The Use of Folklore in the Works of Camara Laye and Ngugi Wa Thiong'o Jane Nandwa, 1991 Ngũgĩ Simon Gikandi, D. Ndirangu Wachanga, 2018 This collection of essays reflects on the life and work of Ngugi wa Thiong'o who celebrated his 80th birthday in 2018 Drawing from a wide range of contributors including writers critics publishers and activists the volume traces the emergence of Ngugi as a novelist in the early 1960s his contribution to the African culture of letters at its moment of inception and his global artistic life in the twenty first century Here we have both personal and critical reflections on the different phases of the writer's life there are poems from friends and admirers commentaries from his co workers in public theatre in Kenya in the 1970s and 1980s and from his political associates in the fight for democracy and contributions on his role as an intellectual of decolonization as well as his experiences in the global art world Included also are essays on Ngugi's role outside the academy in the world of education community theatre and activism In addition to tributes from other authors who were influenced by Ngugi the collection contains hitherto unknown materials that are appearing in English for the first time Both a celebration of the writer and a rethinking of his legacy this book brings together three generations of Ngugi readers We have memories and recollections from the people he worked with closely in the 1960s the students that he taught at the University of Nairobi in the 1970s his political associates during his exile in the 1980s and the people who worked with him as he embarked on a new life and career in the United States in the 1990s First hand accounts reveal how Ngugi's life and work have intersected and the multiple forces that have converged to make him one of the greatest writers to come out of Africa in the twentieth century Simon Gikandi is Robert Schirmer Professor of English Princeton University He was editor of the PMLA the journal of the MLA the Modern Languages Association from 2011-2016 He served as the 2nd and 1st president of the MLA in 2017 and 2018 and is the president elect of the association for 2019 Ndirangu Wachanga is Professor of Media Studies and Information Science at the University of Wisconsin He is also the authorized documentary biographer of Professors Ali A Mazrui Ngugi wa Thiong'o and Micere Mugo Ngugi wa Thiong'o, Gender, and the Ethics of Postcolonial Reading Brendon Nicholls, 2016-05-06 This is the first comprehensive book length study of gender politics in Ngugi wa Thiong'o's fiction Brendon Nicholls argues that mechanisms of gender subordination are strategically crucial to Ngugi's ideological project from his first novel to his most recent one. Nicholls describes the historical pressures that lead Ngugi to represent women as he does and shows that the novels themselves are symptomatic of the cultural conditions that they address. Reading Ngugi's fiction in terms of its Gikuyu allusions and references, a gendered narrative of history emerges that creates transgressive spaces for women. Nicholls bases his discussion on moments during the Mau Mau rebellion when women's contributions to the anticolonial struggle could not be reduced to a patriarchal narrative of Kenyan history and this interpretive maneuver permits a reading of Ngugi's fiction that accommodates female political and sexual agency. Nicholls contributes to postcolonial theory by proposing a methodology for reading cultural difference. This methodology critiques cultural practices like clitoridectomy in an ethical manner that seeks to avoid both cultural imperialism and cultural relativism. His strategy of performative reading that is making the conditions of one text such as folklore history or translation active in another, for example, fiction literary narrative or nationalism, makes possible an ethical reading of gender and of the conditions of reading in translation.

The Complete Poetical Works of Percy Bysshe Shelley Percy Bysshe Shelley, 1885. Publishing the Postcolonial Gail Low, 2020-07-24. This book explores how writers such as Amos Tutuola, George Lamming, Samuel Selvon, V.S. Naipaul, Chinua Achebe, Derek Walcott, Kamau Brathwaite, and Wole Soyinka came to be published in London in important educational series such as the Three Crown Series and African Writers Series. Low takes account of recent debates in the discipline of book history, especially issues that deal with social, cultural, and economic questions of authorship, publishing histories, canon formation, and the production, distribution, and reception of texts in the literary marketplace. Searching publishing archives for readers' reports, editorial correspondence, and interventions, this book represents a necessary exploration of postwar publishing contexts and the dissemination of texts from London that is crucial to literary histories of the postcolonial book. Taken together as a postwar generation, this cohort of now canonical writers helped imagine their respective national communities yet their intellectual labors entered an elite transnational literary circuit and correspondingly were transformed into textual commodities by the economic social cultural and institutional transactions that were part of an expanding print capitalism Kunapipi ,1989 The African Book Publishing Record ,2012 Textures ,2004 Research in African Literatures ,2009 Vol 1 spring 1970 include A Bibliography of American doctoral dissertations on African literature compiled by Nancy J Schmidt The Works of Ngugi Wa Thiong'o Chimalum Moses Nwankwo,1992 Meridian ,1983 Interdisciplinary Dimensions of African Literature African Literature Association.
