Conflict on Mount Lebanon Makram Rabah, 2020-08-18 The Druze and the Maronites arguably the two founding communities of modern Lebanon have the reputation of being primordial enemies Makram Rabah attempts to gauge the impact of collective memory on determining the course and the nature of the conflict between these communities in Mount Lebanon He takes as his focus the War of the Mountain in 1982 reconstructing the events of this war through the framework of collective remembrance and oral history He challenges the idea that these group identities were constructed by their respective centres of power within the Maronite and Druze community providing an alternative to the prevailing meta narrative Telling the stories of the many people who took part in these events or who simply suffered as a consequence helps to expose the intrinsic motives which led to this conflict and makes a valuable contribution to the field of Lebanese historical scholarship
