and Irish studies For a video recording of the book s BCLT launch visit <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=857wTF8crUM>
