Социальная теория и методология исследований Коллектив авторов, 2022-05-15 The Business of Marketing, Entrepreneurship, and Architecture of Communal Societies in the 1960s and 1970s Rahima Schwenkbeck, 2021-11-13 This book provides an in depth history of three US based communal societies that operated in the late 1960s and 1970s Soul City Stelle and Twin Oaks with an emphasis on their financing marketing and entrepreneurship processes These communities reflect the diversity of people who were dissatisfied with the direction in which American society was heading often underpinned by concerns over racism sexism the environment and capitalism and decided to take the radical step of joining a communal society A moral economy approach offers a lens on how these communities were prevented from fully realizing their visions due to the confines of capitalism as embedded in banking practices zoning laws and systemic racism The Icon Project Leslie Sklair, 2017 The Icon Project argues that the transnational capitalist class mobilizes two forms of iconic architecture unique icons recognized as works of art notably designed by global starchitects such as Frank Gehry and Zaha Hadid and typical icons copying elements of unique icons to promote the same ideological message the culture ideology of consumerism Architecture , 1996-09 Entrepreneurship, Innovation and Regional Development Jay Mitra, 2013-03-01 Entrepreneurship Innovation and Regional Development is unique in that it addresses the central factors in economic development entrepreneurship innovation and organizational learning as regional phenomena This definitive text focuses on different types of organizations to illustrate the value of entrepreneurship and innovation both for businesses and for regional development Establishing a firm link between entrepreneurship innovation and economic regeneration the book also examines the factors contributing to their success Replete with international case studies empirical evidence of concepts and practical examples this is an ideal text to support postgraduate teaching and research related to entrepreneurship innovation management and regional economic development Dwell , 2009-06 At Dwell we re staging a minor revolution We think that it s possible to live in a house or apartment by a bold modern architect to own furniture and products that are exceptionally well designed and still be a regular human being We think that good design is an integral part of real life And that real life has been conspicuous by its absence in most design and architecture magazines Curating Architecture and the City Sarah Chaplin, Alexandra Stara, 2009-04-16 Addressing the collection representation and exhibition of architecture and the built environment this book explores current practices historical precedents theoretical issues and future possibilities arising from the meeting of a curatorial subject and an architectural object Striking a balance between theoretical investigations and case studies the chapters cover a broad methodological as well as thematic range Examining the influential role of architectural exhibitions

the contributors also look at curatorship as an emerging attitude towards the investigation and interpretation of the city

International in scope this collection investigates curation architecture and the city across the world opening up new possibilities for exploring the urban fabric

Race and Modern Architecture Irene Cheng, Charles L. Davis II, Mabel O. Wilson, 2020-05-26 Although race a concept of human difference that establishes hierarchies of power and domination has played a critical role in the development of modern architectural discourse and practice since the Enlightenment its influence on the discipline remains largely underexplored This volume offers a welcome and long awaited intervention for the field by shining a spotlight on constructions of race and their impact on architecture and theory in Europe and North America and across various global contexts since the eighteenth century Challenging us to write race back into architectural history contributors confront how racial thinking has intimately shaped some of the key concepts of modern architecture and culture over time including freedom revolution character national and indigenous style progress hybridity climate representation and radicalism By analyzing how architecture has intersected with histories of slavery colonialism and inequality from eighteenth century neoclassical governmental buildings to present day housing projects for immigrants Race and Modern Architecture challenges complicates and revises the standard association of modern architecture with a universal project of emancipation and progress

Residential Architecture as Infrastructure Stephen H. Kendall, 2021-11-29 This edited collection provides an up to date account by a group of well informed and globally positioned authors of recently implemented projects public policies and business activities in Open Building around the world Countless residential Open Building projects have been built in a number of countries some without knowledge of the original theory and methods These projects differ in architectural style building industry methods economic system and social aims National building standards and guidelines have been promulgated in several countries Finland China Japan Korea providing incentives and guidance to Open Building implementation Businesses in several countries have begun to deliver advanced FIT OUT systems both for new construction and for retrofitting existing buildings demonstrating the economic advantages of the responsive independent dwelling This book also argues that the open building approach is essential for the reactivation of the existing building stock for long term value because in the end it costs less The book discusses these developments in residential architecture from the perspective of an infrastructure model of built environment This model enables decision makers to manage risk and uncertainty while avoiding a number of problems often associated with large fast moving projects such as separation and distribution of design tasks and responsibility and the ensuing boundary frictions Residential Architecture as Infrastructure adds to the Routledge Open Building Series and will appeal to architects urban designers researchers and policy makers interested in this international review of current projects policies and business activities focused on Open Building implementation
